Walker-Jones, Suzanna R. Millar, 2024-06-21 Ask the animals and they will tell you Birds beasts and creeping things swarm throughout the Bible's pages Despite their prevalence most biblical scholars have viewed them merely as metaphors passive objects or background embellishment to the human experience This collection seeks to move beyond this traditional view of biblical animals by engaging the growing interdisciplinary field of animal studies Contributors Peter Joshua Atkins Jared Beverly William P Brown Margaret Cohen Jacob R Evers Michael J Gilmour William Chip Gruen Dong Hyeon Jeong Brian Fiu Kolia Anne L tourneau Robert R MacKay Suzanna R Millar Timothy J Sandoval Robert Paul Seesengood Ken Stone Brian James Tipton Arthur W Walker Jones and Jaime L Waters showcase the breadth and depth of inquiry that animal studies can foster in biblical studies as well as what animal studies can gain from a more rigorous engagement with biblical texts Together the essays offer an animal hermeneutic that supports the flourishing of all creatures Aileen Aroon: a memoir, with other tales of faithful friends and favourites, sketched from life William Gordon Stables, 1884 Our Dumb Animals , 1915 Why Dogs go to Heaven Robert P. Olson ThM, 2025-09-09 Do dogs really go to heaven Why not After all dogs are mentioned at least forty times in the Bible Cats Zero If dogs were not important why would Job tell us that if we want to know who God is we are to ask the beasts the fowl the trees and the earth itself and they will tell us their lives are in the hands of their Creator Since the creation of humanity God's invisible qualities His eternal power and divine nature are clearly seen being understood from what has been made This undeniable truth speaks to us from creation itself The apostle John shares his vision of the new heaven and new earth in the book of Revelation where the city gates were made of pearls and the street of pure gold Can you imagine your dog sitting at the gate welcoming all who enter or lying next to the jasper wall of the city In this incredible book author Robert Olson shares countless examples of how we can get to know God through his stories and experiences with the crew their puppies and discover God s kingdom for our lives As you discover God and His kingdom you will learn what it is to have a servant s heart hope that does not disappoint unconditional love and much more You will come to know about God his Son the Holy Spirit and God s original purpose to bring His invisible heavenly kingdom to the visible earth the supernatural to the natural through the remarkable lives of his dogs Rob and his wife Rebecca are small in home breeders of Goldendoodles and Bernedoodles in Cullman Alabama During Rebecca s years as a travel BSN RN she had the opportunity to meet her first Goldendoodle It was love at first sight She adopted Olive Rose and had her trained to be a therapy dog to visit nursing homes and assisted living facilities They realized Goldendoodles love to be with their family and crave to be around people They have a wonderful temperament and a calm gentle demeanor They have devoted their lives to serving others through kingdom principles and strive daily to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness giving Jesus all the glory and praise in all they do They chose to become small in home breeders of Goldendoodles and Bernedoodles after realizing what a ministry it would be to breed the highest quality of healthy intelligent puppies to become new family members providing companionship therapy and or service dogs for special needs individuals You can find Rob and Rebecca on FB at Kingdom Doodles Social Lives with Other Animals E. Cudworth,2011-04-01 A provocative sociological account of human relations with non human animals providing an innovative theorization of the social relations of species in terms of complex systemic relations of domination looking at ways Other animals are constitutive of human social lives at the dinner table as livestock and as companions in our homes American Magazine ,1924 Animal Welfare in World Religion Joyce D'Silva,2023-05-01 This unique and readable book examines the relationship between religion and animal welfare taking a detailed dive into the teachings and practices of the major world religions While there are many books expounding the beliefs of the major religions and many about the rights and welfare of animals there are few linking the two With each chapter focusing on one of the five major religions Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism the book explores the beliefs and practices which drive our relationship with and treatment of animals The book draws on the scriptures of the major faiths and includes the voices of leading historical religious figures and contemporary faith leaders In doing so it compares the teachings of old with contemporary practices and showcases the impact of the major religions on both the protection and exploitation of animals from running animal sanctuaries to participating in or condoning cruel sports and factory farming Importantly the book also includes a chapter looking beyond the major world religions where it examines a wider range of beliefs and practices including Indigenous peoples from the USA and Australia Jainism Sikhism and Rastafarianism to provide fascinating insights into another range of beliefs and views on the human animal relationship Overall this book challenges and encourages religious leaders and followers to re examine their teachings and to prioritise the well being of animals This book is essential reading for those interested in the role of religion in animal welfare human animal studies and animal welfare and ethics more broadly

Shameless Cristiana Franco,2014-09-26 The figure of the dog is a paradox As in so many cultures past and present the dog in ancient Greece was seen as the animal closest to humans even as it elicited from them the most negative representations Still a loaded term today the word bitch not only signified shamelessness and a lack of self control but was also exclusively figured as female Woman and dogs in the Greek imagination were intimately intertwined and in this careful engaging analysis Cristiana Franco explores the ancients complex relationship with both By analyzing the relationship between humans and dogs as depicted in a vast array of myths proverbs spontaneous metaphors and comic jokes Franco in particular shows how the symbolic overlap between dog and woman provided the conceptual tools to maintain feminine subordination Intended for general readers as well as scholars Shameless extends the boundaries of classics and anthropology forming a model of the sensitive work that can be done to illuminate how deeply animals are imbricated in human history The English translation has been revised and expanded from the original Italian edition and it includes a new methodological appendix by the author that points the way toward future work in the emerging field of human animal studies

Mason,2016-02-18 These homilies lectures and essays vigorously champion the author s conviction that it is reasonable to believe in a God of pure unbounded love and also that the best religion is a reasonable religion That is the God of Love is the God of Reason and as a seventeenth century Cambridge preacher put it If you would be religious be rational in your religion Thus these essays challenge both the New Atheists and Fundamentalists who are twins like Tweedledum and Tweedledee And they aim positively to unpack the meaning and implications of Jesus dictum You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind This is the greatest and first commandment And the second is like it You shall love your neighbor as yourself On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets Strong Opinions Chris Danta,Sue Kossew,Julian Murphet,2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee s work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee s most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee s decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee s direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee s explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life Dog Control and Welfare Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Committee,2013-02-15 DEFRA s belated proposals to tackle irresponsible dog ownership are too limited Since 2007 dogs have killed seven people including five children in private homes The NHS also spends over 3 million annually treating dog attack injuries Some eight assistance dogs a month and thousands of livestock annually are attacked by dogs The Home Office approach to tackling antisocial behaviour is too simplistic and fails to reflect the impact that poor breeding and training by irresponsible owners can have on a dog s behaviour New rules should give enforcement officers more effective powers including Dog Control Notices to prevent dog related antisocial behaviour Local authorities need to devote more resources to the effective management of stray dogs MPs call for changes in the legislation to give powers to extend the banned list to include other dogs with particularly aggressive characteristics At the same time those tasked to enforce legislation should have the discretion to neuter rather than destroy a banned animal where a particular dog poses no threat The Advisory Council on Welfare Issues of Dog Breeding should be given a formal regulatory role to enforce standards Any breeder producing more than two litters per year should be licensed and subject to welfare checks The Kennel Club should stop registering puppies from breeders not compliant with its own Assured Breeder Scheme It should also commission an independent annual review of Breed Standards led by vets to eliminate health problems linked to breeding for exaggerated characteristics Lastly MPs call on websites advertising pets to develop a voluntary Code of Practice
