Golf By Design:

The Golden Age of Golf Design Geoff Shackelford, 2005-07-21 In Golfweek's recently unveiled ranking of the Top 100 American courses opened before 1960 a staggering total of 84 were constructed between 1910 and 1937. There was never a more creative, daring, or fruitful period in the history of golf course architecture and in The Golden Age of Golf Design the classic courses are revisited and celebrated. Using never-before-seen old photographs and little-known anecdotes, Geoff Shackelford shows us how some of America's most famous courses looked in their early years. The finest architects the world has ever known were practicing during this era, and each is well represented in this landmark book: C. B. Macdonald, Alister MacKenzie, Donald Ross, A. W. Tillinghast, George Thomas, William Flynn, and so many others are honored in these pages. Every important early American course built or redesigned during the Golden Age is included: Oakmont, the National Golf Links, Pine Valley, Merion, Baltusrol, Winged Foot, Riviera, Shinnecock Hills, Pinehurst, Oakland Hills, Cypress Point, Augusta National, Pebble Beach, Prairie Dunes, the Country Club, and more. In The Golden Age of Golf Design, the original work of these master architects is remembered, and their work analyzed. And even though the emphasis is on the newly uncovered photographs of these famous courses, as their architects left them, biographical profiles and timeless quotes are included from the famous architects and their prominent counterparts to remind us of the true genius of these artists. On top of the remarkable old photography, original golf landscape paintings by Mike Miller introduce each chapter and serve as a colorful reminder of how stunning many of these classic layouts must have looked. The Golden Age of Golf Design brings to life many forgotten holes, courses, and great architects and is sure to become a classic in golf literature circles.
