Ambrose Opening of the West E-Book Boxed Set Stephen E. Ambrose, 2013-06-25 This ebook box set includes Undaunted Courage and Nothing Like It in the World by Stephen E Ambrose focusing on the ingenuity and the hardships that shaped the American West Undaunted Courage This 1 New York Times bestseller gives a sweeping account of the most momentous expedition in American history Ambrose follows the Lewis and Clark Expedition from Thomas Jefferson's hope of finding a waterway to the Pacific through the heart stopping moments of the actual trip to Lewis's lonely demise on the Natchez Trace Along the way Ambrose shows us the American West as Lewis saw it wild awesome and pristinely beautiful Nothing Like It in the World A riveting account of an unprecedented feat of engineering vision and courage this is the story of the men who built the transcontinental railroad The US government pitted two companies the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific Railroads against each other in a race for funding encouraging speed over caution and their race brilliantly comes to life in Ambrose's telling of the investors who risked their businesses and money the enlightened politicians who understood its importance the engineers and surveyors who risked and sometimes lost their lives and the Irish and Chinese immigrants the defeated Confederate soldiers and all the laborers who did the backbreaking and dangerous work on the tracks Centennial Memorial of Lynn, Essex County, Massachusetts James Robinson Newhall, 1876 Empire Express David Haward Bain, 2000-09-01 After the Civil War the building of the transcontinental railroad was the nineteenth century's most transformative event Beginning in 1842 with a visionary's dream to span the continent with twin bands of iron Empire Express captures three dramatic decades in which the United States effectively doubled in size fought three wars and began to discover a new national identity From self made entrepreneurs such as the Union Pacific s Thomas Durant and era defining figures such as President Lincoln to the thousands of laborers whose backbreaking work made the railroad possible this extraordinary narrative summons an astonishing array of voices to give new dimension not only to this epic endeavor but also to the culture political struggles and social conflicts of an unforgettable period in American history

Nothing Like It in the World Stephen E. Ambrose, 2012-12-11 NOTHING LIKE IT IN THE WORLD is the story of the men who built the transcontinental railroad the investors who risked their businesses and money the enlightened politicians who understood its importance the engineers and surveyors who risked and sometimes lost their lives and the Irish and Chinese immigrants the defeated Confederate soldiers and the other labourers who did the backbreaking and dangerous work on the tracks The US government pitted two companies the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific Railroads against each other in a race for funding encouraging speed over caution Locomotives rails and spikes were shipped from the East through Panama or around South America to the West or lugged across the country to the Plains In Ambrose s hands this enterprise with its huge expenditure of brainpower muscle and sweat comes vibrantly to life

Management Laureates Arthur G. Bedeian, 2018-04-17 First published in 1992 This volume compiles the autobiographies of the management discipline s most distinguished laureates Prior to this publication the available management literature provided little insight into the personal and intellectual lives the frustrations as well as the triumphs of the individuals in the management discipline Although such understanding could be conveyed in many forms perhaps the most intimate and fascinating of these for gaining behind the scenes insights is the autobiography Thus the autobiographies in this volume as in the five companion volumes offer the reader not only a glimpse of the subjective determinants and personal experiences of the management discipline s most distinguished laureates but also a deeper understanding of what management is and what it is becoming The various accounts reflect a diversity of approaches interests and experiences
