Life'S Lessons Learnt Sean A O'Reilly, 2016-05-24 Every person has an interesting life story to tell and I do not claim that my story is unique I write about my experience of living alone with my grandmother on an Irish farm and why it shaped my national identity My life changing move to London and the need to become street wise and still make it to university is covered I describe how my debating exploits at school and university got me an invitation to The House of Lords and how I met my future wife and entering a grammar school for the very first time as teacher My passion for comprehensive education more enlightened science teaching and my role in senior school management all get an airing as well as my camping political and sporting adventures Space is given to how we made lifelong friends with some Germans and our many years of skiing in Austria and Norway The book also covers the period from early retirement in 1999 to my years teaching in some of England's elite private schools and why girls really do love chocolate I describe how I coped with a heart bypass in 2012 and got back to marathon running and took up marathon bike riding for charity I conclude with my take on the human predicament The Nine Lessons Kevin Alan Milne,2009-05-06

August Witte is firmly against having children But after seven years of marriage his wife is delighted when she realizes she is unexpectedly pregnant August is terrified recognizing he never learned the first thing about being a good parent from his father London A widower since August was a toddler London has always valued the game of golf a sport August has never had any talent for more than his son In spite of how he hates the game when August confronts his father he finds himself agreeing to meet each month of the pregnancy for a round of golf In exchange London will give him the only thing that could make August agree to pick up a club again memories of his mother which he has written on golf scorecards since the day he met her But August quickly realizes that his father's motive is not to teach him about golf but to teach him about life and he may discover that the old man just might know something about it worth sharing Coach: The Greatest Teachers in
