Gonna Lay Down My Burdens:

Gonna Lay Down My Burdens Mary Monroe, 2010-01-07 Bestselling author Mary Monroe won rave reviews from critics and readers alike with her first two novels God Don't Like Ugly and The Upper Room both Main Selections of the Black Expressions Book Club Now she returns with the masterful Gonna Lay Down My Burdens that rare novel that inspires laughter tears and repeat readings In the sweltering little town of Belle Helene Alabama Carmen Taylor keeps her weaknesses her frustrations and her tears to herself She's too busy shouldering the burdens of her troubled friends like Desiree Lucienne the petite pampered daughter of a doctor who tries to beat the wildness out of her But it doesn't stop Desiree from trawling for men whenever she can and trying to drag Carmen along with her It's not that Carmen hasn't had her share of boozy pick ups She has but they just can't compare to the one steamy night she spent with the man she's loved since they were both kids Now a local cop Chester Sheffield with his Barry White voice and his all too fine body keeps showing up in Carmen's life wanting to do something about the feelings they obviously have for each other But that would mean abandoning her boyfriend Burl Tupper and that's something Carmen just can't do Ever since Burl ended up in a wheelchair because of a foolish teenage prank she played on him Carmen's promised herself that she'd spend the rest of her life making it up to him When Carmen doesn't take her chance with Chester Desiree does and when she learns that she's pregnant with Chester's child it's almost more than Carmen can bear Still her loyalty to Desiree goes back a long way and she's not about to let a man get in the way of their friendship even when Desiree starts stepping out on Chester Then on a sultry reckless moonlit night Carmen commits a desperate crime of passion and with Desiree hits the road running But she can't run from the truth she's avoided for years and in a seedy hotel in the middle of nowhere she confronts her demons head on Now Carmen has two choices a life on the lam or a full circle return to Belle Helene the place where it all began and the only place in the world she can lay down her burdens and seize her one true chance at love and redemption Freedom

Struggles Adriane Lentz-Smith, 2011-09-30 For many of the 200 000 black soldiers sent to Europe with the American Expeditionary Forces in World War I encounters with French civilians and colonial African troops led them to imagine a world beyond Jim Crow Lentz Smith narrates the efforts of these African American soldiers to gain full citizenship rights as recompense for military service Mississippi Writers Dorothy Abbott, 1985 Drama recounting the experience of growing up in the Deep South In Search of a Father's Love Loretta (La-Rue') Duncan-Fowler, 2010-06-14 Loretta La Rue Duncan Fowler strips off fears and uncertainties as she walks back to a darkened past to bring inspiration to readers In Search of a Father's Love her new book released through Xlibris offers a collection of poems prose and short stories that all chronicles one woman's journey to finding real happiness Childhood was anything but normal for the author At the age of five she found herself begging for her father not to abandon her The incident only marked the beginning of the many trials she had to face Sexual molestation pregnancy a miscarriage and incestuous relationships she finally opened her heart to find the sanctuary that she deserved In her unending search for her father through abusive husbands and a string of bad relationships she realizes that the one salvation that she truly needed had always been inside her within her heart Through poignantly crafted poems and prose coupled with Bible verses La Rue relives in this edifying book how she stepped out from the darkness and moved on to the light and found the Faith to do more than survive she thrives

Revisiting Jonestown Domenico Arturo Nesci, 2017-12-13 Revisiting Jonestown covers three main topics the psycho biography of Jim Jones the leader of the suicidal community from the new perspective of Prenatal Psychology and transgenerational trauma the story of his Peoples Temple with emphasis on what kind of leadership and membership were responsible for their tragic end and the interpretation of death rituals by religious cults as regression to primordial stages of human evolution when a series of genetic mutations changed the destiny of Homo Sapiens at the dawn of religion and human awareness A pattern of collective suicide is finally identified making it possible to foresee and try to prevent its tragic repetition At the same time through an artistic editorial work on original images from the Peoples Temple files a sort of Multimedia Psychotherapy is subliminally delivered in order to help the mourning of the victims of Jonestown to whose memory the book is dedicated

Our Daily Bread Jackie Alexander, 2012-09-25 From renowned playwright Jackie Alexander comes a captivating masterfully told coming of age novel of a young man struggling through his haunting past to discover and save himself Stigmatized at birth due to his interracial parentage and reared in a household poisoned by domestic abuse Kevin Matthews is orphaned at age ten after losing his mother to a violent attack at the hands of his father who is jailed for the crime Raised by his paternal grandfather a Baptist Minister who instills values of the church as a base for recovery Kevin is content with life in rural Louisiana during the 1970s until disturbing news surfaces regarding his mother s attack news that sheds doubt on his father s guilt and leads Kevin to relive painful memories As Kevin grows up the emotional scars of his childhood cast dark clouds over his relationships with women and his life begins to spiral out of control Faced with losing all that he loves Kevin is forced to confront the man who holds the key to his salvation his father Our Daily Bread is a rich and compelling coming of age story of a young boy whose journey takes us from the bayous of Louisiana to the big city lights of New York and Paris Examining family race religion and the lingering effects of domestic abuse Our Daily Bread questions what defines one s legacy the surroundings we are born into or the choices we make thereafter

