Going To Church In The First Century:

Going to Church in the First Century Robert Banks, 1990-05 This brief narrative attempts to depict what it was like to attend an early Christian gathering in the middle of the first century Rome was chosen as the location because we know more about details of ordinary life there at that time than anywhere else Aquila and Priscilla were selected as hosts of the church because their long term connection with Paul meant that the gathering in their home would most probably follow the line his letters suggest The material utilized in this study came from biblical and other literary sources both Roman and Greek and from archaeological and inscriptional evidence The Preface

Banks, 1980 Restoring the First-century Church in the Twenty-first Century Warren Lewis, Hans Rollmann, 2005-10-15 Restoring the First century Church in the Twenty first Century Essays on the Stone Campbell Restoration Movement in Honor of Don Haymes is a snap shot of a major American religious movement just after the turn of the millennium When the Disciples of Alexander Campbell and the Christians of Barton Warren Stone joined forces early in the 19th century the first indigenous ecumenical movement in the United States came into being Two hundred years later this American experiment in biblical primitivism has resulted in three possibly four large segments Best known is the Christian Church Disciples of Christ active wherever ecumenical Christians gather The denomination is typically theologically open having been reshaped by theological Liberalism and the Social Gospel in the twentieth century and has been reorganized on the model of other Protestant bodies The largest group the Churches of Christ easily distinguished by their insistence on a cappella music singing only is theologically conservative now tending towards the evangelical and congregationally autonomous though with a denominational sense of brotherhood The Christian Churches Churches of Christ Independent are a via media between the two other bodies theologically conservative and evangelical congregationally autonomous pastorally oriented and comfortable with instrumental music The fourth numerically significant group the churches of Christ Anti Institutional is a conservative reaction to the a cappella churches much in the way that the Southern a capella churches reacted against the emerging intellectual culture and social location instrumental music and institutional centrism of the Northern Disciples following the Civil War Besides these four numerous smaller fragments typically one article splinter groups decorate the history of the Restoration Movement One Cup brethren Premillennialists No Sunday School congregations No Located Preacher churches and others This movement to unite Christians on the basis of faith and immersion in Jesus Christ and to restore New Testament Christianity is too little recognized on the American religious landscape and it has been too little studied by the academic community This volume is focused primarily on the a cappella churches and their interests but implications for the entire Stone Campbell Restoration Movement abound The voices that speak freely within were unimpeded in authoring these essays by standards of orthodoxy imposed from without All of the contributors are acquainted with Don Haymes the honoree of the volume and have been inspired by this friend and colleague a man with a rigorous and earthy intellect and a heavenly spirit David Bundy series editor Studies in the History and Culture of World Christianities

The Stratified Leadership Model of the First-Century Christian Church Barton S. Garratt

Edsall,2025-07-29 This research work aims to present a solution to the problem of withering Christian congregations present in modern Christian churches by way of expounding the doctrine that Jesus or his apostles promoted as displayed in the four canonical Gospels the Acts of the Apostles or the New Testament epistles This study presents factual information showing that the doctrine and arrangement of leaders that developed within the first century church may have been overlooked and lost by the wayside of history in favor of established traditions Paul declared his purpose for visiting the church believers in

Rome was not to collect money or build houses of worship but so that their lives might manifest spiritual fruit Following that example improving the spiritual quality of their people's lives should be the primary goal of all Christian ministers The majority of this work will conduct a careful exegesis of selected passages from the New Testament which focus on the leadership model utilized by the first century church This study presents in detail the stratified leadership model of the early times in such a fashion that any modern church might replicate its design

Toward a Twenty-First Century Biblical, Apostolic Church SuYeon Yoon, 2019-09-19 This book explores biblical values that critique the ecclesiology of the New Apostolic Reformation Church NARC and compares the ecclesiology to other missional movements in the North American context A biblical exegesis of Ephesians 4:11-13 as well as C. Peter Wagner's conceptualization of an apostle and apostolic ministry allow the author to demonstrate the gap between the biblical perspective and Wagner's concept of an apostle The biblical role of an apostle is to make the church missional by emphasizing the concept of sending whereas Wagner sees the apostle as a church leader Based upon interviews and participant observation in three NARCs SuYeon Yoon describes the leadership and ecclesiology based on their own self-descriptions This book then demonstrates the gap between the biblical and conceptual ideals and the reality of ecclesial practice The author argues that the NARC serves as a charismatic manifestation of a similar cultural response to establish a relational structure for church communities that can appropriately reflect upon and identify with the contemporary context This implies that each movement needs to be biblically sound faithful to its conceptualization and relevant to the context in order to cultivate its own way of being the church

