A.I.D. Research and Development Abstracts, 1977 Locked Out of Development Steffen Hertog, 2023-01-19 This Element argues that the low dynamism of low to mid income Arab economies is explained with a set of inter connected factors constituting a segmented market economy These include an over committed and interventionist state with limited fiscal and institutional resources deep insider outsider divides among firms and workers that result from and reinforce wide ranging state intervention and an equilibrium of low skills and low productivity that results from and reinforces insider outsider divides These mutually reinforcing features undermine encompassing cooperation between state business and labor While some of these features are generic to developing countries others are regionally specific including the relative importance and historical ambition of the state in the economy and closely related the relative size and rigidity of the insider coalitions created through government intervention Insiders and outsiders exist everywhere but the divisions are particularly stark immovable and consequential in the Arab world      The Next Arab Decade Hisham Sharabi,2019-07-11 This book is concerned with defining the nature of the crisis of the Arab world with tracing its possible development and with charting the conditions of its possible outcomes addressing the next decade from the vantage of 1986 rather than that of 1985      The Egyptian Economy, 1952-2000 Khalid Ikram,2007-04-11 Interviews with former Prime Ministers and Cabinet Ministers along with previously unpublished analysis by the World Bank IMF and USAID provide entertaining and interesting insights into Egypt s economic development policy during 1952 to 2000 Areas addressed include the performance of the Egyptian economy since 1950s the factors that have facilitated or retarded economic performance the Egyptian authorities approach to economic issues and policy making the chief questions that policy makers will have to deal with in the next twenty years Set apart by Khalid Ikram s intimate knowledge of the Egyptian policy makers this book presents a unique account of economic development and policy making in Egypt during 1952 to 2000      Foreign Publications Accessions List United States.