Rebuilding Urban Places After Disaster Eugenie L. Birch, Susan M. Wachter, 2013-01-09 Disasters natural ones such as hurricanes floods or earthquakes and unnatural ones such as terrorist attacks are part of the American experience in the twenty first century The challenges of preparing for these events withstanding their impact and rebuilding communities afterward require strategic responses from different levels of government in partnership with the private sector and in accordance with the public will Disasters have a disproportionate effect on urban places Dense by definition cities and their environs suffer great damage to their complex interdependent social environmental and economic systems Social and medical services collapse Long standing problems in educational access and quality become especially acute Local economies cease to function Cultural resources disappear The plight of New Orleans and several smaller Gulf Coast cities exemplifies this phenomenon This volume examines the rebuilding of cities and their environs after a disaster and focuses on four major issues making cities less vulnerable to disaster reestablishing economic viability responding to the permanent needs of the displaced and recreating a sense of place Success in these areas requires that priorities be set cooperatively and this goal poses significant challenges for rebuilding efforts in a democratic market based society Who sets priorities and how Can participatory decision making be organized under conditions requiring focused strategic choices How do issues of race and class intersect with these priorities Should the purpose of rebuilding be restoration or reformation Contributors address these and other questions related to environmental conditions economic imperatives social welfare concerns and issues of planning and design in light of the lessons to be drawn from Hurricane Katrina Fed Up Dale Finley

Slongwhite, 2014-05-06 One farmworker tells of the soil that would bite him but that was the chemicals burning his skin Others developed lupus asthma diabetes kidney failure or suffered myriad symptoms with no clear diagnosis Some miscarried or had children with genetic defects while others developed cancer In Fed Up Dale Slongwhite collects the nearly inconceivable and chilling oral histories of African American farmworkers whose lives and the lives of their families were forever altered by one of the most horrific pesticide exposure incidents in United States history For decades the farms around Lake Apopka Florida's third largest lake were sprayed with chemicals ranging from the now banned DDT to toxaphene Among the most productive farmland in America the fields were doused with organochlorine pesticides also known as persistent organic pollutants the once clear waters of the lake turned pea green birds alligators and fish died at alarming rates and still the farmworkers planted harvested packed and shipped produce all over the country enduring scorching sun snakes rats injuries substandard housing low wages and the endocrine disruptors that crop dusters dropped as they toiled Eventually state and federal dollars were allocated to buy out and close farms to attempt land restoration water clean up and wildlife rehabilitation But the farmworkers became statistics nameless casualties history almost forgot Here are their stories told in their own words The Slaughter of God Jeff Hood,2017-06-28 On November 18 1978 over 900 people died in Jonestown Guyana Some perished willingly and others did not Regardless of the means Rev Jim Jones was the killer Though evil reigned the community did not die alone God was there In this exegesis of their last words you will discover a faint light It will guide you home The Complexity and Progression of Black Representation in Film and Television David L. Moody,2016-06-02 The Complexity and Progression of Black Representation in Film and Television examines the intricacies of race representation Black masculinity sexuality class and color in American cinema and television Black images on the silver screen date back to the silent film era yet these films and television programs presented disturbing images of African American culture and regrettably many early films and small screen programs portrayed Black characters in demeaning and stereotypical roles In order to fully analyze the roles of Black actors and actresses in film and television Moody addresses the following issues the historical significance of the term race films female Black identities and constructs queerness and Black masculinity Black male identities and Black buffoonery in film and television Polytropos Ajax Silvia Speriani,Stephen Harrison,2024-10-07 Meanings are realized at the point of reception and this volume intends to offer an in depth discussion of some of the meanings associated with and raised by the figure of Telamonian Ajax at various specifically contextualized and yet somehow connectable points of reception Part 1 looks at how and from where and with what effects the epic and tragic figure of Ajax is constructed and re defined in archaic and classical Greece Part 2 moves on to Roman Ajax es evaluating how he is used in and by Latin literature as a tool for window references and innovation and for reflecting on national identity and cultural categories Part 3 discusses various ways in which the myth of Ajax especially in its Sophoclean version has been translated into theatrical psychological and philosophical discussions This is not an attempt to look for Ajax s true nature an ill posed question in itself Nor is it a claim to evaluate Ajax s features as if they could be placed on a straight evolutionary line they never can be On the contrary the volume provides a multiform and interconnected ensemble of relevant patterns always particularly situated and constantly changing Gone from the Promised Land John R. Hall,2017-07-12 In this superb cultural history John R Hall presents a reasoned analysis of the meaning of Jonestown why it happened and how it is tied to our history as a nation our ideals our practices and the tension of modern culture Hall deflates the myths of Jonestown by exploring how much of what transpired was unique to the group and its leader and how much can be explained by reference to wider social processes The Twisted Muse Richard Corey,2014-12-30 Author Richard Corey has worn many different outfits in his young life As a student in his undergraduate studies at Concord University to his master s studies at Ohio University he paid his way through school by performing musically and gambling professionally throughout the southeastern United States Shaping his life and bending his mind to create The Twisted Muse which he started as early as 1989 to present day he presents a work of poetry that witnesses the evolution of his life from Diary of a Psychopath to the song I Am Struggling with economic hardship and bipolar disorder as well as almost losing his writing hand in a horrific accident in 2009 he selected these poems and songs from his handwritten pages Through these works Corey shares his multifaceted persona as a seeker a reader a lover of nature of country music and cowboy movies Filled with many vivid images and pleasing sonic effects this collection of poetry offers insight into how Corey grew as a writer lyricist and person while living with bipolar disorder
