Good And Evil Interpreting A Human Condition:

Good and Evil Edward Farley, What does it mean to be human in a world filled with tragedy With creativity and insight Edward Farley one of today s most respected theologians here addresses this universal and haunting question of evil Farley anchors his discussion firmly in interhuman I thou dynamics as a key to unfolding the personal and social spheres of human existence It is says Farley the corruption of elemental passions and the resulting contagion of the personal and social spheres that provide a total view of human evil and its redemptive possibilities The ^AGardeners' Dirty Hands Noah J.

Toly,2019-05-21 In The Gardeners Dirty Hands Environmental Politics and Christian Ethics Noah Toly engages Christian and classical Greek ideas of the tragic to illuminate the enduring challenges of environmental politics He suggests that Christians have unique resources for responsible engagement with global environmental politics The Making of American

Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien,2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom Theological Anthropology in the Anthropocene Jan-Olav Henriksen,2022-12-14 The Anthropocene presents theology and especially theological anthropology with unprecedented challenges There are no immediately available resources in the theological tradition that reflect directly on such experiences Accordingly the situation calls for contextually based theological reflection of what it means to be human under such circumstances This book discusses the main elements in theological anthropology in light of the fundamental points a that theological anthropology needs to be articulated with reference to and informed by the concrete historical circumstances in which humanity presently finds itself and b that the notion of the Anthropocene can be used as a heuristic tool to describe important traits and conditions that call for a response by humanity and which entail the need for a renewal of what a Christian self understanding means Jan Olav Henriksen explores what such a response entails from the point of view of contemporary theological anthropology and discusses selected topics that can contribute to a contextually based position The Other Side of Sin Andrew Sung Park,Susan L. Nelson,2012-05-21 The good news of Jesus Christ is for both sinners and the sinned against For the past two thousand years Christian theologians have focused on the experience of sinners but treated their victims inadequately To counterbalance this perspective a diverse group of Christian scholars consider sin from the other side To make sense of Christianity from this standpoint they offer a more complex and comprehensive analysis of human participation in evil and its reconciliation than the simple formula of sin and repentance The Other Side of Sin is an original fresh and exciting adventure into one of the most needed areas of theological thinking

Alone in the World? Van Huyssteen,2006-04-12 In Alone in the World first given as the 2004 Gifford Lectures at the University of Edinburgh J Wentzel van Huyssteen develops the interdisciplinary dialogue that he set out in The Shaping of Rationality 1999 applying this methodology to the uncharted waters between theological anthropology and paleoanthropology Among other things van Huyssteen argues that scientific notions of human uniqueness help us to ground theological notions of human distinctiveness in flesh and blood embodied experiences and protect us from overly complex theological abstractions regarding the image of God Focusing on the interdisciplinary problem of human origins and distinctiveness van Huyssteen accesses the origins of the embodied human mind through the spectacular prehistoric cave paintings of western Europe fifteen of which are reproduced in color in this volume Boldly connecting the widely separated fields of Christian theology and paleoanthropology through careful interdisciplinary reflection Alone in the World will encourage sustained investigation into the question of human uniqueness

The Spirit of American Liberal Theology Gary Dorrien,2023-09-05 The Spirit of American Liberal Theology is an interpretation of the entire U S American tradition of liberal theology A highly condensed and far more accessible summary of Gary Dorrien s three volume trilogy The Making of American Liberal Theology Westminster John Knox Press 2001 2003 and 2006 Dorrien here presses the argument that the most abundant diverse and persistent tradition of liberal theology is the one that blossomed in the United States and is still refashioning itself While discussions of English and German liberalism persist new material includes expanded treatment of the Black social gospel the Universalists developments into early 2020s and a robust expression of the author s post Hegelian liberal liberationist perspective

Evolution and the Fall William T. Cavanaugh,James K. A. Smith,2017-02-19 What does it mean for the Christian doctrine of the Fall if there was no historical Adam If humanity emerged from nonhuman primates as genetic biological and archaeological evidence seems to suggest then what are the implications for a Christian understanding of human origins including the origin of sin Evolution and the Fall gathers a multidisciplinary ecumenical team of scholars to address these difficult questions and others like them from the perspectives of biology theology history Scripture philosophy and politics CONTRIBUTORS William T Cavanaugh Celia Deane Drummond Darrel R Falk Joel B Green Michael Gulker Peter Harrison J Richard Middleton Aaron Riches James K A Smith Brent Waters Norman Wirzba

