Golden Girl Fateful Journey:

The Heart of the Film Cynthia Whitcomb, 2017-03-31 Most movies include a love story whether it is the central story or a subplot and knowing how to write a believable relationship is essential to any writer s skill set Discover the rules and laws of nature at play in a compelling love story and learn and master them Broken into four sections The Heart of the Film identifies the critical features of love story development and explores every variation of this structure as well as a diverse array of relationships and types of love Author Cynthia Whitcomb has sold over 70 feature length screenplays and shares the keys to her success in The Heart of the Film drawing on classic and modern films as well as her own extensive experience Lives, Fatal Voyage Hugh Brewster, 2012-03-27 Gilded Lives Fatal Voyage takes us behind the paneled doors of the Titanic s elegant private suites to present compelling memorable portraits of her most notable passengers. The Titanic has often been called An exquisite microcosm of the Edwardian era but until now her story has not been presented as such In Gilded Lives Fatal Voyage historian Hugh Brewster seamlessly interweaves personal narratives of the lost liner's most fascinating people with a haunting account of the fateful maiden crossing Employing scrupulous research and featuring 100 rarely seen photographs he accurately depicts the ship's brief life and tragic denouement and presents compelling memorable portraits of her most notable passengers millionaires John Jacob Astor and Benjamin Guggenheim President Taft's closest aide Major Archibald Butt writer Helen Churchill Candee the artist Frank Millet movie actress Dorothy Gibson the celebrated couturiere Lady Duff Gordon aristocrat Noelle the Countess of Rothes and a host of other travelers Through them we gain insight into the arts politics culture and sexual mores of a world both distant and near to our own And with them we gather on the Titanic s sloping deck on that cold starlit night and observe their all too human reactions as the disaster unfolds More than ever we ask ourselves What would we have done Fatal Voyage Dan Kurzman, 2008-12-24 Shortly after midnight on July 30 1945 the Navy cruiser USS Indianapolis was torpedoed by a Japanese submarine in the Philippine Sea The ship had just left the island of Tinian delivering components of the atomic bomb destined for Hiroshima As the torpedoes hit the Indianapolis erupted into a fiery coffin sinking in less than fifteen minutes and leaving nine hundred crewmen fighting for life in shark infested waters They expected a swift routine rescue unaware that the Navy high command didn t even realize that the Indianapolis was missing Help would not arrive for another five days Drawn from definitive interviews with key figures Fatal Voyage recounts the horrific events endured as the number of water treading survivors dwindled to just 316 Each gruesome day brought more madness and slow death from explosion related injuries dehydration and most terrifying of all shark attacks But the pain did not end when the men finally returned home The Indianapolis's commander Captain Charles B McVay III was court martialed for causing the clearly unavoidable disaster With a new afterword chronicling the fifty five year campaign by Indianapolis survivors and their supporters to win public vindication for Captain McVay this classic is restored along with memories of the Indianapolis crew Fatal Voyage Kathy Reichs, 2022-05-24 When a commercial
