Summers Sandoval (Jr.),2013 Latinos at the Golden Gate Creating Community and Identity in San Francisco The Presidio Lisa Benton-Short,1998 The story of the Presidio s conversion from military post to national park Interviews and Conversations with 20th-century Authors Writing in English Stan A. Vrana,1982 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com The Heart of the Mission Cary Cordova,2017-06-22 The Heart of the Mission is the first in depth examination of the Latino arts renaissance in San Francisco s Mission District in the latter twentieth century Using evocative oral histories and archival research Cordova highlights the rise of a vibrant intellectual community grounded in avant garde aesthetics and radical politics Building San Francisco's Parks, 1850-1930 Terence Young,2004-02-16 In 1865 when San Francisco s Daily Evening Bulletin asked its readers if it were not time for the city to finally establish a public park residents had only private gardens and small urban squares where they could retreat from urban crowding noise and filth Five short years later city supervisors approved the creation of Golden Gate Park the second largest urban park in America Over the next sixty years and particularly after 1900 a network of smaller parks and parkways was built turning San Francisco into one of the nation s greenest cities In Building San Francisco s Parks 1850 1930 Terence Young traces the history of San Francisco s park system from the earliest city plans which made no provision for a public park through the private garden movement of the 1850s and 1860 Frederick Law Olmsted s early involvement in developing a comprehensive parks plan the design and construction of Golden Gate Park and finally to the expansion of green space in the first third of the twentieth century Young documents this history in terms of the four social ideals that guided America s urban park advocates and planners in this period public health prosperity social coherence and democratic equality He also differentiates between two periods in the history of American park building each defined by a distinctive attitude towards improving nature the romantic approach which prevailed from the 1860s to the 1880s emphasized the beauty of nature while the rationalistic approach dominant from the 1880s to the 1920s saw nature as the best setting for uplifting activities such as athletics and education Building San Francisco s Parks 1850 1930 maps the political cultural and social dimensions of landscape design in urban America and offers new insights into the transformation of San Francisco s physical environment and quality of life through its world famous park system Commerce America ,1976 Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations, 1964 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations,1963 Dockworker Power Peter Cole,2018-12-30 Philip Taft Labor History Book Award Labor and Working Class History Association LAWCHA and the Cornell ILR School 2019 A Black Perspectives Best Black History Book of 2018 Dockworkers have power Often missed in commentary on today s globalizing economy workers in the world s ports can harness their role at a strategic choke point to promote their labor rights and social justice causes Peter Cole brings such overlooked experiences to light in an eye opening comparative study of Durban

South Africa and the San Francisco Bay Area California Path breaking research reveals how unions effected lasting change in some of the most far reaching struggles of modern times First dockworkers in each city drew on longstanding radical traditions to promote racial equality Second they persevered when a new technology container ships sent a shockwave of layoffs through the industry Finally their commitment to black internationalism and leftist politics sparked transnational work stoppages to protest apartheid and authoritarianism Dockworker Power not only brings to light surprising parallels in the experiences of dockers half a world away from each other It also offers a new perspective on how workers can change their conditions and world

Unbound Feet Judy Yung,1995-11-15 The crippling custom of footbinding is the thematic touchstone for this engrossing study of Chinese women in San Francisco Judy Yung a second generation Chinese American born and raised in San Francisco shows the stages of unbinding that occurred in the decades between the turn of the century and the end of the World War II revealing that these women rather than being passive victims of oppression were active agents in the making of their own history

A Terrible Anger David F. Selvin,1996 In A Terrible Anger David F Selvin presents a narrative history of the strikes Unlike other labor historians who have stressed the importance of radical groups involved in the strikes he addresses the impact on unions owners government and the daily press A witness to the strikes Selvin has written a compelling story of the traumas and triumphs which acted as catalysts for the tumultuous labor battles of the mid 1930s

Lou Harrison Bill Alves,Brett Campbell,2017-04-10 A biography on the legendary gay American composer of contemporary classical music American composer Lou Harrison 1917 2003 is perhaps best known for challenging the traditional musical establishment along with his contemporaries and close colleagues composers John Cage Aaron Copland Virgil Thomson and Leonard Bernstein Living Theater founder Judith Malina and choreographer Merce Cunningham Today musicians from Bang on a Can to Bj rk are indebted to the cultural hybrids Harrison pioneered half a century ago His explorations of new tonalities at a time when the rest of the avant garde considered such interests heretical set the stage for minimalism and musical post modernism His propulsive rhythms and ground breaking use of percussion have inspired choreographers from Merce Cunningham to Mark Morris and he is considered the godfather of the so called world music phenomenon that has invigorated Western music with global sounds over the past two decades In this biography authors Bill Alves and Brett Campbell trace Harrison s life and career from the diverse streets of San Francisco where he studied with music experimentalist Henry Cowell and Austrian composer Arnold Schoenberg and where he discovered his love for all things non traditional Beat poetry parties and men to the competitive performance industry in New York where he subsequently launched his career as a composer conducted Charles Ives s Third Symphony at Carnegie Hall winning the elder composer a Pulitzer Prize and experienced a devastating mental breakdown to the experimental arts institution of Black Mountain College where he was involved in the first happenings with Cage Cunningham and others and finally back to California where he would become a strong voice in human rights and environmental campaigns and compose some of the most eclectic pieces of his career Lou Harrison's avuncular personality and tuneful music coaxed affectionate regard from all who knew him and that affection is evident on every page of Alves and Campbell's new biography Eminently readable it puts Harrison at the center of American music he knew everyone important and was in touch with everybody from mentors like Henry Cowell and Arnold Schoenberg and Charles Ives and Harry Partch and Virgil Thomson to peers like John Cage to students like Janice Giteck and Paul Dresher He was larger than life in person and now he is larger than life in history as well Kyle Gann author of Charles Ives's Concord Essays After a Sonata The Rages of Excess David A. Carpenter, 1987

