Sine, 2000 Basic Rehabilitation Techniques A Self Instructional Guide has been one of the best selling basic rehabilitation texts used by nurses therapists and students for over 20 years The Fourth Edition details a variety of simple practical easy to apply techniques that have withstood the test of time and have proven to contribute to efficient and effective clinical care Appropriate for any member of the rehabilitation team this book demonstrates how to improve patient function through training Chapter objectives review questions and self tests facilitate independent study      Three Realms of Managed Care Jack Glaser, 1997 Glaser and Hamel offer readers an opportunity to step back from the ethical issues connected with modern health care and reflect on what we are doing how we are doing it and what impact our actions and omissions are having on the common good While offering a new ethical paradigm that takes into account the three realms of ethical complexity societal issues institutional issues and individual issues this book offers articles for reflection and self examination on various aspects of managed care taking into account specific issues such as rationing financial incentives and full disclosure      American Book Publishing Record, 2000      Clinical Social Work Practice in Behavioral Mental Health Roberta G. Sands, 2001 This book provides an in depth and very modern approach to clinical social work with clients in mental health settings This is a revision of a book originally titled Clinical Social Work Practice in Community Mental Health The community mental health approach is now dated and this revision features behavioral mental health which is a newer and postmodern approach The postmodern perspective is client oriented and helps the practitioner to be aware of underlying biases This perspective is explained in Chapter 1 and is included in every chapter by featuring clients voices particularly at the beginning and end of the chapters Important new topics include managed care and measurement of outcomes both of which are woven throughout and featured in Chapters 1 4 5 8 9 10 and 13 For social work practitioners specializing in mental health

Regulation of Health: Case Studies of Sweden and Switzerland Peter Zweifel, Carl Hampus Lyttkens, Lars Söderström, 2012-12-06 Health care arguably is the single most regulated industry in industrial countries and possibly in newly industrialized and developing countries as well But what exactly is being regulated what are the instruments used and what are the effects and side effects of such regulation Regulation of Health Case Studies of Sweden and Switzerland seeks to resolve problems in answering these key questions regarding the health care sector in two countries Sweden and Switzerland The volume contains a series of studies that compare the regulation of health and health care in these two apparently very similar countries in considerable detail The contributing teams acquired a great deal of knowledge about health regulation in both countries they also derived comparative predictions when regulation differs using actual observations to check whether these predictions are borne out These comparisons are based on the conditions prevailing in the mid nineties
