Golden Rules The Ten Ethical Values Parents Need To Teach Their Children:

Golden Rules Wayne D. Dosick, 1996-04-12 A guidebook to ten basic moral values parents need to teach in order to provide children with a foundation upon which to build lives of goodness and decency with suggestions activities questions and anecdotes for reinforcing the ethics lessons Golden Rules Wayne D. Dosick, What and how we teach our children is fundamental but how we model what we teach is critical Children watch listen and learn from our example Wayne Dosick provides parents with the ten golden rules that teach their children respect honesty fairness responsibility compassion gratitude friendship peace maturity and faith The Moral of the Story Bobby Norfolk, Sherry Norfolk, 2006 Throughout history traditional cultures have recognized the role of storytelling in teaching values to children This user friendly hands on guide to using storytelling and folktales in character education provides not only a rationale for this approach it includes stories These twelve stories are fun time and audience tested and accessible to a wide range of listeners from preschool to high school The tales are enhanced by suggested activities or informal lesson plans source notes and extensive bibliographies that point the reader to additional sources of folktales suitable for character education Book jacket It Takes a Child to Raise a Parent Janis Clark Johnston, 2013-04-04 While advice abounds from a variety of sources before parents embark on their parenting journeys the only parent preparation we actually receive comes from our family and peer stories Yet most adults do not realize that in day to day challenges of guiding our children something interesting happens As we steer our children through life we reopen our own childhood roads Just when our child most needs us we become needy ourselves as adults and parents we find that we have unresolved raising issues basic needs that were not met in our childhoods Our needs and memories echo and influence many of the parenting decisions we make even though we re unaware of those influences at times Fortunately children help parents reach their needs as much as their parents help them fulfill their own Our child ends up guiding us by connecting us to some earlier time in our life when we encountered distress We dredge up a lesson and we adapt by adhering to or changing the story that we tell ourselves about who we are We re negotiate the five basic needs that surface from our childhood memories as our youngsters pass through each of the developmental phases The self aware parent focuses on creative problem solving by focusing on one interaction at a time It Takes a Child to Raise a Parent offers an exploration of how our own childhood memories and needs influence and shape our parenting decisions in our adult lives Offering tips stories from a variety of families and step by step exercises Janis Johnston helps parents better understand and grasp the tools necessary to face parenting challenges head on and to explore new ways of understanding ourselves our children and our family interactions Expectant parents and current parents interested in understanding their own personality development as well as the many moods of childhood and their own children will find clear guidelines for understanding their roles in their children s lives as well as concrete suggestions for how to navigate the choppy waters of raising children

Empowering Your Indigo Child Wayne D. Dosick, Ellen Dosick Kaufman, 2009-03-01 Since the 1980s people have been writing about the indigo children Today many believe that nearly 80 percent of all children born are indigos These are exceedingly creative high energy perceptive kids who often don't fit in They seem to have an awareness that is light years beyond their age and quite often they are labeled as ADD ADHD or ODD when in actuality they are in the words of the Dosicks simply children of spirit What sets this book apart from other books is that it approaches the issues facing indigos on a spiritual energetic rather than purely cognitive level and it is prescriptive teaching a specially developed set of games that can help heal indigo children both in their own bodies and in their earthly relationships Here the Dosicks name seventeen particular emotional wounds indigos hold in their bodies and give specific exercises for healing each one The games have proven enormously helpful to these often troubled kids even preteens and teenagers They celebrate the children's different ways of perception and calm their agitation The games involve some hands on healing techniques some scripted meditations and other quick and simple techniques Each game takes no more than two minutes to play and this book features 101 black and white photographs showing parents exactly how to use the practices

