Lawhon,1979 This work is the late author s manuscript abridged and edited by M L Lawhon It follows his earlier volume of similar title for the years 1671 1737 continuing that study through the remainder of the eighteenth century In addition to Sheridan s Critic the book treats little known plays of the lesser playwrights of the period Illustrated Twelve Famous Plays of the Restoration and Eighteenth Century,1933 Donated by Sydney Harris Twelve Famous Plays of the Restoration and Eighteenth Century Plays,1949 Congreve's Plays on the Eighteenth-century Stage Emmett L. Avery,1957 Eighteenth-Century Authorship and the Play of Fiction Emily Hodgson Anderson,2009-05-15 This study looks at developments in eighteenth century drama that influenced the rise of the novel it begins by asking why women writers of this period experimented so frequently with both novels and plays Here Eliza Haywood Frances Burney Elizabeth Inchbald Maria Edgeworth and Jane Austen explore theatrical frames from the playhouse to the social conventions of masquerade to the fictional frame of the novel itself that encourage audiences to dismiss what they contain as feigned Yet such frames also as a result create a safe space for self expression These authors explore such payoffs both within their work through descriptions of heroines who disguise themselves to express themselves and through it Reading the act of authorship as itself a form of performance Anderson contextualizes the convention of fictionality that accompanied the development of the novel she notes that as the novel like the theater of the earlier eighteenth century came to highlight its fabricated nature authors could use it as a covert yet cathartic space Fiction for these authors like theatrical performance for the actor thus functions as an act of both disclosure and disguise or finally presents self expression as the ability to oscillate between the two in the play of fiction