When Christ's Body Is Broken Leanna K. Fuller,2016-03-03 When Christ s Body Is Broken tells the stories of two congregations in conflict Although these churches had very different problems they faced similar struggles to articulate a faithful response to their concerns and to cope with the discord that threatened to tear their communities apart Pastoral theologian Leanna K Fuller shares these stories as a way of exploring the sources and dynamics of conflict in congregations She argues that at the heart of such conflict lies anxiety triggered by encounters with difference Bringing together resources from pastoral theology psychodynamic theory and social psychology Fuller offers a theological reframing of conflict through categories of diversity vulnerability and hospitality categories that she argues can encourage human beings to sit with the anxiety stirred by communal life and remain connected across differences This reframing provides fertile ground out of which Fuller imagines concrete practices designed for conflicted communities and their leaders An Examined Faith James M. Gustafson, Readers General readers college level college university and seminary students theologians and ethicists clergy

Feminist Companion to Wisdom Literature Athalya Brenner-Idan,1995-11-01 This book provides feminist approaches to Wisdom Literature from leading scholars of the Hebrew Bible and feminist hermeneutics Reformed Reader George Stroup,2002-02-01 This volume demonstrates a central conviction of the Reformed tradition that theology must honor the historic witness of the church as catholic while being faithful to the new tasks of the present day church It offers selections from Reformed theology creeds confessions and church documents of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Winds of the Spirit Peter Crafts Hodgson,1994-01-01 Contextual theology postmodernism and theology The Future of the World Tiffany Eberle Kriner,2014-07-01 Kriner tells the story of how readers participate in the future of the word the eschatology of texts If texts have a future in the kingdom of God then readers engagements with them everything from preservation and utterance to translation criticism and call and response can cultivate those futures in the love of the Trinity Kriner explores how the fallenness and failures of texts alongside readers own failures ultimately point to reading as a posture of reconciliation in which reader and text meet in the Maranatha of all text The Spirit of Sustainability Willis Jenkins,Whitney Bauman,2009-11-01 The Spirit of Sustainability helps readers navigate the moral worlds and ethical concepts and social and religious practices related to sustainability In collaboration with the Forum on Religion and Ecology an established network of leading scholars it explores a wide range of topics and perspectives from the promise and problems of approaching sustainability through global and indigenous religions to major theories in philosophy and environmental ethics and professional practices and social movements This volume presents the various goals of sustainability ecological integrity economic health human dignity fairness to the future and social justice and provides a framework for reasoning through many interrelated environmental challenges for both current and future generations

Otherness and Ethics ShinHyung Seong,2018-09-14 Otherness and Ethics demonstrates how Levinas and Confucius Kongzi develop their ideas of otherness and ethics Most of all the meaning of inter subjectivity is examined in order to employ this point as this book delves into the phenomenon of face in Levinas and the significance of ren human relatedness in Confucius Kongzi In addition this book searches their different notions of humanity and relatedness to have a creative discourse for developing the concept of ethics of otherness as it concentrates on the formulation of ethical narratives in Levinas and Confucius Kongzi Thus this book can open a possibility of building of ethics of otherness through reviewing ethical foundations of Levinas and Confucius Kongzi and discussing the meaning of otherness The Christian Case for Virtue Ethics Joseph J. Kotva Jr., 1996-09-01 Despite the growing interest among philosophers and theologians in virtue ethics its proponents have done little to suggest why Christians in particular find virtue ethics attractive Joseph J Kotva Jr addresses this question in The Christian Case for Virtue Ethics showing that virtue theory offers an ethical framework that is highly compatible with Christian morality Kotva defines virtue ethics and demonstrates its ability to voice Christian convictions about how to live the moral life He evaluates virtue theory in light of systematic theology and Scripture arguing that Christian ethics could be profitably linked with neo Aristotelian virtue ethics Ecumenical in tone this book provides a thorough but accessible introduction to recent philosophical accounts of virtue and offers an original explicitly Christian adaptation of these ideas It will be of value to students and scholars of philosophy theology and religion as well as to those interested in the debates surrounding virtue ethics Anatomy of a Schism Eileen Campbell-Reed, 2019-08-13 Eileen Campbell Reed has taken a fascinating denominational schism and rendered it in a new and plausible way She has accomplished something most of us who have worked on Southern Baptists are ill equipped to do and therefore makes a unique and important contribution to the study of Southern Baptists in particular and religion in America more broadly This is a well argued work of scholarship based on solid evidence Barry Hankins author of Baptists in America A History From 1979 to 2000 the Southern Baptist Convention SBC was mired in conflict with the biblicist and autonomist parties fighting openly for control This highly polarizing struggle ended in a schism that created major changes within the SBC and also resulted in the formation of several new Baptist groups Discussions of the schism academic and otherwise generally ignore the church s clergywomen for the roles they played and the contributions they made to the fracturing of the largest Protestant group in the United States Ordained women are typically treated as a contentious issue between the parties Only recently are scholars beginning to take seriously these women s contributions and interpretations as active participants in the struggle Anatomy of a Schism is the first book on the Southern Baptist split to place ordained women s narratives at the center of interpretation Author Eileen Campbell Reed brings her unique perspective as a pastoral theologian in conducting qualitative interviews with five Baptist clergywomen and allowing their narratives to focus attention on both psychological and theological issues of the split The stories she uncovers offer a compelling new structure for understanding the path of Southern Baptists at the close of the twentieth century The narratives of Anna Martha Joanna Rebecca and Chloe reframe the story of Southern Baptists and reinterpret the rupture and realignment in broad and significant ways Together they offer an understanding of the schism from three interdisciplinary perspectives gendered psychological and theological not previously available together In conversation with other historical events and documents the women s narratives collaborate to provide specific perspectives with universal implications for understanding changes in Baptist life over the last four decades The schism s outcomes held profound consequences for Baptist individuals and communities Anatomy of Schism is an illuminating ethnographic and qualitative study sure to be indispensable to scholars of theology history and women s studies alike

