But the challenge turns fatal when the man selected for the task is found poisoned the next morning when the doors are opened The locked room was guarded all night so nobody could have entered or escaped what s more the deadly toxin could only have entered through a break in the skin but no wounds were discovered on the body Is this evidence at last of a nefarious spirit at work or of a diabolical and ingenious killer Only Sir Henry Merrivale called in to take note of the night s proceedings will be able to examine the clues and deduce the truth The Widowed Self Deborah Kestin van den

When Husbands Die Shirley Reeser McNally, 2011-11-15 What happens to wives when husbands die The quick answer is widowhood The deeper truth is they are forced into a life change that has serious ramifications for themselves their families their friends and their futures Are poems and songs written about widow heroes does literature extol their strength and courage their independence gained their new lives discovered Hardly But women have important stories to tell about this time in their lives when they come face to face with one of the most common and devastating life experiences for women everywhere Seventy nine story tellers have joined together to tell about the tragic time that begins when in an instant the husband dies the man the lover the companion the mate is gone and so is the marriage SHIRLEY REESER McNALLY the originator of this project is a graduate of Smith College as are Barbara Harrison Mulhern Mary Witt Wydman and the majority of women whose stories are told in this book Because Smith is a liberal arts college for women it seemed logical to McNally that the alumnae of Smith would be a source and an audience for a study of widows It has turned out to be so The work she says has been arduous fascinating and redemptive The result is intended for current widows who can learn how others are handling the difficult situation forced upon them and for women still married who with their spouses must plan for what well might occur in their futures

Thompson, Jr., 2018-09-18 Men Masculinities and Aging introduces readers to the gendered nature of aging men's lives Edward H Thompson noted for his work on men and aging explores the intersections of ethnicities class geographies generations and masculinities The book offers a fresh perspective on men's experiences with bodily aging growing older in an ageist society and navigating the virtual absence of cultural guidelines for being an aging man The book also provides a sociological theory framework on how men navigate their social aging as they experience later life and very late life Turning points such as grandfathering the changeover from work to retirement and the onset of health problems or becoming a career are discussed at length as Thompson frames these natural occurrences as now ordinary experiences as aging masculinities are no longer rarities The book will provide educators students researchers and practitioners a means to question standard assumptions about aging men and discuss what underlies most later life masculinities

Prévost, 2020-05-11 With The Greek Girl's Story Alan Singerman presents the first reliable stand alone translation and critical edition of Abbé Prévost's 1740 literary masterpiece Histoire d'une Grecque moderne The text of this new English translation is based on Singerman's 1990 French edition which Jonathan Walsh called arguably the most valuable critical edition of Prévost's novel to date This new edition also includes a complete critical apparatus comprising a substantial introduction notes appendixes and bibliography all significantly updated from the 1990 French edition taking into account recent scholarship on this work and providing some additional reflection on the question of Orientalism Prévost's roman clef is based on a true story involving the French ambassador to the Ottoman Porte from 1699 to 1711 It is narrated from the ambassador's viewpoint and is a model of subjective unreliable narration long before Henry James It is remarkably modern in its presentation of an enigmatic ambiguous character as the truth about the heroine can never be established with certainty It is the story of the tormented relationship between the diplomat and a beautiful young Greek concubine Thoph whom he frees from a pasha's harem While her benefactor becomes increasingly infatuated with her and bent on becoming her lover the Greek girl becomes obsessed with the idea of becoming a virtuous and respected woman Viewing the ambassador as a father figure she condemns his quasi incestuous passion and firmly rejects his repeated seduction attempts Unable to possess the young woman or tolerate the thought that she might grant to someone else what she has refused him the narrator subjects her behavior to minute scrutiny in an effort to catch her in an indiscretion His investigations are fruitless however and Thoph the victim of incessant persecution simply dies leaving all the questions about her behavior unanswered Language in