The Power of Character Michael S. Josephson, Wes Hanson, 2004 Essays about character from 41 of the country's most distinguished interesting and accomplished citizens including CBS's Dan Rather Harvard's Alan M. The Song of My Heart Nora Agaronian, 2015-03-19 This inspirational book is for those who love nature and gardening and for those who enjoy listening to the beautiful songs of the birds My garden is a symbol of love for my parents and the legacy they left for my family and me For me the garden conveys a connection with nature and my childhood I have unforgettable memories It also symbolizes my love for my parents and appreciation for the legacy they left behind They are with me in my glorious garden all the time Our home in Armenia was adorned with beautiful flowers that glowed and glittered under the golden beams of the sun So is my garden in a secret corner of my Los Angeles backyard This book also refers to the mother daughter relationship With both sweet and sorrowful tears I dedicated this book to my dearest daughter Anoush Knowing her own family story Anoush would know where she came from and where she is heading My book also embraces those who immigrated to the United States from other countries It is about parents grandparents children and grandchildren It is about five generations living together in the twenty first century in harmony It is an interesting exciting and fulfilling opportunity for each generation to live together and learn from each other It speaks of family relationships mainly concentrates on mother daughter and father daughter relationships The family legacy continues in those families where relationships are clear and clean there is mutual respect for each other and positive approaches are used to deal with family issues In these families nobody is alone They solve their problems together It pulls in precepts from educators as well It clearly shows how the community and schools effect our childrens development The Moral of the Story John H. Lockwood,1999 The problem this project attempts to solve is to develop a workable moral education in light of the clash between religious forms of moral education and U S Supreme Court decisions concerning them The concept of story and storytelling has been suggested as a unifying focus for disparate prescriptions for moral education Several recent approaches to moral storytelling have been proposed The approaches of William Bennett Nel Noddings and Herbert Kohl are among those which have attempted to combine moral education and storytelling within the last decade Bennett is identified with other theorists whose primary concern is the moral content of a story Noddings is identified as a process theorist whose primary concern is the process of moral storytelling not the content Kohl is identified as a reflection theorist whose approach challenges tradition in the hope of creating a more moral society Each one of these three approaches attempts to provide a comprehensive program of moral education but they fall short of that goal The purpose of this project then is to construct a storytelling moral education program that improves upon earlier approaches Using the three levels of moral thinking posited by R M Hare a three level approach to moral storytelling is proposed The intuitive critical and meta ethical levels of moral thinking that Hare refers to are used to frame a new three level approach to moral storytelling The three level approach combines content process and reflection into a unified prescription for moral education Thus a more comprehensive plan for moral education through storytelling is developed one that respects traditional forms of moral education while remaining within the parameters set by the U S Supreme Court The Family Handbook Herbert Anderson,1998-01-01 This encyclopedic volume brings clarity and focus to a multitude of family issues The expert contributors deal with practical and important questions thereby providing information of significant usefulness to social workers therapists lawyers ministers and health care professionals Those who work with families will learn new techniques and see their efforts in a larger context An extensive directory of family resources provides the reader with helpful and practical information The Family Culture and Religion series offers informed and responsible analyses of the state of the American family from a religious perspective and provides practical assistance for the family's revitalization

Rafael Goldstein, 2009-02-01 54 practical ways you and your congregation or organization can make a meaningful difference in the lives of people living with illness What do you need to know before you visit What should you expect How can you help without actually visiting someone living with illness This book has the practical answers to these and many other questions

The Sower's Seeds Brian Cavanaugh T. O. R., 2004 For over a decade the Sower's Seeds books have been a wonderful resource for teachers preachers and anyone who has to speak in front of an audience Now author Brian Cavanaugh has revised and expanded his original volume with twenty new stories for old fans as well as a whole new audience He includes stories of inspiration warmth and insight arranged around numerous universal themes ranging from awareness compassion perseverance and wisdom to such unusual themes as baseball Thomas Edison hospitality and risk taking While the majority of stories are anonymous there are some attributed to well known names like Zig Ziglar Mickey Mantle and Theodore Roosevelt Years before there was Chicken Soup Sower s Seeds was making readers laugh cry and come away with a warm heart The newest book like the others in the series is ideal both for quiet inspiration and for handy on the run fun This is storytelling at its best Indigo Celebration Lee Carroll,Jan Tober,2001-10-01 By now tens of thousands of readers have enjoyed our book The Indigo Children The book not only stirred the interest of many people throughout the world with respect to the profound change in consciousness being manifest in these special kids but it also taught parents teachers and caregivers how to interact with these very special Indigo children So what do you do with thousands of letters and comments from parents and others about their Indigo experiences Well you write another book An Indigo Celebration is a group of stories articles and additional insights into the Indigo child phenomenon Although we will undoubtedly be writing more academically oriented Indigo books down the line we wanted to stop for a moment and celebrate these kids how they think how they act and what they re bringing to our lives This book is not only meant to entertain but also to inspire teach and provide meaningful insights Indigo children are part of the positive transformation and shift of the new millennium and this celebration of them is one we hope you will share in The Kindest People Who Do Good Deeds: Volume 1 David Bruce,2007-04-01 The doing of good deeds is important As a free person you can choose to live your life as a good person or as a bad person To be a good person do good deeds To be a bad person do bad deeds If you do good deeds you will become good If you do bad deeds you will become bad To become the person you want to be act as if you already are that kind of person Each of us chooses what kind of person we will become To become a hero do the things a hero does To become a coward do the things a coward does The opportunity to take action to become the kind of person you want to be is yours This book collects 250 stories of good deeds from the arts from religion and from life The New York Times Book Review ,1995-09 Midlife Maze Janis Clark Johnston,2017-02-16 Have you found yourself wilting in midlife and wondering what you might do to flourish in your remaining years Have you lost your way in the midlife maze due to a significant loss Did you lose your job or desired career advancement Did you separate or divorce Did your last child leave home Did your family experience a virtual storm of bankruptcy or lose your life savings in a financial meltdown Did you or someone in your family experience the loss of good health Or did you weather the death of a family member partner or friend Your loss story is personal Your path through winding passages during midlife is unique Perhaps the most important encouragement for your grieving process is to know this simple fact grieving is a natural healing response to loss rather than a pathological experience Midlife can be a time of reflection rebellion or reconnecting to old or new interests and activities It can also be a time when losses start to happen or begin to pile up divorce death of a loved one loss of a job or home the moving out and on of grown children and learning how to move forward can be a challenge Here a seasoned psychologist looks at the geography of loss in midlife the way it can affect us and what we can do to get back on track or redirect ourselves when necessary Through first hand stories and practical exercises the author leads readers

through the midlife maze to a place of recovery purpose and peace
