Economics And Eagles:

The American Eagles and Their Economic Status, 1964 United States. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 1964
The North American Eagles and Their Economic Relations Harry Church Oberholser, 1906 Economics and the Environment Curt L. Anderson, 1996 Teachers and students learn about the complementary relationship between their own economic wellbeing and the natural resources of the environment The lessons can be used in high school economics environmental studies social issues and natural science courses The Economic Approach to Public Policy Ryan Amacher, Robert D. Tollison, Thomas D. Willett, 2019-06-30 Can traditional economic theory help to solve today's vexing social problems This unique collection of thirty six papers strongly suggests that it can The economic approach is applied imaginatively by the authors to a wide range of contemporary issues such as crime higher education the environment revenue sharing equity justice and the distribution of income The articles also deal with governmental behavior and the role of the economist as governmental adviser Shaped during the preparation and teaching of college classes the book is well suited for courses in principles of economics microeconomics price theory and public policy development and analysis It should also prove a useful reference work for policy makers The Bald Eagle and Its Economic Status Ralph H. Imler, Edwin Richard Kalmbach, 1955 Human Dimensions of Wildlife Management Daniel J. Decker, Shawn J. Riley, William F. Siemer, 2012-10-15 Updated and revised this classic work is a must read for every student of wildlife management and every professional seeking to become a better manager Wildlife professionals can more effectively manage species and social ecological systems by fully considering the role that humans play in every stage of the process Human Dimensions of Wildlife Management provides the essential information that students and practitioners need to be effective problem solvers Edited by three leading experts in wildlife management this textbook explores the interface of humans with wildlife and their sometimes complementary often conflicting interests The book's well researched chapters address conservation wildlife use hunting and fishing and the psychological and philosophical underpinnings of wildlife management Human Dimensions of Wildlife Management explains how a wildlife professional should handle a variety of situations such as managing deer populations in residential areas or encounters between predators and people or pets This thoroughly revised and updated edition includes detailed information about systems thinking working with social scientists managing citizen input using economics to inform decision making preparing questionnaires ethical considerations On Eagle's Wings Dirk J. Bezemer, 2006 This book is a contribution by a diverse group of authors from the academic business and policy advice communities to our understanding of recent social and economic developments in Albania The motivation for this book is that there are lessons of wider importance to be learnt from the fascinating story of recent Albanian developments Michael Kaser opens the book with a recounting of the country's history and political economy before and during transition He brings to the job nearly six decades of professional experience as a diplomat and academic and an intimate knowledge of Albania This chapter provides a detailed political history during transition up to late 2004 Dirk Bezemer contributes an analysis of the collapse in early 1997 of the economy and society brought about by Ponzi schemes He links the lack of productivity growth and the growth of a virtual financial sector to policy practice focusing on macro stability and state abstinence from interfering in sectoral issues policies which are still common in many transition and developing economies Albania has implemented tight monetary policy stabilised the exchange rate implemented prudent fiscal policies and achieved a significant reduction in domestic borrowing all contributing to the decline of the overall deficit Based on his expertise as an IMF analyst Treichel discusses Albania's macroeconomic prospects Nevila Konica documents the large Albanian emigration flows during transition leading to an estimated ten percent of the population working outside Albanian territory Based on her large primary survey data set she explores personal attributes that characterise emigrants as well as the extent of the brain drain She finds that remittances from emigration have been vitally important to Albania's economy by contributing to household incomes and reducing domestic unemployment Klarita Gerxhani delves deeper into the nature of the informal economy and presents key insights from her original academic research based on fieldwork in Tirana In her study of the street vending sector she traces its emergence to clear push and pull factors emigration issue in the broader context of labour market developments They analyse the large regional differences in unemployment rate the large share of long term unemployment and the persistently higher than average unemployment rate and falling participation rate for women They also conclude that emigration reduced the pressure of unemployment in the labour market and on the government's budget and contributed to financing imports consumption and investments through remittances Gloria La Cava uses her research experience as World Bank Senior Social Scientist specialising in the region to address jointly with co author Rafaella Nanetti the changing socio economic conditions that Albanians face They focus on the nature of people's vulnerability resulting from a loss of social support during the transformation years and on social programs addressing new needs World Bank analyst Malcolm Childress discusses the unfinished business of land and property reform in Albania emergence of a dynamic land market and the sustained supply response which was expected Urban property privatisation has fostered a construction boom in Tirana and along the coast and the creation of large areas of informal settlement on the outskirts of Tirana and Durrës Childress provides an insightful discussion of possible consequences In the final chapter on agriculture Pasquale Pazienza highlights key problems of land fragmentation and under investment particularly in the irrigation system illuminating the current situation with the post war history of agricultural and land reforms He explores the determinants of productivity in a production function framework taking a long term view and draws out implication for what is still the largest sector in Albania's economy
