Dunbar, George S. May, 1995-09-05 This standard textbook on Michigan history covers the entire scope of the Wolverine State s historical record from when humankind first arrived in the area around 9 000 B C up to 1995 This third revised edition of Michigan also examines events since 1980 and draws on new studies to expand and improve its coverage of various ethnic groups recent political developments labor and business and many other topics Includes photographs maps and charts 100 Years of Vintage Farm Tractors Michael Dregni, This tribute to 100 years of vintage farm tractors is for all those who get it those who appreciate the lines of a recently restored tractor glistening in the sun those who get goosebumps at the distinctive sounds of the famous Poppin Johnnies those who plan their budgets and days around the careful restoration of that Minne Mo or Farmall Estranging the Familiar George Douglas Atkins, 1992 In Estranging the Familiar G Douglas Atkins addresses the often lamented state of scholarly and critical writing as he argues for a criticism that is at once theoretically informed and personal The revitalized critical writing he advocates may entail but is not limited to a return to the essay the form critical writing once took and the form that is now enjoying a resurgence of popularity and excellence Atkins contends that to reach a general audience criticism must move away from the impersonality of modern criticism and contemporary theory without embracing the old fashioned essay The venerable familiar essay may remain the basis Atkins writes but its conventional openness receptivity and capaciousness must extend to theory philosophy and the candor that seems to mark the tail end of the twentieth century In noting the timeliness if not the necessity of a return to the essay Atkins also considers our culture s parallel return to the personal When the essay combines good writing with the concerns of the personal Atkins says it becomes a form of criticism that is readable vital and potentially attractive to a large readership Atkins hopes critics will tap into the revitalized interest the essay now enjoys without ignoring the considerable insights and advances of contemporary theory He argues that despite claims to the contrary there is no inherent incompatibility between the essay and modern theory As Atkins considers various experiments in critical writing from Plato to the present notably feminist interest in the personal and autobiographical he contends that these attempts although undeniably important fall short of the desired goal when they emphasize the merely expressive and neglect the artful quality good writing can bring to personal criticism The final third of the book consists of a series of experiments in critical writing that represent the author's own attempts to bridge the gap between theory and popular criticism between an academic and a general audience In essays that illustrate the rhetorical power of the form Atkins describes the reciprocal relationship between his life experience and a reading of The Odyssey explains the role that theory has played in his personal development and chronicles his attempts to find a voice as a writer

From Pioneering to Persevering Paul Salstrom, 2007 Indiana's pioneers came to southern Indiana to turn the dream of an America based on family farming into a reality The golden age prior to the Civil War led to a post War preserving of the independent family farmer Salstrom examines this independence and finds the label to be less than adequate Hoosier farming was an interdependent activity leading to a society of borrowing and loaning When people talk about supporting family farming as Salstrom notes the issue is a societal one with a greater population involved than just the farmers themselves

Writing the Land Daniel G. Payne, 2009-05-05 At the time of his death in 1921 John Burroughs 1837-1921 was America's most beloved nature writer a best selling author whose friends and admirers included Walt Whitman Theodore Roosevelt John Muir Henry Ford and Thomas Edison Burroughs was second only to Emerson in fostering the nature study movement of the nineteenth century and the popularity of his work inspired Houghton Mifflin to publish or reissue the work of numerous other nature writers including that of Thoreau and Muir His first collection of essays Wake Robin was published in 1871 and over the next fifty years Burroughs wrote almost two dozen books and hundreds of essays not only on nature but on literature travel philosophy religion and science By the turn of the century Burroughs was America's most beloved nature writer whose friends and admirers included Walt Whitman Theodore Roosevelt John Muir Henry Ford and Thomas Edison Burroughs died in 1921 while on a train ride back to his New York from California His final words Are we home yet were a remarkably fitting coda to the career of a writer so closely identified with his native Catskill region of New York State In many of his essays Burroughs explores the woods and fields of home and in doing so like Henry Thoreau and his explorations of Concord Massachusetts he transcends the local and examines the universal theme of our relation with nature and our native landscape Burroughs's emphasis on place and the local now seems modern once again as the current interest in bioregionalism and climate change demonstrates it has become increasingly evident that thinking locally is thinking globally Since 1992 the SUNY College at Oneonta has hosted the biannual John Burroughs Nature Conference and Seminar Sharp Eyes which honors the influence of Burroughs on American nature writing Distinguished keynote speakers who have addressed the conference include John Elder John Tallmadge Joy Harjo Robin Wall Kimmerer Edward Kanze James Perrin Warren and Edward J. Renahan Jr The scope of the conference is not limited solely to Burroughs however as each year the writers and scholars in attendance direct their attention toward a particular issue of significance to contemporary nature writers and scholars of environmental literature The theme of this collection Writing the Land John Burroughs and his Legacy was featured in the 2006 conference and includes essays on John Burroughs as well as essays on the work of other writers who like Burroughs are linked closely through their work to a particular landscape or region The third and final section of this book features invited essays by three distinguished scholars John Tallmadge Robert Beuka and Charlotte Zo Walker who consider the topic of what writing about the land and nature means from three different perspectives urban suburban and rural

Law and Class in America Paul Carrington, Trina Jones, 2006-06 In Law and Class in America a group of leading legal scholars reflect on the state of the law from the end of the Cold War to the present grappling with a central question posed to them by Paul D Carrington and Trina Jones have recent legal reforms exacerbated class differences in America In a substantive introduction Carrington and Jones assert that legal changes from the late 20th century onward have been increasingly elitist and unconcerned with the lives of poor people having little access to the legal system Contributors use this position as a springboard to review developments in their own particular fields and to assess whether or not legal decisions and processes have contributed to a widening gap between privileged and unprivileged people in this country From antitrust and bankruptcy to tax and election law the essays in this unique volume invite readers to reflect thoughtfully on socio economic justice in the new century and suggest that a lack of progressive reform in all areas of law may herald a form of undiagnosed class dominance reminiscent of America s Gilded Age Contributors Margaret A Berger M Gregg Bloche David L Callies Paul D Carrington Paul Y K Castle Lance Compa James D Cox Paula A Franzese Marc Galanter Julius G Getman Lawrence O Gostin Joel F Handler Trina Jones Thomas E Kauper Sanford Levinson John Linehan Joseph D McNamara Burt Neuborne Jeffrey O Connell Judith Resnik Richard L Schmalbeck Danielle Sarah Seiden Richard E Speidel Gerald Torres David M Trubek Elizabeth Warren and Lawrence A Zelenak
