Women and War Bernard A. Cook, 2006-05-19 In this unique encyclopedia 120 leading scholars from around the world provide comprehensive treatment of the role of women in war from the first written history to the present This authoritative encyclopedia presents the work of leading scholars from all over the world to give the first detailed coverage of the role of women in wars throughout history

Histories of war are typically histories of men great leaders and heroic fighters Yet the roles of women often receive only limited coverage Except for such notables as Joan of Arc traditional histories give short shrift to women as leaders and fighters Similarly the direct victimization particularly sexual abuse as a weapon of terror and domination and cultural dislocations women suffer in war float as background without detailed coverage This work represents a first devoted in its entirety to thorough examination of all aspects of women in war For the first time readers have a single source for information on the scope of women s role in war and war s effects on them

The Making of an Alliance David Tal, 2022-01-06 Laying the foundation for an understanding of US Israeli relations this lively and accessible book provides critical background on the origins and development of the special relations between Israel and the United States Questioning the usual neo realist approach to understanding this relationship David Tal instead suggests that the relations between the two nations were constructed on idealism political culture and strategic ties Based on a diverse range of primary sources collected in archives in both Israel and the United States The Making of an Alliance discusses the development of relations built through constant contact between people and ideas showing how presidents and Prime Ministers state officials and ordinary people from both countries impacted one another It was this constancy of religion values and history serving the bedrock of the relations between the two countries and peoples over which the ephemeral was negotiated

Women of Valor Sheila F. Segal, 1996 Biographies of eight women who made unique contributions to Jewish life including union organizer Rose Schneiderman founder of Hadassah Henrietta Szold and Israel s first Olympic medalist Yael Arad
