wrong has no delusions in the ever changing world of life because of always remaining in the original nature Everything in the world is like a bubble that rises and falls in an instant without any trace in mind There is no coming and going no tracks of steps no bondage at all like water wind and cloud That is the man of great freedom The man of great freedom

Individualism and the Rise of Egosystems Matteo Pietropaoli, 2023-03-15 This book is a socio philosophical journey across several aspects of our society's focus on individual freedom taking cues from some of the most prominent thinkers of our time The author posits that the human quest for freedom mostly dominated by the Western culture but by no means confined to the West has reached its ultimate paradox of making contemporary humans fundamentally unable to act as ecosystems thus cooperate and collaborate They have become egosystems completely centred on the attainment of their own individual satisfaction The author sees this as the culmination of a rightful quest for self affirmation which has been a key driver of progress across human history and by no means a negative one But the paradox is that such a human centred notion of freedom and individual accomplishment results in a much reduced ability to operate in sync with others at the time when mankind would need more cooperation collaboration and selflessness to address the key challenges it faces from climate change to inequalities Through the examination of the broad and interdisciplinary themes typical of social philosophy and the most recent cultural studies in direct confrontation with the thought of authors such as Lipovetsky and Bauman Lasch and Beck Ehrenberg and Han this book examines shifts in cultural norms at the possible end of a millenary civilization
