Standing Rules and Orders of the Legislative Council of the Gold Coast Colony Gold Coast. Legislative Council, 1923 Statutory Rules and Orders Other Than Those of a Local, Personal Or Temporary Character Great Britain, 1926 Ghana, Political and Constitutional Developments Tapan Prasad Biswal, 1992 Ghana the torch bearer of African Independence from the yoke of colonial bondage has been pushed to the background from its earlier pre eminent position in international as well as African affairs Since independence Ghana has experienced diverse forms of Government and has almost run out of models for governing herself Instead of providing leadership to the underdeveloped countries of Africa Ghana is busy in its quest for evolving a stable and workable political system In its effort to evolve a stable political system and an operational constitution capable of providing steady economic progress and social upliftment Ghana has experimented west minister style parliamentary system a Single Party Republic and many military regimes following coups and counter coups Like many of the developing states of Africa Ghana has been plagued with post independence political instability Civilians as well as military governments have been installed with initial enthusiasm but so far none has been able to solve the pressing problems In fact the quest for a permanent solution to what appears a persistent governmental crisis has invited many coups and counter coups It addresses and analyses the maladies that has afflicted the Ghanaian body politic

Colonial Reports - Annual Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1928 Each number comprises the annual report of a different colony for a particular year Education and Social Change in Ghana P. Foster, 2013-08-21 First published in 1998 As the first of the newly independent nations of Africa Ghana has received fulsome attention from scholars in many fields In this intensive case study on educational development by two principal considerations The documentary materials relating to the earlier history of the Gold Coast and adjacent areas were unusually extensive and well organized Ghana now possesses the most elaborated school system in sub Saharan Africa But the expansion of this system has given rise to many perplexing problems and revealed many unexpected consequences and the author suggests that similar experiences will be the lot of many other countries even outside Africa So this is not just study of Ghanaian education alone but a case study wherein some of the basic processes underlying educational growth in states newly emerging from colonial rule are delineated This is Volume III of eighteen in a series on the Sociology of Development Originally published in 1965 As the first of the newly independent nations of Africa Ghana has received fulsome attention from scholars in many fields In this intensive case study on educational development by two principal considerations The documentary materials relating to the earlier history of the Gold Coast and adjacent areas were unusually extensive and well organized Ghana now possesses the most elaborated school system in sub Saharan Africa But the expansion of this system has given rise to many perplexing problems and revealed many unexpected consequences and the author suggests that similar experiences will be the lot of many other countries even outside Africa So this is not just study of Ghanaian education alone but a case study wherein some of the basic processes underlying educational growth in states newly emerging from colonial rule are delineated The Origins of Modern African Thought Robert W. July,2004 For the better part of two centuries racial domination has been the central concern of African social thought Other questions among them national identity the role of chieftaincy representation justice and constitutional design have often been defined in relation to a preoccupation with racial and colonial forms of domination This book by examining the history of African thought will prove an invaluable tool to those new thinkers who have begun to revisit the intellectual history of Africa at the outset of the twenty first century Empire Government Manfred Nathan,1929
