The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1928 African and Caribbean People in Britain Hakim Adi,2022-09-01 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE A major new history of Britain that transforms our understanding of this country s past I ve waited so long so read a comprehensively researched book about Black history on this island This is it a journey of discovery and a truly exciting and important work Zainab Abbas Despite the best efforts of researchers and campaigners there remains today a steadfast tendency to reduce the history of African and Caribbean people in Britain to a simple story it is one that begins in 1948 with the arrival of a single ship the Empire Windrush and continues mostly apart from a distinct British history overlapping only on occasion amid grotesque injustice or pioneering protest Yet as acclaimed historian Hakim Adi demonstrates from the very beginning from the moment humans first stood on this rainy isle there have been African and Caribbean men and women set at Britain s heart Libyan legionaries patrolled Hadrian s Wall while Rome s first African Emperor died in York In Elizabethan England Black Tudors served in the land s most eminent households while intrepid African explorers helped Sir Francis Drake to circumnavigate the globe And as Britain became a major colonial and commercial power it was African and Caribbean people who led the radical struggle for freedom a struggle which raged throughout the twentieth century and continues today in Black Lives Matter campaigns

Charting a course through British history with an unobscured view of the actions of African and Caribbean people Adi reveals how much our greatest collective achievements universal suffrage our victory over fascism the forging of the NHS owe to these men and women and how in understanding our history in these terms we are more able to fully understand our present moment Man, 1903 Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Empire by Treaty Saliha Belmessous, 2015 Empire by Treaty Negotiating European Expansion 1600 1900 includes indigenous voices in the debate over European appropriation of overseas territories It is concerned with European efforts to negotiate with indigenous peoples the cession of their sovereignty through treaties The Truth about the West African Land Question Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford, 1913

Yusuf, 2015-01-08 Pan Africanism offers a unique vantage point to study Africa's encounters with international law first as a continent whose political entities were excluded from the scope of application of the Eurocentric version of international law that was applied among the self styled club of civilized nations second through the emergence of African States as subjects of international law willing to contribute to the reform and further development of the law as a universal interstate normative system and third as members of the OAU and the AU acting collectively to generate innovative principles and rules which though applicable only in the context of intra African relations either go beyond those existing at the universal level or complement them by broadening their scope This study examines those encounters through the various stages in the evolution of Pan Africanism from a diaspora based movement engaged in the struggle for the emancipation of the peoples of the continent to groupings of independent States and intergovernmental organizations which continue to promote African unity and influence the development of international law to make it more reflective of diverse legal traditions and values