Who Is the Church? An Ecclesiology for the Twenty-First Century Cheryl M. Peterson, 2013-05-01 Many congregations today are beset by fears whether over loss of members and money or of irrelevancy in an increasingly pluralistic society To counter this many congregations focus on strategy and purpose what churches do but Cheryl Peterson submits that mainline churches need to focus instead on what or who they are to reclaim a theological rather than sociological understanding of themselves To do this she places the questions of the church's identity and mission into a conversation with the primary ecclesiological paradigms of the past century the neo Reformation concept of the church as a word event and the ecumenical paradigms of the church as communion She argues that these two paradigms assume a context of cultural Christendom that no longer exists focused on the church that is gathered rather than the missional church that is sent out The Heart of Wisdom Teaching Approach Robin Sampson,2005-04 Details the Bible based homeschool teaching approach for parents and discusses Christian education learning styles unit studies bible study and more

The Missed Mission of The Great Commission A First Century Discipleship Paradigm for the 21st Century George Eberly,2016-12-15 The Missed Mission of the Great Commission is discipleship or as Jesus puts it teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you Matthew 28 20 Thousands upon thousands of people have come to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ over the last four decades Yet during the same period of time the influence of Christianity on the American society has greatly diminished There have been many converts but far fewer have become disciples whose lives testify the presence of Jesus As Pastor Eberly shares about his years of ministry he calls the church back to a New Testament paradigm of discipleship He focuses on biblical principles rather than programs because one size does not fit all His book also points to practical ways in which these principles can be applied in whatever situation

Women of the Bible vs. Women of the Twenty-First Century Dr. Erdie Mae Roberts Hutchings,2021-05-03 As the ruler of the world God had chosen how to guide His people He pointed them to two relationships Jesus s relationship to the Father who sent Him and His relationship to those God gave Him God controls every breath that we take and every step that one makes It is God that makes disappointments His appointments God reminds woman that His delay does not mean denials it means development God's provision had already been set for both women of the Bible and women of the twenty first century This helped women worship the Giver more than the gift This is why prayer should not only be focused on God's provision but on His vision God stirred the spirit being large and in charge It was the relationship that women of the twenty first century and biblical women had with God that opened a mirror into the condition of their heart and women's dependence on Him God's delay does not mean denials it means development Women of today's era are much different than biblical women The twenty first century woman is consumed with multiple obligations duties and responsibilities on a daily basis sometimes all at once Today's women are finally stepping out of their historical role of only mother and housewife The modern woman has a much different lifestyle with many different choices Modern women also look dress and act much differently than biblical women Women today have also evolved and continue to evolve as they adapt to change

The Priesthood of All Believers in the Twenty-First Century Robert A. Muthiah, 2009-05-01 Robert Muthiah believes a deepened theology of the priesthood of all believers is essential for answering the crucial questions of what shape the church should take in the twenty first century and how this theological query relates to the lived experiences of congregations Emerging churches which tend to develop vibrant practices of the priesthood of all believers need to develop more fully their ecclesiological underpinnings while historic churches with a well developed theology of the priesthood of all believers need a renewed vigor to allow this theology to shape their congregational lives With recourse to relevant New Testament texts and theological conversations The Priesthood of All Believers in the Twenty First Century argues for a fresh understanding and embodiment of the priesthood of all believers by setting ecclesiology postmodern culture and congregational practices in dialogue Elements of the discussion include ecumenical and Free church perspectives Trinitarian correspondence postmodern social structures the relevance of Alasdair McIntyre's social practices for congregations and forms of congregational leadership

Exemplary Life Andy

Chambers, 2012-11-01 Exemplary Life articulates Luke's vision for life together in a local church using key passages from Acts 2:42-47, 4:32-35 and 5:12-16 known as summary narratives as the starting point of reference. Although Luke is rightly acclaimed as the church's first historian, he was a powerful writer and theologian as well. He also planted churches with Paul and had definite convictions about what life together in the church should look like. Yet Luke's theology of church life is underemphasized in modern scholarship, downplayed by issues rising from the historical critical method. However, when the summary narratives are studied through the lens of narrative and rhetorical criticism, Luke's strategy is unmistakable. Those passages cast a vision for life together in an exemplary church drawn from the historical circumstances of the church in Jerusalem. These narratives also serve as a starting point for studying church life throughout Acts. When the church planting movements in Samaria, Antioch, Ephesus, and Troas are examined, we find echoes of the narratives almost constantly. These amplify and drive home Luke's message in the summary narratives. Taking this path, twenty distinct characteristics of exemplary church life emerge. From repentance and Scriptural authority to praying together and earning the respect of neighbors, each one is thoughtfully presented here by author Andy Chambers to reassert Luke's voice in 21st-century conversations about the faithful formation of New Testament churches.