EILEEN R CAMPBELL REED is associate professor of practical theology at Central Baptist Theological Seminary in Nashville Tennessee and codirector of the Learning Pastoral Imagination Project a longitudinal study of ministry She is the author of Being Baptist A Resource for Individual and Group Study and numerous articles about women in ministry

Reframing Trauma M. Jan Holton, Jill L. Snodgrass, 2025 As awareness of the widespread presence of trauma grows popular culture can name everything stressful traumatic Yet diagnostic definitions of trauma overlook cultural understandings that refine our conceptualization of trauma M Jan Holton and Jill L Snodgrass argue for a theory and theology of trauma to navigate such complexities In Reframing Trauma Holton and Snodgrass compile essays that expand our understanding of trauma as a stress trauma continuum The volume engages the challenges of racism eco violence and myriad sociopolitical and interpersonal injustices that injure individuals communities and the globe Each essay is grounded in a strength based approach to trauma and contextualizes our societal negativity bias within spiritual values of hope growth and resilience Meanwhile the understanding of a trauma stress continuum avoids diminishing the suffering that emerges from stress and trauma of all kinds Holton and Snodgrass also offer a reframed theology of trauma The volume mines Christian theology and wisdom from other faith traditions for insight into interpersonal and communal woundedness that paradoxically both expands and narrows our understandings of trauma This exploration helps identify implications for spiritually integrated care and counseling chaplaincy and pastoral education The result is a groundbreaking understanding of stress and trauma as an ever evolving concept that is imbued with theological and spiritual wisdom Such wisdom eschews the limitations of Western understandings of trauma This wisdom offers insight into how stressful and traumatic experiences can be both life limiting and life giving both despair inducing and the impetus for growth and resilience Reframing Trauma will engage educators in pastoral and practical theology spirituality and psychology care practitioners in congregational and healthcare settings and clinical mental health professionals who offer spiritually integrated care Likewise trained Christian laity will find the book an invaluable resource for cultivating an inclusive and meaningful understanding of trauma in their congregational caregiving

Bound to Sin Alistair McFadyen, 2000-08-15 This book tests the explanatory and descriptive power of the doctrine of sin in relation to two concrete situations sexual abuse of children and the holocaust Taking seriously the explanatory power of secular discourses for analysing and regulating therapeutic action in relation to such situations the book asks whether the theological language of sin can offer further illumination by speaking of God and the world together Through its discussion of abuse and the holocaust an engagement with Augustine original sin and feminism a fresh and sometimes surprising perspective is offered both on the theology of sin and on the pathologies under consideration The understanding of sin that emerges is centred on joyful worship of the trinitarian God This essay is more systematic and more theological than most practical pastoral or applied theology and more practical and concrete than most systematic or constructive theology It is a genuinely concrete systematic theology
