The Open Question Peter May, 2021-05-12 Golfing legend Ben Hogan went to his grave believing he had won a record five US Open titles The USGA says otherwise and the controversy has endured for over 75 years In 1942 the United States Golf Association USGA cancelled its four golf tournaments for the duration of World War II But then it did something different in only that year it sponsored the Hale America National Open on the same weekend as the cancelled US Open The great Ben Hogan won that tournament and went to his grave believing he had therefore won a record five US Open titles In The Open Question Peter May turns his attention to this controversial colorful Hale America National Open of 1942 While providing an in depth look at the tournament itself May champions Hogan's claim to five US Open titles and debunks some questionable assertions
