Masur,1995-07-13 These thousands and tens and twenties of thousands of American young men badly wounded all sorts of wounds operated on pallid with diarrhea languishing dying with fever pneumonia and at the same time the sharp quiet whit whit of bullets chippered close to our ears And along the way we sample many vivid portraits of the era perhaps the most surprising of which is Louisa May Alcott s explanation of why she preferred her noon to midnight schedule in a Washington hospital I like it as it leaves me time for a morning run which is what I need to keep well I trot up down the streets in all directions some times to the Heights then half way to Washington again to the hill over which the long trains of army wagons are constantly vanishing ambulances appearing That way the fighting lies I long to follow With unmatched intimacy and immediacy the real war will never get in the books illuminates the often painful intellectual and emotional efforts of fourteen accomplished writers as they come to grips with The American Apocalypse Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State).
