Gold Set Dancing:

Gold Set Dancing James Liddy, 2000 James Liddy's writing defies labeling. It combines American and Irish American contexts and possesses states of history and states of love which are not often represented in contemporary poetry. Liddy's poems speak with an intimate voice and a cajoling sense of intrigue. Gold Set Dancing is divided into three sections: the first contains poems with Irish themes; the second section consists of prose poems celebrating the lives of the poet's grandparents; and the final section features the American Midwest and the city of Milwaukee. Salmon, The Pilgrim's Progress

Edgar Stillman Kelley, 1917 The Artist and Academia Helen Phelan, Graham F. Welch, 2021-03-29 The Artist and Academia explores the relationship between artistic and academic ways of knowing. Historically these have often been presented as opposites: the former characterized as passionate and intuitive and the latter portrayed as systematic and rigorous. Recent scholarship presents a more complex picture. Artistic knowledge demands high levels of skill and rigor while academic research requires creativity and innovative thinking. This edited collection brings together leading artists and scholars as well as artist scholars to offer a variety of philosophical, educational, experiential, reflexive and imaginative perspectives on the artist and academia. The contributions include in-depth scholarly discussions on the nature of knowledge and creativity as well as personal artistic statements from musicians, dancers, actors and writers. Additionally it explores both the mediational and subversive spaces created by the meeting of artistic and academic traditions. While the book addresses global themes by global writers, its core case study is an educational experiment called the Irish World Academy of Music and Dance at the University of Limerick in Ireland. Established in 1994 it set out to reconfigure the place of the artist in the context of contemporary higher education. The material is clustered into three parts. Part One and Part Two explore the artist as mediator, educator and subversive in academia. Grounded in close to practice research, Part Three concludes the volume with a set of case studies from the Irish World Academy. Artistic and academic knowledge come together in this unique set of pieces to explore the development of more inclusive and imaginative pedagogical values. The Doctor's House James

Liddy, 2004 There is a strong voice in this memoir and one that shows the reader a sense of fun and development, an intellect that spills onto the page with an artistic diction, drowned with people and places, pubs and writers' reflections and recordings. An S Dancing at the Crossroads Helena Wulff, 2008-10 Dancing at the crossroads used to be an opportunity for young people to meet and enjoy themselves on mild summer evenings in the Irish countryside until this practice was banned by the Public Dance Halls Act of 1935. Now a key metaphor in Irish cultural and political life, dancing at the crossroads also crystallizes the argument of this book: Irish dance from Riverdance, the commercial show, to competitive dancing and dance theatre conveys that Ireland is in a crossroads situation. Irish dance with a firm base in a distinctly Irish tradition is becoming a permanent part of European modernity. While this book highlights the captivating tensions and ties surrounding debates on Irish dance, it also aims to extend broader understandings of place, mobility and rooted cosmopolitanism. The Sackbut, 1929

Take a Bow, Noah Mitchell Tobias Madden, 2023-01-03 There Are No Cheat Codes for Showmance Seventeen year old gaymer Noah Mitchell only has one friend left the wonderful funny strictly online only MagePants69 After years playing RPGs together they know everything about each other except anything that would give away their real life identities And Noah is certain that if they could just meet in person they would be soulmates Noah would do anything to make this happen including finally leaving his gaming chair to join a community theater show that he s only mostly sure MagePants69 is performing in Noah has never done anything like theater he can t sing he can t dance and he s never willingly watched a musical but he ll have to go all in to have a chance at love With Noah s mum performing in the lead role and former friends waiting in the wings to sabotage his reputation his plan to make MagePants69 fall in love with him might be a little more difficult than originally anticipated And the longer Noah waits to come clean the more tangled his web of lies becomes By opening night he will have to decide if telling the truth is worth closing the curtain on his one shot at true love Old-Time Music and Dance

John Bealle,2005-08-31 In the summer of 1972 a group of young people in Bloomington Indiana began a weekly gathering with the purpose of reviving traditional American old time music and dance In time the group became a kind of accidental utopia a community bound by celebration and deliberately void of structure and authority In this joyful and engaging book John Bealle tells the lively history of the Bloomington Old Time Music and Dance Group how it was formed how it evolved its unique culture and how it grew to shape and influence new waves of traditional music and dance Broader questions about the folk revival movement social resistance counter culture authenticity and identity intersect this delightful history More than a story about the people who forged the group or an extraordinary convergence of talent and creativity Old Time Music and Dance follows the threads of American folk culture and the social experience generated by this living tradition of music and dance

Women and the Irish Nation J. MacPherson,2012-10-16 At the turn of the twentieth century women played a key role in debates about the nature of the Irish nation Examining women s participation in nationalist and rural reform groups this book is an important contribution to our understanding of Irish identity in the prelude to revolution and how it was shaped by women

Irish Monthly Magazine ,1927 Miss M.'S Storybook Sandra Mendyk,2009-07-15 Have you ever done something you later were embarrassed about like hiding under a highway in ankle high water at two oclock in the morning Or getting locked in Paris Frances Notre Dame Cathedral bell tower Would you tell anyone about your family and friends especially a brother who loved pulling pranks like throwing lit matches from a cinema balcony Did you ever try to undertake something fun that no one would ever expect you to do like flying an airplane although you get airsick Have you ever encountered a ghost met a reincarnated spider or accompanied the FBI to look for a bomb How would you feel if you took your nephew to England at the invitation of the Prince of Wales and got embarrassed when he said something out loudloud enough that you wanted to crawl under the closest chair Do you feel brave or anxious enough to read some of these experiences mostly funny the same stories that many junior high school students enjoyed for years Many people have approached Miss M and asked how she had so many adventures and accomplished so much Miss M has taught seventh grade for twenty two years Many times the school day had some leftover time This was the perfect time for one of Miss M s storiesstories that were told over and over again to keep students riveted to the teacher in front of the room She never repeated the same story twice to the same class And all these stories are true This book has many of these stories Many stories are classified as comedy serious and some may be downright scary Many also have a moral This paperback book can be taken on the bus on trips and even read in the bathroom Characters in the book have initials in order to save some people embarrassment The family members know who they are All Miss M has to say now after compiling all her real life stories for others to read and share is Enjoy as all her former students did And if anyone doesnt enjoy the book well theres always that bathroom
