thoughts from the finest minds in history Ranging from the ancient wisdom of Confucius and Plato to today's cutting edge thinkers it offers a wealth of stimulation and amusement for everyone with a curious mind Front jacket flap The Ethics of Resistance Drew M. Dalton, 2018-08-23 Opening a new debate on ethical reasoning after Kant Drew Dalton addresses the problem of the absolute in ethical and political thought Attacking the foundation of European philosophical morality he critiques the idea that in order for ethical judgement to have any real power it must attempt to discover and affirm some conception of the absolute good Without rejecting the essential role the absolute plays within ethical reasoning Dalton interrogates the assumed value of the absolute Dalton brings some of the most influential contemporary philosophical traditions into dialogue with each other speculative realists like Badiou and Meillassoux phenomenologists including Husserl Heidegger and Levinas German Idealists especially Kant and Schelling psychoanalysts Freud and Lacan and finally post structuralists specifically Foucault Deleuze and Ranciere The relevance of these thinkers to concrete socio political problems is shown through reflections on the Holocaust suicide bombings the rise of neo liberalism and neo nationalism as well as rampant consumerism and racism This book re defines ethical reasoning as that which refuses absolutes and resists what Milton's devil in Paradise Lost called the tyranny of heaven Against traditional ethical reasoning Dalton sees evil not as a moral failure but as the result of an all too easy assent to the absolute an assent which can only be countered through active resistance For Dalton resistance to the absolute is the sole channel through which the good can be defined Artificial Intelligence Jason C. Robinson, 2025-06-28 This thought provoking book explores the most promising and threatening technology imaginable artificial intelligence AI or thinking machines Following the shocking release of generative AI ChatGPT in 2022 questions about the future of humanity and our role as apex minds have exploded with great urgency The book contributes uniquely to AI conversations in three main ways First it broaches questions often ignored by AI developers and tech enthusiasts including corporate responsibility and the role technology plays in the widespread manipulation of cultures for profit and power Second it asks big and unanswered questions about the nature of thinking consciousness morality purpose and the good life as a means of laying the foundation needed to create a better AI Third by framing AI evolution in three unique stages of development Oz Feallan and Adouren it takes readers far beyond the present horizon of large language models While being accessible to a wide audience this book offers a thought provoking examination of the most pressing questions and risks of AI Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable. Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding. This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos. Essays consider the uses of various visual media, aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust: the uses of perpetrator photography, the role of trauma in memory, aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann, Celan and others, and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust. David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University. Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D. Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College.

Perpetrators of International Crimes Alette Smeulders, Maartje Weerdesteijn, Barbora Holá, 2019-02-07 Why would anyone commit a mass atrocity such as genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes or terrorism? This question is at the core of the multi and interdisciplinary field of perpetrator studies, a developing field which this book assesses in its full breadth for the first time. Perpetrators of International Crimes analyses the most prominent theories, methods and evidence to determine what we know, what we think we know, as well as the ethical implications of gathering this knowledge. It traces the development of perpetrator studies whilst pushing the boundaries of this emerging field. The book includes contributions from experts from a wide array of disciplines including criminology, history, law, sociology, psychology, political science, religious studies and anthropology. They cover numerous case studies including prominent ones such as Nazi Germany, Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia, but also those that are relatively under researched and more recent such as Sri Lanka and the Islamic State. These have been investigated through various research methods including but not limited to trial observations and interviews.

Hannah Arendt and the Meaning of Politics Craig J. Calhoun, John McGowan, 1997 Is politics really nothing more than power relations, competing interests and claims for recognition, conflicting assertions of simple truths? No thinker has argued more passionately against this narrow view than Hannah Arendt, and no one has more to say to those who bring questions of meaning, identity, value and transcendence to our impoverished public life. This volume brings leading figures in philosophy, political theory, intellectual history and literary theory into a dialogue about Arendt's work and its significance for today's fractious identity politics, public ethics and civic life. For each essay on the fate of politics in a postmodern, post-Marxist era, on the connection of nonfoundationalist ethics and epistemology to democracy, on the conditions conducive to a vital public sphere, on the recalcitrant problems of violence and evil, the volume includes extended responses and a concluding essay by Martin Jay responding to all the others. Ranging from feminism to aesthetics to the discourse of democracy, the essays explore how an encounter with Arendt reconfigures, disrupts and revitalizes what passes for public debate in our day. Together they forcefully demonstrate the power of Arendt's work as a splendid provocation and a living resource.

The Good Muslim Mona Siddiqui, 2012-06-11 In this thought-provoking book, Mona Siddiqui reflects upon key themes in Islamic law and theology.

These themes which range through discussions about friendship divorce drunkenness love slavery and ritual slaughter offer fascinating insights into Islamic ethics and the way in which arguments developed in medieval juristic discourse These pre modern religious works contained a richness of thought hesitation and speculation on a wide range of topics which were socially relevant but also presented intellectual challenges to the scholars for whom God s revelation could be understood in diverse ways These subjects remain relevant today for practicing Muslims and scholars of Islamic law and religious studies Mona Siddiqui is an astute and articulate interpreter who relays complex ideas about the Islamic tradition with great clarity These are important attributes for a book which charts the authors own journey through the classical texts and reflects upon how the principles expounded there have guided her own thinking and impacted her teaching and research The Anthem

Curley, 2013-12-03 An important new look at Cold War art on both sides of the Atlantic CALLING BACK THE GHOST OF REVOLUTION Rong Jian, 2022-11-24 At a time when China is once again facing a major turning point in its direction I firmly believe that my academic dispute with Wang Hui is in no way a personal or left right dispute Wang Hui s grand narrative about the Chinese revolution and the Chinese century is meant to provide a new legitimate basis for one party to rule forever to place world history in the value system of the Chinese revolution and to shape the Chinese revolution and its regime into the ultimate source and ultimate judge of universal justice in the world There is no doubt that Wang Hui s new theoretical proposition is not only far from the basic idea of liberalism but also far from the political democratic position that the Western left wing tradition has always insisted on Since liberal scholars have automatically given up head on confrontation with Wang Hui it is time to end Wang Hui s theories which have never been subjected to comprehensive and systematic academic criticism in China s intellectual and intellectual spheres for nearly thirty years Therefore at such a time it would be an unforgivable dereliction of duty for liberals to fail to take the initiative as Raymond Aron did to undertake the historical mission of criticizing barbaric ideologies totalitarianism and statism and to hold fast to the basic virtues given to intellectuals by providence As Arendt said the storm of ideas is not characterized by knowledge but by the ability to distinguish good from evil beauty from ugliness And this may indeed prevent disaster in that rare moment of crisis

Decolonizing Enlightenment Nikita Dhawan, 2014-04-24 Do norms of justice human rights and democracy enable disenfranchised communities Or do they simply reinforce relations of domination between those who are constituted as dispensers of justice rights and aid and those who are coded as receivers Critical race theorists feminists and queer and postcolonial theorists confront these questions and offer critical perspectives Allen Dulles, the OSS, and Nazi War Criminals Kerstin von Lingen,2013-09-30 Kerstin von Lingen shows how Nazi SS General Karl Wolff avoided war crimes prosecution because of his role in Operation Sunrise negotiations conducted by high ranking American Swiss and British officials in violation of the Casablanca agreements with the Soviet Union for the surrender of German forces in Italy Von Lingen suggests that the Cold War started already with Operation Sunrise and helps us understand rollback operations thereafter one was the failure of justice and selective prosecution for high ranking Nazi criminals The Western Allies not only failed to ensure cooperation between their respective national war crimes prosecution organizations but in certain cases even obstructed justice by withholding evidence from the prosecution