Background Artist Karen Fang, 2024-10-11 You might not know the name Tyrus Wong but you probably know some of the images he created including scenes from the beloved Disney classic Bambi Yet when he came to this country as a child Tyrus was an illegal immigrant locked up in an offshore detention center How did he go on to a long and prosperous career drawing animation cels storyboards and greeting cards that shaped the American imagination Background Artist shares the inspiring story of Tyrus Wong's remarkable 106 year life and showcases his wide array of creative work from the paintings and fine art prints he made working for Roosevelt's Works Progress Administration to the unique handmade kites he designed and flew on the Santa Monica beach It tells how he came to the United States as a ten year old boy in 1920 at a time when the Chinese Exclusion Act barred him from legal citizenship Yet it also shows how Wong found American communities that welcomed him and nurtured his artistic talent Covering everything from his work as a studio sketch artist for Warner Bros to the best selling Christmas cards he designed for Hallmark and other greeting card companies this book celebrates a multitalented Asian American artist and pioneer Freedom North J. Theoharis, K. Woodard, 2016-03-05 The civil rights movement occupies a prominent place in popular thinking and scholarly work on post 1945 U S history Yet the dominant narrative of the movement remains that of a nonviolent movement born in the South during the 1950s that emerged triumphant in the early 1960s only to be derailed by the twin forces of Black Power and white backlash when it sought to move outside the South after 1965 African American protest and political movements outside the South appear as ancillary and subsequent to the real movement in the South despite the fact that black activism existed in the North Midwest and West in the 1940s and persisted well into the 1970s This book brings together new scholarship on black social movements outside the South to rethink the civil rights narrative and the place of race in recent history Each chapter focuses on a different location and movement outside the South revealing distinctive forms of U S racism according to place and the varieties of tactics and ideologies that community members used to attack these inequalities to show that the civil rights movement was indeed a national movement for racial justice and liberation San Francisco's Queen of Vice Lisa Riffin, 2017 San Francisco's Queen of Vice uncovers the story of one of the most skilled high priced and corrupt abortion entrepreneurs in America Even as Prohibition was the driving force behind organized crime abortions became the third largest illegal enterprise as state and federal statutes combined with changing social mores to drive abortionists into hiding

Inez Brown Burns a notorious socialite and abortionist in San Francisco made a fortune providing her services to desperate women throughout California Beginning in the 1920s Burns oversaw some 150 000 abortions until her trial and conviction brought her downfall In San Francisco's Queen of Vice Lisa Rigglin tells the story of the rise and fall of San Francisco's abortion queen and explores the rivalry between Burns and the city's newly elected district attorney Edmund G Pat Brown father of the present governor of California Pledging to clean up the graft ridden city Brown exposed the hidden yet not so secret life of backroom deals political payoffs and corrupt city cops Through the arrest prosecution and conviction of Burns Brown used his success as a stepping stone for his political rise to California's governor's mansion Featuring an array of larger than life characters Rigglin shows how Cold War domestic ideology and the national quest to return to a more traditional America quickly developed into a battle against internal decay Based on a combination of newspaper accounts court records and personal interviews San Francisco's Queen of Vice reveals how the drama played out in the life and trial of one of the wealthiest women in California history Pioneer Urbanites Douglas Henry Daniels,2023-11-15 The black migration to San Francisco and the Bay Area differed from the mass movement of Southern rural blacks and their families into the eastern industrial cities Those who traveled West or arrived by ship were often independent sophisticated single men Many were associated with the transportation boom following the Gold Rush others traveled as employees of wealthy individuals Douglas Daniels argues for the importance of going beyond the written record and urban statistics in examining the life of a minority community He has studied photographs from family albums and interviewed members of old black San Francisco families in his effort to provide the first nuanced picture of the lives of black San Franciscans from the 1860s to the 1940s The black migration to San Francisco and the Bay Area differed from the mass movement of Southern rural blacks and their families into the eastern industrial cities Those who traveled West or arrived by ship were often independent sophisticated single Making the Mission Ocean Howell,2015-11-17 In the aftermath of the 1906 San Francisco earthquake residents of the city's iconic Mission District bucked the city wide development plan defiantly announcing that in their neighborhood they would be calling the shots Ever since the Mission has become known as a city within a city and a place where residents have over the last century organized and reorganized themselves to make the neighborhood in their own image In Making the Mission Ocean Howell tells the story of how residents of the Mission District organized to claim the right to plan their own neighborhood and how they mobilized a politics of place and ethnicity to create a strong often racialized identity a pattern that would repeat itself again and again throughout the twentieth century Surveying the perspectives of formal and informal groups city officials and district residents local and federal agencies Howell articulates how these actors worked with and against one another to establish the very ideas of the public and the public interest as well as to negotiate and renegotiate what the neighborhood wanted In the process he shows that national narratives about how cities grow and change are fundamentally insufficient everything is always shaped by local actors and concerns Summer

The Top Books of the Year Golden Gate Interview With 5 San Francis The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
