The Routledge Companion to Marine and Maritime Worlds

1400-1800 Claire Jowitt,Craig Lambert,Steve Mentz,2020-05-21 This book has been nominated for The Mountbatten Award for Best Book in the Maritime Media Awards 2021 The Routledge Companion to Marine and Maritime Worlds 1400 1800 explores early modern maritime history culture and the current state of the research and approaches taken by experts in the field Ranging from cartography to poetry and decorative design to naval warfare the book shows how once traditional and often Euro chauvinistic depictions of oceanic mastery during the early modern period have been replaced by newer global ideas This comprehensive volume challenges underlying assumptions by balancing its assessment of the consequences and accomplishments of European navigators in the era of Columbus da Gama and Magellan with an awareness of the sophistication and maritime expertise in Asia the Arab world and the Americas By imparting riveting new stories and global perceptions of maritime history and culture the contributors provide readers with fresh insights concerning early modern entanglements between humans and the vast unpredictable ocean With maritime studies growing and the ocean s health in decline this volume is essential reading for academics and students interested in the historicization of the ocean and the ways early modern cultures both conceptualized and utilized seas Canadian Children's Literature ,1989

Brightfellow Rikki Ducornet,2016-06-13 Praise for Rikki Ducornet A novelist whose vocabulary sweats with a kind of lyrical heat New York Times Ducornet surrealist absurdist pure anarchist at times is one of our most accomplished writers adept at seizing on the perfect details and writing with emotion and cool detachment simultaneously I love her style because it is penetrating and precise but also sensual without being overwrought You experience a Ducornet novel with all of your senses Jeff VanderMeer Linguistically explosive One of the most interesting American writers around The Nation Ducornet celebrates the playful and rebellious nature of art and the anarchic ability of the imagination to subvert physical limitations Times Literary Supplement A feral boy comes of age on a campus decadent with starched sheets sweating cocktails and homemade jams Stub is the cause of that missing sweater the pie that disappeared off the cooling rack Then Stub meets Billy who takes him in and Asthma who enchants him and all is found then lost A fragrant voluptuous novel of imposture misplaced affection and emotional deformity An artist and writer Rikki Ducornet has illustrated books by Robert Coover Jorge Luis Borges Forrest Gander and Joanna Howard Her paintings have been exhibited widely including most recently at the Pierre Menard Gallery in Cambridge Massachusetts and the Salvador Allende Museum in Santiago Chile One Firm Anchor RWH Miller,2012-10-25 One Firm Anchor uncovers nineteen centuries of contact between the churches and the seafarer This extensive introductory history goes beyond anything previously written on the subject in scope and detail Until now much has been written of the sea but little about the relationship of the seafarer to Christianity R W H Miller adeptly sets out the origins of seafaring mission in the Early Church and the medieval era The early modern period is also considered leading to a detailed exploration of the developments in the nineteenth century that saw the foundation of The Missions to Seamen the British Sailors Society the Apostleship of the Sea and the Mission to Deep Sea Fishermen Particular attention is given to the work of the Catholic Church during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries These developments are set against the backdrop of the economic technical and cultural developments of each period and society Miller reveals the role of key figures such as G C Smith John Ashley Francis Goldie SJ and Peter Anson whose determination and vision instigated real change One Firm Anchor is both a triumph of scholarship and a lively narrative of heroic ministry and occasionally erring clergy and will appeal to historian academic and student alike

The Aesthetics of Island Space Johannes Riquet, 2019-12-18 Oxford Textual Perspectives is a series of informative and provocative studies focused upon literary texts conceived of in the broadest sense of that term and the technologies cultures and communities that produce inform and receive them It provides fresh interpretations of fundamental works and of the vital and challenging issues emerging in English literary studies By engaging with the materiality of the literary text its production and reception history and frequently testing and exploring the boundaries of the notion of text itself the volumes in the series question familiar frameworks and provide innovative interpretations of both canonical and less well known works The Aesthetics of Island Space discusses islands as central figures in the modern experience of space It examines the spatial poetics of islands in literary texts from Shakespeare's The Tempest to Ghosh's The Hungry Tide in the journals of explorers and scientists such as James Cook and Charles Darwin and in Hollywood cinema It traces the ways in which literary and cinematic islands have functioned as malleable spatial figures that offer vivid perceptual experiences as well as a geopoetic oscillation between the material energies of words and images and the energies of the physical world The chapters focus on America's island gateways Roanoke and Ellis Island visions of tropical islands Tahiti and imagined South Sea islands the islands of the US Canadian border region in the Pacific Northwest and the imaginative appeal of mutable islands It argues that modern voyages of discovery posed considerable perceptual and cognitive challenges to the experience of space and that these challenges were negotiated in complex and contradictory ways via poetic engagement with islands Discussions of island narratives in postcolonial theory have broadened understanding of how islands have been imagined as geometrical abstractions bounded spaces easily subjected to the colonial gaze There is however a second story of islands in the Western imagination which runs parallel to this colonial story In this alternative account the modern experience of islands in the age of discovery went hand in hand with a disintegration of received models of understanding global space Drawing on and rethinking post phenomenological geocritical and geopoetic theories The Aesthetics of Island Space argues that the modern experience of islands as mobile and shifting territories implied a dispersal fragmentation and diversification of spatial experience and it explores how this disruption is registered and negotiated by both non fictional and fictional responses
