Criminals, Nazis, and Islamists Vera Mironova, 2023 In Criminals Nazis and Islamists Vera Mironova examines conflicts and cooperation between inmates in male prisons in the former Soviet Union She begins by focusing on the earliest prisoner groups in particular the Vory criminal organization which began in the 1930s The Vory were able to develop rules norms and unique criminal ideology to ensure their monopoly in prison internal governance Not only did they establish control over inmates the Vory also successfully stood up against prison authorities to make inmates life behind bars as comfortable as possible and as a consequence ensured its own survival in power Mironova also explains how the Vory uses different methods from strikes to bloody riots to put pressure on prison leadership The fall of Soviet Union in 1990 saw an explosion of entrepreneurial criminal organizations and the Vory started losing their grip on prisons This book reviews how Islamists Neo Nazis and other major organizations behind bars across the former Soviet Union are currently challenging the Vory and what happens when they take power inside particular prisons and have to govern themselves By focusing on the margins of Russian life Mironova offers a unique perspective on the social transformations impacting both the USSR and the post Soviet space from the 1930s to the Putin era

The American Prison

Francis T. Cullen, Cheryl Lero Jonson, Mary K. Stohr, 2013-04-11 For the first time in four decades prison populations are declining and politicians have reached the consensus that mass imprisonment is no longer sustainable At this unique moment in the history of corrections the opportunity has emerged to discuss in meaningful ways how best to shape efforts to control crime and to intervene effectively with offenders This breakthrough book brings together established correctional scholars to imagine what this prison future might entail Each scholar uses his or her expertise to craft in an accessible way for students to read a blueprint for how to create a new penology along a particular theme For example one contributor writes about how to use existing research expertise to create a prison that is therapeutic and another provides insight on how to create a feminist prison In the final chapter the editors pull together the lessons learned in a cohesive comprehensive essay The SAGE Encyclopedia of Criminal Psychology Robert D. Morgan, 2019-04-25 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Criminal Psychology will be a modern interdisciplinary resource aimed at students and professionals interested in the intersection of psychology e g social forensic clinical criminal justice sociology and criminology The interdisciplinary study of human behavior in legal contexts includes numerous topics on criminal behavior criminal justice policies and legal process crime detection and prevention eyewitness identification prison life offender assessment and rehabilitation risk assessment and management offender mental health community reintegration and juvenile offending The study of these topics has been increasing continually since the late 1800s with people trained in many legal professions such as policing social work law academia mental health and corrections This will be a comprehensive work that will provide the most current empirical information on those topics of greatest concern to students who desire to work in these fields This encyclopedia is a unique reference work that looks at criminal behavior primarily through a scientific lens With over 500 entries the book brings together top empirically driven researchers and clinicians across multiple fields psychology criminology social work and sociology to explore the field Discretion, Community, and Correctional Ethics John Kleinig, Margaret Leland Smith, 2001 Is it possible to develop and instill a professional ethic for prison personnel that in partnership with formal regulatory constraints will mediate relations among officers staff and inmates or are the failures of imprisonment as an ethically constrained institution so deeply etched into its structure that no professional ethic is possible The contributors to this volume struggle with this central question and its broader and narrower ramifications NIJ Catalog , 1991 Contains information on criminal justice publications and other materials available from NIJ s information clearinghouse the National Criminal Justice Reference Service NCJRS and other sources Correctional Leadership Stan Stojkovic, 2003 Images of Incarceration David Wilson, Sean O'Sullivan, 2004-02-29 Part of the Prison Film Project sponsored by the Esme Fairbairn Foundation under its Rethinking Crime and Punishment initiative this title compares fictional representations with actual existing reality to provide insights into how screen images affect understanding of complex social and penal issues Do viewers separate fact from fiction Correctional Organization and Management Robert M.
