Wanderings on the Wild Side Jane Harris, 2019-01-15 Wonderful sightings of kingfishers colourful butterflies wild deer and beautiful wild flowers inspired me to recount the experiences from years ago Family and friends photographs are much appreciated and their company on walks too Exploring the local countryside in the early nineteen fifties when I was just eight years old gave me a love of wild life flora and fauna and filled me with wonder hearing the flock of lapwings calling Peewit and watching them circling twisting and turning in the blue skies far above me In those years children could wander freely easily surviving the occasional mishap such as falling in the deep part of the stream that flowed across the moors to the River Soar Sketching and painting also enjoyable activities from early childhood enabled me as a self taught artist to try and capture the beauty of the landscape where I walk so often in my paintings as well as in my diary However my family struggling to read my handwritten diaries I found it difficult too in places encouraged me to typewrite them and this book is the result

The Raid at Lake Minnewaska J. L. Larson, 2012-01-24 It was a warm June weekend in 1931 when five people met coincidentally at a lake town in Minnesota Three of the five were outsiders Two law school buddies James Lawton and Charlie Davis were in town on a lark but immediately began noticing some strange happenings at a nearby lake resort The other Lindy MacPherson had more serious business As an inexperienced investigator from the Minneapolis branch of the U S Attorneys office her task was to explore a rumor about an alleged gambling operation in the vicinity of Lake Minnewaska It was supposed to be a simple job neither lengthy nor precarious more to give her investigative experience while under cover as a travel magazine writer She had been observing the same odd occurrences in the town The other two a local father and son John and Adam Bailey had been ignoring these unusual activities and antics of the peculiar assortment of guests at nearby Chippewa Lodge like everyone else in town It had been best to do so for the good of the community Glenwood was thriving during an otherwise very difficult economic time all around the country MacPhersons orders had been strict If she were to find any evidence relating to illegal gambling she would leave Glenwood and promptly turn over her findings to the state patrol or the Bureau of Investigation and let them handle any potential arrests MacPherson did not have an exemplary record of following strict orders especially when prompt action was needed Normally taking on the mob would not be considered by anyone in their right mind That weekend these five people made a decision Circumstances required their immediate attention

Manufacturing National Park Nature J. Keri Cronin, 2011-07-01 National parks occupy a prominent place in the Canadian imagination yet we are only beginning to understand how their visual representation has shaped and continues to inform our perceptions of ecological issues and the natural world J Keri Cronin draws on historical and modern postcards advertisements and other images of Jasper National Park to trace how various groups and the tourism industry have used photography to divorce the park from real environmental threats and instead package it as a series of breathtaking vistas and adorable looking animals Manufacturing National Park Nature demonstrates that popular forms of picturing nature can have ecological implications that extend far beyond the frame of the image

'Inconsiderate Bastard' Brian Arthur Levene, 2011-07-14 A young man witnesses from an early age that the degradation of women is the norm and develops into an Inconsiderate Bastard who cares only about his desires After reflecting upon his exploits he tries to reform his behavior and his dirty ways but is he capable I am one of society's many men who are responsible for causing mass destruction to women's ability to care for their family the right way or blissfully fall in love Lucky for us some women can overcome their baggage and become loving and caring even though they were ill treated raped pillaged of their sanity and left for years It doesn't matter what country you are from and it certainly doesn't matter where you live It seems like the ability for most men to love and treat women like they are worth more than a two dollar hooker waiting for another John has evaporated from most of today's modern man's mind
