Gold And Silver Photographs Of Australian Goldfields From The Holtermann Collection:

Gold and Silver Bernard Otto Holtermann, 1977 Our Multicultural Heritage, 1788-1945 National Library of Australia, 1995 The Archaeology of Australia's History Graham Connah, 1993-12-13 The material world of European settlement in Australia has been uncovered not only by historians but also by the work of archaeologists These archaeological inquiries have revealed new pictures of the public and private lives of Australians at home and at work This book previously published as a hardback under the title Of the Hut I Built now in paperback presents the insights gained from such investigations and makes them available to a wide audience Historical archaeology is broad ranging and this book discusses the first European towns including those settlements that failed the archaeological traces left by the convicts and archaeological evidence of the agricultural maritime industrial and manufacturing activities of early Australia Graham Connah also examines the evidence of earliest contact between Europeans and Aboriginal people The Gold Crusades Douglas Fetherling, 1997-12-15 Among the hordes of starry eyed argonauts who flocked to the California gold rush of 1849 was an Australian named Edward Hargraves He left America empty handed only to find gold in his own backyard The result was the great Australian rush of the 1850s which also attracted participants from around the world A South African named P J Marais was one of them Marais too returned home in defeat only to set in motion the diamond and gold rushes that transformed southern Africa And so it went Most previous historians of the gold rushes have tended to view them as acts of spontaneous nationalism Each country likes to see its own gold rush as the one that either shaped those that followed or epitomized all the rest In The Gold Crusades A Social History of Gold Rushes 1849-1929 Douglas Fetherling takes a different approach Fetherling argues that the gold rushes in the United States Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa shared the same causes and results the same characters and characteristics He posits that they were in fact a single discontinuous event an expression of the British imperial experience and nineteenth century liberalism He does so with dash and style and with a sharp eye for the telling anecdote the out of the way document and the bold connection between seemingly unrelated disciplines Originally published by Macmillan of Canada 1988 Gold and Silver Bernard Otto Holtermann, 1973 Hill End Alan Mayne, 2016-10-18 The history of the Australian gold rushes is full of exaggeration the First This the Richest That the Largest Something Else Hill End unravels the myths surrounding the gold rushes in order to reveal the hidden histories of the Wiradjuri people of the graziers and convicts who occupied the Wiradjuri lands of the multicultural gold boom community and of the subsistence community that endured for generations after the boom had passed Hill End is perched high on the New South Wales Central Tablelands some 300 kilometres north west of Sydney The Hill End Historic Site which was proclaimed in 1967 is one of first cultural heritage sites to be reserved in Australia This is a book that digs past Hill End s gold rush facade into the lives of the people who lived through its history Architectural Conservation in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands John Stubbs, William Chapman, Julia Gatley, Ross King, 2023-12-22 The fourth in a series that documents architectural conservation in different parts of the world Architectural Conservation in Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands National Experiences and Practice addresses cultural heritage protection in a region which comprises one third of the Earth s surface In response to local needs Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands have developed some of the most important and influential techniques legislation doctrine and theories in cultural heritage management in the world The evolution of the heritage protection ethos and contemporary architectural conservation practices in Australia and Oceania are discussed on a national and regional basis using ample illustrations and examples Accomplishments in architectural conservation are discussed in their national and international contexts with an emphasis on original developments solutions and contributions made to the overall field Enriched with essays contributed from fifty nine specialists and thought leaders in the field this book contains an extraordinary breadth and depth of research and synthesis on the why s and how s of cultural heritage conservation Its holistic approach provides an essential resource and reference for students academics researchers policy makers practitioners and all who are interested in conserving the built environment

Making Culture Visible Julie K. Brown,2018-11-06 First published in 2001 Making Culture Visible provides a fresh focus on the history of nineteenth century photography The narrative moves from a close focus on several selected events between 1847 and 1900 beginning with six industrial fairs of the 1840s 1860s to the looming presence of the Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition in the mid 1870s The last two chapters deal with the exhibition work of the Smithsonian Institution s US National Museum in the 1880s and finally the collecting and displays of public libraries in the 1890s The evolution of the increasingly complex social function of photography is clearly demonstrated
