Copyright Office, 1957     Official Year Book of Western Australia , 1902     Jonah And Co. Dornford Yates, 2011-08-31 These are some of Yates early short stories featuring the comic Pleydell clan and on publication proved just a successful and popular as Berry and Co had been They describe the chaotic journey of the young well to do heroes as they cavort across France and helped to establish Yates reputation as a master of humorous fiction     100 Walks in Lancashire Bob Clare, 2015-02-23 Lancashire is a walker s paradise with many unexpected delights such as Silverdale and the Forest of Bowland This collection of 100 great walks will help you explore the diverse and beautiful landscapes of this fascinating yet under rated county The Crowood Walking Guides give detailed and accurate route descriptions of the 100 walks which are up to 12 miles in length Full colour mapping is included which is sourced from the Ordnance Survey Details of where to park and where to eat and drink are included and also places of interest to see en route Illustrated with 100 colour route maps and one regional map     What Shall I Read Next? F. Seymour Smith, 1953-01-02 Originally published in 1953 What Shall I Read Next lists nearly 2000 works published after 1900 with the compiler s own appreciatory comments on selected items It was a companion volume to Mr Seymour Smith's English Library Both books are published on behalf of the National Book League In his introduction explaining the scope and purpose of the book Mr Seymour Smith wrote Some will find it useful merely as a shopping list reminding them of books they know something about already and serving as a remembrancer To others and particularly to younger readers it may introduce books which have so far escaped their notice It is hoped too that for booksellers and librarians it will have a practical use as a desk book for answering enquiries for serving as a check list for stock and for use as a reference book when memory fails Colorado Family Outdoor Adventure Heather Mundt, 2022-05-15

When I wrote my first book Journeys of a Lifetime in 2004 it reflected how dreams of mine of visiting unknown places in the UK countries across the North Sea in Europe and seemingly far off continents of America Africa Asia and Australia became a reality That was mainly due to the advent of air travel package holidays and the massive growth of international travel in the second half of the twentieth century Nine years on from that book in my second book our traveling had continued and in that time having seen the arrival of four grandchildren naturally they have joined in some of the journeys At that time our fourth grandchild just made the book with her name and date and place of birth Naturally there was a need for another book so that she as well as her brother and cousins will all be able to read as they get older about their grandparents travels and in particular some of which included them Although places visited in the three years since the last book include some return trips to old favorites this book reflects only the new places visited In particular India the Middle East the Far East Eastern Europe and nearer home the beautiful Northeast England it reflects the visits of the grandchildren featured more this time As we now have two grandchildren living in the Costa del Sol as well as the Aussie part of the family Spain and Australia are now regular destinations Although the UK is much smaller in area than those two countries it is packed with wonderful places to visit so trips at home are still often very much included in our travels Added to that cruising has taken off in the last decade a bit like package deals to Europe did in the 1960s and has provided a very enjoyable new dimension to the journeys made Cruises are featured several times in this book More Journeys of a Lifetime and now Even More Journeys of a Lifetime reflect the further growth in long haul travel and the massive increase in cruising Hope you enjoy my further travels around this small world of ours going on from those early dreams of mine and continuing to do so

The Gold Crusades Douglas Fetherling, George Fetherling, 1997-01-01 Among the hordes of starry eyed argonauts who flocked to the California gold rush of 1849 was an Australian named Edward Hargraves He left America empty handed only to find gold in his own backyard The result was the great Australian rush of the 1850s which also attracted participants from around the world A South African named P J Marais was one of them Marais too returned home in defeat only to set in motion the diamond and gold rushes that transformed southern Africa And so it went Most previous historians of the gold rushes have tended to view them as acts of spontaneous nationalism Each country likes to see its own gold rush as the one that either shaped those that followed or epitomized all the rest In The Gold Crusades A Social History of Gold Rushes 1849 1929 Douglas Fetherling takes a different approach Fetherling argues that the gold rushes in the United States Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa shared the same causes and results the same characters and characteristics He posits that they were in fact a single discontinuous event an expression of the British imperial experience and nineteenth century liberalism He does so with dash and style and with a sharp eye for the telling anecdote the out of the way document and the bold connection between seemingly unrelated disciplines Originally published by Macmillan of Canada 1988
