Goldsmith A Tale Of The Military Industrial Complex:

Goldsmith William J. Walsh,1986-10-01 Books in Print Supplement ,1985 Everyday Movies Haidee Wasson,2020-11-10 Everyday Movies documents the twentieth century rise of portable film projectors It demonstrates that since World War II the vast majority of movie watching did not happen in the glow of the large screen but rather took place alongside the glitches distortions and clickety clack of small machines that transformed home classroom museum community government industrial and military venues into sites of moving image display Reorienting the history of cinema away from the magic of the movie theater Haidee Wasson illustrates the remarkable persistence and proliferation of devices that fundamentally rejected the sleek highly professionalized film show She foregrounds instead another kind of apparatus one that was accessible affordable adaptable easy to use and crucially programmable Revealing rich archival discoveries this book charts a compelling and original history of film that brings to light new technologies and diverse forms of media engagement that continue to shape contemporary life Daughters of Earth Justine Larbalestier,2006-05-22 Women s contributions to science fiction have been lasting and important This is a collection of 11 key stories alongside 11 essays that explore the stories contexts meanings and theoretical implications Organized chronologically it aims to create a different canon of feminist science fiction and examines the theory that addresses it The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1988

Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003-12 America, Sea Power, and the World James C. Bradford,2015-12-23 This survey of American naval history features original chapters from key scholars in the field that trace the relationship between the American Navy and the position of the United States on the global political stage over the past 250 years Places equal weight on the influence of major wartime campaigns and naval efforts to defend and expand America s political and economic interests during times of peace Includes an array of illustrations and 56 new maps seamlessly integrated within each chapter Each chapter features sidebars with biographical sketches of influential leaders and descriptions of weapons and technological developments of the era Not Hollywood Sherry B. Ortner,2013-02-27 The pioneering anthropologist Sherry B Ortner explores the culture and practices of independent filmmaking in the U S arguing that during the past three decades independent cinema has provided vital cultural critique Big Science Michael Hiltzik,2015-07-07 Traces the story of forgotten genius Ernest Lawrence 1901 1958 and his invention of the cyclotron which triggered Big Science breakthroughs that have rendered science dependent on government and industry Heisenberg Probably Slept Here Richard P. Brennan,1997 Profiles the lives of eight physicists and details their contributions to the field especially during the twentieth century Horror and Science Fiction Films IV Donald C. Willis,1997-08-07 This fourth title in a unique series that combines reference and analytical qualities in chronicling the horror and science fiction genres Horror and Science Fiction Films IV brings the earlier three volumes in the series up to date concentrating on the period from 1984 1994 as well as updating entries from the previous volumes and adding newly discovered titles from 1900 1983 Entries in the main list include credits cast synopsis and annotation The introduction lists 1995 releases in the genres and 1996 releases through the summer cites the more memorable films in the genres for both the current period and 1900 1984 and serves as an index to key titles in the main list including long lost titles such as the obscure silent Were Tiger and the 1931 The Phantom Willis includes many films from around the world that are not found in any other English language film reference work One appendix provides thumbnail descriptions of problem and peripheral films another updates entries in the first three books with alternate titles and a third appendix serves as an index to the approximately 7 000 films listed in the first three volumes in the series as well as in the current volume thus bringing the total number of films covered in this series to roughly 11 000 titles

Autism John W. Oller Jr., Stephen D. Oller, 2010-10-25 The upsurge in autism spectrum disorders is not uncaused It is no longer plausibly deniable nor is it untreatable The first step toward successful treatment however is an accurate diagnosis of the problem and the discovery of its underlying causes its etiology Autism The Diagnosis Treatment Etiology of the Undenia addresses all these issues with a primary focus on etiology This groundbreaking book addresses the crucial issue of causation in intelligible accessible language while offering plenty of research to support key theories Features Readable and compelling stories showing the human side of the upsurge in diagnoses of autism spectrum disorders Up to date information and analysis of relevant biochemical and medical research Exploration of popular theories that only explain a small part of the upsurge plus a realistic critical assessment of widely promoted message by key interest groups and stakeholders Documented solutions and remedies for individuals parents grandparents and caregivers Autism The Diagnosis Treatment Etiology of the Undeniable Epidemic is an ideal supplement for an introductory course in communication disorders and child language disorders This text includes a CD with video and audio clips to further student comprehension Each new textbook includes a DVD Please note Electronic formats ebooks do not include access to the DVD

