Western Political Thought in Dialogue with Asia Cary J. Nederman, Takashi Shogimen, 2008-12-16 Given the rise of globalization and coinciding increase in cultural clashes among diverse nations it has become eminently clear to scholars of political thought that there exists a critical gap in the knowledge of non Western philosophies and how Western thought has been influenced by them This gap has led to a severely diminished capacity of both state and nonstate actors to communicate effectively on a global scale The political theorists area scholars and intellectual historians gathered here by Takashi Shogimen and Cary J Nederman examine the exchange of political ideas between Europe and Asia from the Middle Ages to the early twentieth century They establish the need for comparative political thought showing that in order to fully grasp the origins and achievements of the West historians of political thought must incorporate Asian political discourse and ideas into their understanding By engaging in comparative studies this volume proves the necessity of a cross disciplinary approach in guiding the study of the global history of political thought *Village Dialogues, Between Farmer Littleworth, Thomas Newman, Rev. From Culture of Fear to Society of Trust Janez Juhant, Bojan Žalec, 2013

Fear is an emotion that is strongly connected with violence and with the darkest periods of history including terrorism genocides and totalitarianism It is especially important for theology where it can be considered to have very positive aspects However worldwide cultures are too often burdened with unnecessary fear There are different factors involved in the cultivation of an adequate culture of fear and one of them is the certainly that mankind does indeed know how to cultivate it Therefore awareness and knowledge about the concept of fear is necessary This book helps to increase and widen that understanding
