This book recounts a personal journey of self acceptance focusing on the author s creation and reliance of a persona Paul D Drevlin as a defense mechanism against societal and familial pressures Beginning with a childhood marked by traumatic events the author begins his desire of invisibility later adopting the persona of Drevlin to navigate societal expectations and challenges including his struggles with identity sexuality and religious conservatism This book explores how the persona initially provided protection safety and acceptance to eventual self realization that the persona was more a prisoner than a protector The aim of this book is to open discussion regarding the shifts in acceptance experienced by the LGBTQ community over the years It underscores the importance of family whether that be birth family or family of choice and peer support community acceptance and the changing dynamics of LGBTQ landscapes The book also aims to stress the significance of fostering an inclusive society and respecting the diverse identities of individuals advocating for understanding empathy and collective efforts toward equality and acceptance Suitable for students studying LGBTQ studies gender studies sociology psychology social work and creative writing this book will also appeal to non academic readers who may find the cultural and family themes significant to their own lives
