Dole,Brady E. Donaldson,Rebecca S. Donaldson,2014-07 This teacher friendly resource addresses one of the most important critical reading skills in the Common Core State Standards reading across multiple texts As the world grows ever more complicated students more than ever need to become skillful at reading multiple sources comparing contrasting and integrating texts Responding specifically to Standards 7 and 9 this guide shows teachers how to work with students as they read think about critique and evaluate multiple texts including narrative and informational print graphic and video hard copy and online The authors provide strategies for helping students answer text dependent questions find evidence in a text and scan for information Model lessons developed and taught by the authors and their professional colleagues will be especially useful to teachers whether they are beginning or expanding their own teaching of multiple texts      Creativity and Children's Literature Marianne Saccardi, 2014-07-31 Today's students need to be able to do more than score well on tests; they must be creative thinkers and problem solvers. The tools in this book will help teachers and parents start students on the path to becoming innovative, successful individuals in the 21st century workforce. The children in classrooms today will soon become adult members of society; they will need to apply divergent thinking skills to be effective in all aspects of their lives regardless of their specific occupation. How well your students meet complicated challenges and take advantage of the opportunities before them decades down the road will depend largely upon the kind of thinking they are trained and encouraged to do today. This book provides a game plan for busy librarians and teachers to develop their students' abilities to arrive at new ideas by utilizing children's books at hand. Following an introduction in which the author defines divergent thinking, discusses its characteristics, and establishes its vital importance, chapters dedicated to types of literature for children such as fantasy, poetry, and non-fiction present specific titles and relevant activities geared to fostering divergent thinking in young minds. Parents will find the recommendations of the kinds of books to read with their children and explanations of how to engage their children in conversations that will help their creative thinking skills extremely beneficial. The book also includes a case study of a fourth grade class that applied the principles of divergent thinking to imagine innovative designs and come up with new ideas while studying a social studies/science unit on ecology.

How to Get Your Child to Love Reading Esmé Raji Codell, 2003-01-01 Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips.      Eva Zeisel Pat Kirkham, 2013-10-15 Eva Zeisel was one of the twentieth century's most influential ceramicists and designers of modern housewares. Her distinctive take on modern industrial design was inspired by organic form and brought beauty and playfulness to housewares, earning her designs a beloved place in mid-century homes. This richly illustrated volume, the first ever complete biographical account of Zeisel's life and work, presents an extensive survey of every line she ever created, all captured in gorgeous new photography, plus 28 short essays from scholars, collectors, curators, and designers. The definitive book on the grande dame of twentieth century ceramics, this is an essential resource for anyone who appreciates modern design.      Los Angeles Magazine, 2002-02 Los Angeles Magazine is a regional magazine of national stature.