DeColonize EcoModernism! Ariel Salleh, 2024-12-12 In the 21st century the old colonial attitude of terra nullius meaning a vacant place free for the taking still lurks behind the global economic expropriation of peoples lands and bodies Today that theft is rationalised internationally by ecomodernist policy This book engages with the patriarchal colonial capitalist mindset of the contemporary Androcene and its threats to Life on Earth including global warming and nuclear risks mining and the gene trade the Fourth Industrial Revolution and digital coloniality Ariel Salleh spells out the social and ecological contradictions set in motion by neocolonialism Inspired by decolonial thinkers from Arturo Escobar to Tyson Yunkaporta and critics of technology like Vandana Shiva and Shoshana Zuboff she argues that dispossession of First Nation peoples livelihoods is not healed by consumerism in the name of development Breaking with ecomodernist policy such as the tech fix of mainstream environmentalists Salleh contests the patriarchal colonial capitalist imperium and its advocacy of Green New Deals Earth Governance Sustainable Development Goals and Smart Futures Worldwide many decolonial activists see through the zero sum imagination and its Earth Summits Youth too is defying the capitalist ruling class extinction trajectory and some even challenge the fashionable post human ideology circulating in high tech quarters Beyond exchange value these Others of the Androcene are calling for self governing bioregional futures respectful of indigenous skills they want local food sovereign economies which meet people s needs while protecting nature s metabolic value Spelling out the biopolitical violence of digitalization and genetic engineering this book traces two decades of creative defiance by global peoples movements against the contradictions of ecomodernist development and its ongoing imposition by nation states and international agencies

War, Business, and American Society Benjamin Franklin Cooling (III),1977 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1998 The Publishers Weekly ,1894 Writings on American History, 1962-73 James R.

Masterson,American Historical Association,1985 This book provides a comprehensive listing of the book length works published from 1962 to 1973 that are relevant to the study of American history and is organized into a subject classification system This bibliography gives access to over 50 000 works on the history the geography and the political social and economic aspects of the United States its people its government and its institutions The entries cover the entire area now within the United States or under its jurisdiction ranging from prehistoric times to 1973 Introd Geopolitics, Military Modernisation and the Future of the Indo-Pacific Bates Gill,Adam Lockyer,Yves-Heng Lim,Andrew T. H. Tan,2024-08-02 This book examines to what extent geopolitics explains the current wave of force modernisation in the Indo Pacific region Examining the leading Indo Pacific nations in terms of defence spending the United States China India Japan South Korea Australia Taiwan Singapore Pakistan Indonesia and Thailand geopolitical principles are used to create hypotheses that can be tested against the military modernisation programmes of the major actors in the Indo Pacific region The book represents a bridge between reference works and the literature on international politics in the Indo Pacific The empirical chapters provide qualitative narratives that explore the force postures military modernisation and procurement patterns of the cases and assess why these nations military modernisation has followed particular courses and evaluate this evidence against the expectations of geopolitics and its rivals This book will be a valuable addition to scholars practitioners and indeed anyone interested in the future stability of one of the world s most important and dynamic regions Who Benefits from Global Violence and War Marc Pilisuk,2007-12-30 Military economic and environmental violence in the era of globalization cause immense suffering and may ultimately threaten the existence of life as we know it but author Pilisuk explains that the future can change if we understand and act upon the roots of violence A professor emeritus of psychology and human and community development Pilisuk explains how most violence is the product of a human built social order in which some people and institutions control most of the resources make the decisions that necessitate violence and operate with minimal accountability The common root of war poverty environmental destruction and other forms of violence is spotlighted Such violence says Pilisuk is a natural consequence of a system inordinately influenced by a relatively small interconnected group of corporate military and government leaders with the power to instill fear to increase their excessive fortunes and to restrict information particularly about their own clandestine dealings This text includes scholarship hailing from across disciplines combined with information from investigative journalism and insights from nonprofit watchdog groups all shedding light on centralized power and its effects Pilisuk presents material including the range of tactics used to manipulate and destroy adversaries the human capacity to kill as a challenge and how media is used by powerful groups to manipulate fear and maintain their power Here readers find solid social science to support what whistleblowers and social critics are observing about a system that needs change Publishers' Weekly ,1894
