Figures of Memory Zsolt Komaromy, 2011-04-01 Zsolt Komaromy's Figures of Memory: From the Muses to Eighteenth Century British Aesthetics affects a rapprochement between memory studies and eighteenth century British aesthetics It argues that the assessment of memory in the history of aesthetics and criticism has been determined by the ideological import of the creative imagination based on the dichotomies of imitative versus creative or reproductive versus productive mental and artistic procedures The legacy of such an opposition can still be felt in the way the literary relevance of memory is based on either viewing it as a representational reproductive imitative power that is a counter term to the creative sense of the imagination or as a constructive productive creative power that is assimilated by the creative imagination The notion of memory however harbors problems that unsettle such dichotomies This book does the timely work of employing insights offered by memory studies in reconsidering memory in the history of aesthetics it suggests that memory's literary relevance is explained precisely by the problems that make it resistant to the reproductive productive opposition These problems are explored through various figures representing senses of memory such as the Muses or metaphors for memory in philosophical and critical discourse Tracing figures of memory from the Muses through Plato and Descartes to works by Pope Addison Gerard and Kames Kom romy reveals an undercurrent of thought in eighteenth century British aesthetics that questions memory's nominal opposition to the imagination and that exploits memory's simultaneously reproductive and constructive nature in the emerging theory of the imagination By thus claiming that the tradition of memory's literary relevance is not marginalized but in fact perpetuated in eighteenth century British critical thought Figures of Memory gives a powerful new perspective on the history of memory in aesthetics and criticism A theoretical work with claims for historical generalization Figures of Memory will appeal to those interested in the history of aesthetics and criticism in memory studies in literary theory to students of literature and memory of literature and psychology and to scholars of the eighteenth century with theoretical interests

The Invention of Northern Aesthetics in 18th-Century English Literature Yvonne Bezrucka, 2018-06-11 Free romantic and individualistic Britain's self image in the eighteenth century constructs itself in opposition to the dominant power of a southern European aesthetics Offering a fresh understanding of how the British intelligentsia created a Northern aesthetics to challenge the European yoke this book explores the roots of British Romanticism and a newly created past Literature the arts architecture and gardening all contributed to the creation of this national enlightened Northern cultural environment with its emphasis on a home grown legal tradition on a heroic Celtic past and on the imagined democracy of King Arthur and his Roundtable of Knights as a prophetic precursor of Constitutional Monarchy Set against the European Grand Tour the British turned to the Domestic Picturesque Anti Grand Tour and alongside a classical literary heritage championed British authors and British empiricism against continental religion that sanctioned an authoritarian politics that the Gothic Novel mocks However if empiricism and common law were vital to this emerging tradition so too was the other driving force of Britain's medieval inheritance the fantasy world of mythic heroes and a celebration of what would come to be known as the fairy way of writing
