Golden Age Of Preaching:

 The Golden Age of Preaching Robert T Henry, Dr,Robert T. Henry,2005-08 To measure the impact of a minister s preaching one must first examine the societal context in which the ministry took place For example what would lead a minister of the Gospel to roar from the pulpit as did Joseph Parker of City Temple London God damn the Sultan The first section of The Golden Age of Preaching is given to the study of the times in which nine prominent British preachers ministered Understanding the times helps one to comprehend why crowds flocked to hear these men preach and why their sermons were printed in newspapers on Monday Furthermore to assess the preaching of a man one needs to take into account the life and manner of the man himself The Men Who Moved the Masses includes biographical sketches of nine selected preachers Alexander McLaren Robert William Dale Henry Parry Liddon at St Paul s London Joseph Parker Charles Haddon Spurgeon Alexander Whyte Frederick Brotherton Meyer John Henry Jowett and George Campbell Morgan These were men though hampered by various medical problems and personality shortcomings who led thousands to faith in their day The final section attempts to answer the question Why by identifying those homiletical characteristics of their preaching which they had in common resulting in such uncommon impact upon the masses Those qualities are not confined to their era alone They are perpetual applicable to any age to any culture Preachers and seminarians who dare to sit at the feet and learn from these preaching giants of the past will find their own preaching power lifted onto a new plain to the benefit of all who hear them Recapturing the Spirit and the Power of the Golden Age of Preaching Mike Willis,2014-01-01 When one compares the sermons delivered by Jesus and His apostles to what he hears today on radio and TV he sees little similarity between the two Unfortunately what is preached at his own local church may not be much different Instead of hearing a proclamation of what God has done for us through His Son one frequently is given a be good do good homily with nothing particularly distinctive in the message Sermons that oppose contemporary religious departures from the gospel and address popular immoralities are avoided less they offend a visitor to the public services Instead of a deep exposition of a pertinent passage of Scripture one hears a superficial three point outline The content of the sermon is a heart warming anecdote with a verse of Scripture attached at the end Sometimes the lesson is so short that little substantial content can be included This book is entitled Recapturing the Spirit and Power of The Golden Age of Preaching The golden age is not the United States Restoration Movement but the preaching of Jesus and His apostles The book s message is a call for renewal an appeal to go back to the Bible to learn how and what to preach The Golden Age and Other Sermons Philip E. Holp,1887 Preaching in the Spanish Golden Age Hilary Dansey Smith,1978 Sermons are a useful barometer of a society and can tell us about many more aspects than the strictly spiritual In this survey of preaching during the reign of Philip III 1598 1621 the subject has been approached from several different but complementary directions historical sociological bibliographical literary and theological in an attempt to assess the importance of sermons as the crystallization of preoccupations current in a period as complex as the Spanish Golden Age Biblical Preaching Robert Curry,2023-12-11 Preaching is a demand of the Bible that is fitted with a specific purpose and a strong theological base It is the proclamation of the word of God and is done in churches throughout the world Preaching plays a role in the spiritual formation of its hearers helping to form a community of faith whose members are sharing in and supporting one another in a spiritual journey The topics of preaching can be found in both the Old and New Testaments within several different genres but closer attention might be given to the genres of the parables of Jesus and the speeches in the book of Acts As a topic of preaching the parables can be understood as examples of allegory simile and or metaphor The speeches in Acts offer a picture window of a sort into the homiletical mindset of the apostles and other disciples as they proclaimed the gospel to the world as they knew it Preaching is a demand of the Bible and a specific task of those who are privileged to do it Preaching in the Spahish Golden Age Hilary Dansey Smith,1978 The Oxford Handbook of the British Sermon 1689-1901 Keith A. Francis,William Gibson,2012-10-04 This Handbook accesses historical theological rhetorical literary and linguistic studies to demonstrate the interdisciplinary strength of the field of sermon studies and to show the centrality of sermons to private and public life in this golden age of the British sermon The History of Christian Preaching Thomas Harwood Pattison,1903 Preaching, Sermon and Cultural Change in the Long Eighteenth Century Joris Van Eijnatten,2009 This study offers a broad outline of the history of the eighteenth century sermon Thematically it provides an overview of the research over the past three decades as well as suggesting new approaches to the history of preaching A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR.,2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church s ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards s magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching s development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century s discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church s twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1 s narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching s role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC s Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary is co moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches   Black Preaching Prof. Henry H. Mitchell,2010-09-01 Henry H Mitchell has completely revised and integrated his popular books The Recovery of Preaching and Black Preaching for seminarians and pastors both Black and White who are seeking to add power and vision to their sermons Mitchell persuasively demonstrates that Black culture and preaching style are vital for the empowerment of Black congregations and have much to offer the preaching method of all preachers By focusing on the use of storytelling imagination and style of preaching rooted in African American culture Mitchell spotlights effective techniques for lively preaching   The Golden Age of Preaching Wendell Lyle Baglow,1954   Homiletical Handbook Donald L. Hamilton,1992-10-01 Homiletical Handbook is a primer for those who are called to preach It is intentionally simple in its explanation of the homiletical task and straightforward in getting to the point It is solid in its theology and biblical in its approach   Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart James A. Wallace,2002 Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart is about words most particularly it is a book about the Word the living Word of God found in the Scriptures and embodied once and for all in the person of Jesus the Word made flesh In Preaching to the Hungers of the Heart Fr James Wallace offers a nuanced consideration of the homily as nourishment He focuses on three common liturgical contexts feasts of the Lord feasts of Mary and the saints and the sacramental rites He relates the preaching that occurs within each area to one of the heart s basic hungers for wholeness the great feasts of the Lord for guidance feasts of Mary and the saints and for meaning various rites He also addresses the spirituality of the preacher as it is worked out in the process of preparation For preachers and students in schools of ministry who are preparing to preachPreaching to the Hungers of the Heart will serve as a useful tool to help satisfy the hunger to preach the Gospel It includes homilies that provide excellent starting points for preachers looking for ideas Chapter one considers the image of feeding God s people with the Word of God Chapter two considering the innermost hunger of the human person looks to the preaching that takes place on the great feasts of the Lord and how such preaching can nourish the hunger for wholeness Chapter three returns to the hunger for meaning already mentioned and extends to the other sacramental celebrations the homily s capacity to meet this hunger including those addressed by the various sacramental celebrations of the Church such as baptisms weddings funerals rites of reconciliation and anointing of the sick Chapters four and five present the homily as responding to the hunger to belong The final chapter considers one other hunger of the heart unique to the preacher referred to by John Paul II as a hunger to preach the gospel Pastores Dabo Vobis no 28 Chapters are Preaching s Task in a New Millennium Feeding God s People Preaching the Feasts of the Lord and the Hunger for Wholeness Preaching Within the Sacramental Rites and the Hunger for Meaning Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging I The Saints Preaching Through the Saints and the Hunger for Belonging II Mary and Cultivating the Preacher s Hunger To Make the Gospel Known and Loved James A Wallace CSsR PhD is professor of homiletics at Washington Theological Union His previous works include Preaching Through the Saints and The Ministry of Lectors published by The Liturgical Press He has also authored numerous articles and has given preaching conferences and workshops in the U S and abroad Following God Fully Joel R.
