Effective Assessment and the Improvement of Education Roger Murphy, Desmond L. Nuttall, Patricia Broadfoot, 1995
Presents a collection of articles by Desmond Nuttall a major figure in the field of educational research who died in 1993 The articles cover educational assessment examination educational indicators management and leadership and are introduced contextualised and summarised by the authors Effective Assessment and the Improvement of Education Patricia Broadfoot, Roger Murphy, 1995 Effective Assessment and the Improvement of Education Roger Murphy, Patricia Broadfoot, 2017-09-29 Originally published in 1995 this volume brings together twenty classic contributions from the work of Desmond Nuttall as an educational researcher thinker and policy adviser A full commentary by two of his former colleagues who knew him well accompanies the text They have set out to explain and explore the essence of his contribution to others Much in the book is as relevant today as when the articles were written put together they form a formidable collection The book was published in the year after Desmond s death It is hoped it will remain a fitting tribute to him It will remind his friends of his classic ideas and brings together in one volume contributions that students of education may have missed

Inside the Primary Classroom: 20 Years On Chris Comber, Maurice Galton, Linda Hargreaves, Debbie Wall, 2013-01-11 In recent years primary education has been the subject of continuing debate with questions of standards and their apparent decline being raised with alarming regularity Central in informing these debates has been the ORACLE study of groupwork in primary classrooms Published during the 1980s the study described in detail the daily life of the primary classroom the teaching styles used by teachers and the responses of pupils That research has now been replicated with over two thirds of the schools originally studied being revisited using the same tests and observation instruments This book presents the findings of this second round of research and is therefore unique in being able authoritatively to document the changes or lack of them in primary education and teaching practice over the last twenty years Realism and Educational Research David Scott, 2002-01-04 Although the literature of social research covers a vast range of material there has been little on the role of social theory in educational research In this respect David Scott s book covers an important gap in the market as it focuses on the centrality of social theory in a variety of empirical projects The volume covers a range of conceptual and theoretical discussions and subsequently applies these concepts to our analysis of empirical studies As a consequence it is a volume that deserves to be read widely by students and researchers alike A Challenge for Mathematics Education, 2004-06-17 Fruto de un encuentro celebrado en Vilanova i la Geltrú España en julio de 2002 el libro que presentamos hoy trata uno de los temas de gran importancia para la reflexión pedagógica actual el papel de la globalización vehiculado por lo sugerente de lo común y de lo diverso en educación matemática y sus desafíos Issues in Design and Technology Teaching Bob Barnes, Su Sayers, James William Morley, Jim Morley, Robert Barnes, 2002 Series edited by Susan Capel Jon Davison James Arthur and John Moss Education Policy and Contemporary Politics Jack Demaine, 2016-01-03 Education policy is at the very top of the political agenda the proclaimed top priority of the New Labour government Yet Labour has inherited a quasi market education system and remains under the direction of reform during the coming year This book examines new directions on issues of selection and educational opportunity gender and racism and the question of school effectiveness and school improvements The politics for the National Curriculum and its assessment are explored alongside issues of lifelong learning and IT policy The book explores the key questions of the future reform of education in contemporary Britain with contributions from the leading experts in education education policy politics and sociology

A Century of Education Richard Aldrich, 2002-11-01 Education is a country's biggest business and the most important shared experience of those who live in it A Century of Education provides an accessible authoritative and fascinating overview of the role and nature of education in the twentieth century Eminent historian of education Professor Richard Aldrich has assembled a team of contributors all noted experts in their respective fields to review the successes and failures of education in the last century and to look forward to the next A succinct overview of twentieth century social economic political and intellectual developments in the first chapter is followed by chapters on ten key topics Each chapter has four sections a review of the educational situation in 2000 a similar assessment in 1900 changes and continuities throughout the century and a conclusion reviewing the lessons for today and tomorrow This is a work of information interpretation and reference which demonstrates the strengths and weaknesses of education during the twentieth century and identifies educational priorities for the twenty first For anyone interested in what has become the most important Issue of our time this unique book is set to become a classic text

Teachers and Schooling Making A Difference Pam Christie, Bob Lingard, 2020-08-04 Teachers Schooling Making a Difference takes seriously the question that teachers ask What do I do on Monday and does provide answers From the foreword by Professor Michael Apple University of Wisconsin Education debates are currently dominated by free market ideologists who push privatisation and competition as the answer to every problem regardless of damage to schools and pupils Teachers Schooling Making a Difference shows that we can think about education in a far more productive way Professor R W Connell University of Sydney This book is a lesson in making hope practical It makes a compelling argument for recognising supporting and enabling teachers as central to progressive school reform Professor Jenny Ozga University of Edinburgh What teachers do in the classroom really matters even though schools cannot compensate fully for difficulties children may face at home and in society Good teachers and good schools have been making a difference in children's lives for generations but what exactly is it that works Based on extensive research in 1000 primary and secondary classrooms this book examines the tough questions about teaching methods curriculum assessment and teachers professionalism The authors isolate the key elements that make the difference in the classroom and offer teachers practical approaches to working with all their students Teachers and Schools Making a Difference is essential reading for teachers and school administrators who want to improve their professional skills and offer a genuinely democratic education
