Women in European Holocaust Films Ingrid Lewis,2018-01-19 This book considers how women s experiences have been treated in films dealing with Nazi persecution Focusing on fiction films made in Europe between 1945 and the present this study explores dominant discourses on and cinematic representation of women as perpetrators victims and resisters Ingrid Lewis contends that European Holocaust Cinema underwent a rich and complex trajectory of change with regard to the representation of women This change both reflects and responds to key socio cultural developments in the intervening decades as well as to new directions in cinema historical research and politics of remembrance The book will appeal to international scholars students and educators within the fields of Holocaust Studies Film Studies European Cinema and Women s Studies

Projecting the Holocaust into the Present Lawrence Baron,2005-11-01 Most Holocaust scholars and survivors contend that the event was so catastrophic and unprecedented that it defies authentic representation in feature films Yet it is precisely the extremity of the Final Solution and the issues it raised that have fueled the cinematic imagination since the end of World War II Recognizing that movies reach a greater audience than eyewitness historical or literary accounts Lawrence Baron argues that they mirror changing public perceptions of the Holocaust over time and place After tracing the evolution of the most commonly employed genres and themes in earlier Holocaust motion pictures he focuses on how films from the 1990s made the Holocaust relevant for contemporary audiences While genres like biographical films and love stories about doomed Jewish Gentile couples remained popular they now cast Jews or non Jewish victims like homosexuals in lead roles more often than was the case in the past Baron attributes the recent proliferation of Holocaust comedies and children s movies to the search for more figurative and age appropriate genres for conveying the significance of the Holocaust to generations born after it happened He contends that thematic shifts to stories about neo Nazis rescuers survivors and their children constitute an expression of the continuing impact the Holocaust exerts on the present The book concludes with a survey of recent films like Nowhere in Africa and The Pianist      Unlikely Heroes Ari Kohen, Gerald J. Steinacher, 2019-05-01 Classes and books on the Holocaust often center on the experiences of victims perpetrators and bystanders but rescuers also occupy a prominent space in Holocaust courses and literature even though incidents of rescue were relatively few and rescuers constituted less than 1 percent of the population in Nazi occupied Europe As inspiring figures and role models rescuers challenge us to consider how we would act if we found ourselves in similarly perilous situations of grave moral import Their stories speak to us and move us Yet this was not always the case Seventy years ago these brave men and women today regarded as the Righteous Among the Nations went largely unrecognized indeed sometimes they were even singled out for abuse from their co nationals for their selfless actions Unlikely Heroes traces the evolution of the humanitarian hero looking at the ways in which historians politicians and filmmakers have treated individual rescuers like Raoul Wallenberg and Oskar Schindler as well as the rescue efforts of humanitarian organizations Contributors in this edited collection also explore classroom possibilities for dealing with the role of rescuers at both the university and the secondary level      Screen World 1994 John Willis, Barry Monush, 2000-02-01 Covers American and foreign films released in the United States each year with listings of credits and profiles of screen personalities and award winners      TLA Film and Video Guide David Bleiler, 1999 Detailed indexes by star director genre country of origin and theme Lavishly illustrated with over 450 photos Comprehensive selection of international cinema from over 50 countries Over 9 000 films reviewed Up to date information on video availability and pricing Appendices with award listings TLA Bests and recommended films in learning to interpret assess and evaluate historical sources Intended primarily for upper level high school and undergraduate level history students general readers will also appreciate the variegated array of primary material from World War II which depicts numerous aspects of the conflict often in extremely personal terms     Erbstein: the triumph and tragedy of football's forgotten pioneer Dominic Bliss,2014-12-01 Ern Egri Erbstein was one of the greatest coaches there has ever been a pioneering tactician and supreme man manager who created Il Grande Torino the team that dominated Italian football in the years immediately after the Second World War His was an extraordinary life that was characterised by courage and resourcefulness in the face of adversity Erbstein was part of the great Jewish coaching tradition developed in the coffee houses of Budapest and playing in Hungary Italy and the USA he moved to Bari to embark on a coaching career that soon became noted for its innovativeness That he and his family survived the Holocaust was a matter of astonishing good fortune but just four years after the end of the war Erbstein was killed with his team in the Superga air crash Dominic Bliss through a combination of interviews painstaking archival research and careful detective work pieces together the lost history of one of football's most influential early heroes Like our quarterly publications Blizzard Books will provide the same freedom as in our quarterly editions for writers to write about the football related subjects that are important to them be that at the highest level or the lowest at home or abroad Eclecticism and the desire to provide an alternative to that which already exists is the key     Ingmar Bergman Marc Gervais,1999-11-15 Ingmar Bergman has long been revered as a master craftsman of the cinema a film poet who has created works that are intensely revealing of himself while resonating mysteriously and powerfully with his audience In Ingmar Bergman Marc Gervais explores what has largely been taken for granted how Bergman achieves this cinematic magic through his specific choices in the use of film language and the texturing and structuring of his images sounds and rhythms Gervais shows also how Bergman's work resonates in a much broader sphere than the personal His films which are without equal in the history of cinema in quality consistency and relevance are crucial moments in an ongoing conversation with western culture in its frenetic evolution since World War II Gervais situates Bergman within the tensions of modernism and the western tradition that have manifested themselves in the twentieth century from existentialism through deconstruction and into postmodernism Bergman's films are experienced as incarnations meditations explorations and aesthetic objects that reflect comment on conflict with or embrace the movements that produced them     TLA Film, Video, & DVD Guide, 2002-2003 David Bleiler,2025-09-23 The TLA Film Video from This Is Spinal Tap to Ma Vie en Rose     Bystanders to the Holocaust David Cesarani,Paul A. Levine,2014-06-03 Using accessible archival sources a team of historians reveal how much the USA Britain Switzerland and Sweden knew about the Nazi attempt to murder all the Jews of Europe during World War II     Cinema and the Shoah Jean-Michel Frodon,2010-01-08 From The Great Dictator to Schindler's List the extermination of the Jews of Europe has driven the cinema more than any other form of artistic expression to question its methods techniques and ethics It is with reference to the Shoah that a decisive part of the thought behind modern cinema has been constructed and consciously or not many of the greatest films of the past sixty years bear the mark of this event To give an account of these phenomena Cinema and the Shoah brings together filmmakers historians journalists philosophers and researchers to explore how the Shoah as a historical event implicated and mobilized the cinema by profoundly questioning its modes of recounting and storytelling of putting visions onscreen The book also includes a filmography compiled with the assistance of the Fritz Bauer Institute of Frankfurt that lists over three hundred feature length films short films and documentaries about the Shoah produced between 1945 and the present

How the Holocaust Looks Now M. Davies, C. Szejnmann, 2006-11-16 This collection offers a series of essays that explore the historical culture the holocaust has engendered in Europe Israel and the USA the politics of its reception and representation the motivations for and effectiveness of commemorating it and the creative and didactic practices it has generated in contemporary literature art and thought
