Elements of a Critical Theory of Justice Gustavo Pereira,2013-03-18 The capacity to take part in dialogues and justify one's positions constitutes the normative core of critical social justice Ensuring this capacity to every citizen is the main objective of justice which requires transforming social structures and relations as well as counteracting the effects of capitalist dynamics

The Dialectic of Herbert Marcuse Patrick Gamsby,2024-09-05 Herbert Marcuse 1898 1979 was one of the most recognizable and controversial public intellectuals throughout the 1960s until his death in the late 1970s but today Marcuse's work largely stands in the shadows of other Frankfurt School members and critical thinkers Despite having once held a prominent and influential position amongst scholars activists and readers in the twentieth century it is argued that Marcuse's work nevertheless remains largely misunderstood The Dialectic of Herbert Marcuse offers a new interpretation of Marcuse one that attempts to show how Marcuse's work has so often been turned into something else into its opposite In shining a light on parts of the unknown Marcuse through the use of archival material and published works this book reveals Marcuse's Critical Theory to be one of hope not one of pessimism as it is so often portrayed to be Ultimately it is argued that Marcuse's Critical Theory remains a vital and important body of work for present day society and ought to be revisited

Social Work Practices Karen Healy,2000-01-28 Karen Healy profoundly challenges in the context of the postmodernity of late capitalism many of the assumptions upon which the critical tradition in social work has been founded This is a book which interrogates not only the emancipatory metanarratives of left perspectives from her position within the left but also questions many of the received ideas about her professional power and identity and about the kinds of social work practices necessary in order to continue to pursue welfare as an emancipatory project under transformed ideological and material circumstances This is a most significant contribution to the debates which confront social work worldwide at the present time

Peter Leonard McGill University Canada Cinemas of the Black Diaspora Michael T. Martin,1995 This is a study of the cinematic traditions and film practices in the black Diaspora With contributions by film scholars film critics and film makers from Europe North America and the Third World this diverse collection provides a critical reading of film making in the black Diaspora that challenges the assumptions of colonialist and ethnocentrist discourses about Third World Hollywood and European cinemas Cinemas of the Black Diaspora examines the impact on film making of Western culture capitalist production and distribution methods and colonialism and the continuing neo colonial status of the people and countries in which film making is practiced Organised in three parts the study first explores cinema in the black Diaspora along cultural and political lines analysing the works of a radical and aesthetically alternative cinema The book proceeds to group black cinemas by geographical sites including Africa the Caribbean and South America Europe and North America to provide global context for comparative and case study analyses Finally three important manifestoes document the political and economic concerns and counter hegemonic institutional organising efforts of black and Third World film makers from the 1970s to the early 1990s Cinemas of the Black Diaspora should serve as a valuable basic reference and research tool for the study of world cinema While celebrating the diversity innovativeness and fecundity of film making in different regions of the world this important collection also explicates the historical importance of film making as a cultural form and political practice Aesthetic Conflict and the Evolution of a Riot B. Marie Brady-Whitcanack,2011-02-24 The text is a hermeneutic and field theory analysis of events that occurred during the first of two doctoral degree programs at a major state university The study considers challenges to traditional curriculum in higher education and possible links to conflicts occurring at some major university campuses Contemporary Security Studies Alan Collins,2022 With unrivalled coverage of a wide range of issues from terrorism nuclear deterrence and the weapons trade to environmental security transnational crime and cyber security Contemporary Security Studies is the definitive cutting edge introduction to security studies Bringing together contributions from leading scholars it provides a student friendly guide to traditional and critical theoretical approaches as well as the most important contemporary issues that dominate the modern security field Whether you are exploring how politicians portrayed the Covid19 pandemic as a security issue or the role that popular culture plays in promoting peace a broad variety of real world case studies and examples throughout the text encourage you to question your preconceptions of security studies and to critically evaluate key approaches and ideas in the subject New to this Edition A new Chapter 13 on popular culture introduces you to this innovative approach to security studies exploring the role that it plays in shaping and understanding security related processes A revised Chapter 12 on securitization theory traces its emergence and evolution as a framework for analysis covering everything you need to know about its main concepts and criticisms Chapter 27 on transnational crime now includes coverage of the crime terror nexus the relationship between organized crime and the state and a case study focusing on Mexico Every chapter has been thoroughly updated to reflect current political issues and developments in world affairs such as the initial impact of the Covid 19 pandemic climate change and forced migration Book jacket Finance and Society in 21st Century China Junie T. Tong,2016-04-15 In this revealing book Junie Tong reflects on the role of banking and finance in China The author adopts a critical perspective that views the societal as well as economic functioning of banking and finance Finance and Society in 21st Century China considers how far the modern economy is disconnected from Chinese culture and history and the problems this separation may cause She questions the common assumption that China has outgrown its reliance on its Western counterparts The author believes that the country is still very much dependent on exports and foreign investments and any radical or rapid reduction in either would have serious adverse consequences for China s sustainable economic growth To provide a model for finance and society that integrates culture and economy Tong draws on the seminal work of Belgian economist banker and social commentator Bernard Lietaer who has focused on cultural forces and the future of money in the world generally Using representative case studies for illustration Tong applies Lietaer s work in a specifically Chinese context highlighting the need to root finance and enterprise in the rhythms and forces within Chinese culture to avoid future chaos and achieve socio economic stability in a country now so critical to global well being The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin,2019-11-12 The reference will discuss mass media around the world in their varied forms newspapers magazines radio television film books music websites and social media and will describe the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society Pragmatic Cosmopolitanism D. Bray,2016-04-30 Building on the work of philosopher John Dewey Bray develops an approach to transnational democracy called pragmatic cosmopolitanism He argues for an ideal of representative democracy that emphasizes the role of democratic leadership and the development of critical intelligence Capitalism, Alienation and Critique Asger Sørensen,2019-02-04 In Capitalism Alienation and Critique Asger Sørensen offers a wide ranging argument for the classical Critical Theory of the Frankfurt School thus endorsing the dialectical approach of the original founders Horkheimer Adorno Marcuse and criticizing suggested revisions of later generations Habermas Honneth Being situated within the horizon of the late 20th century Cultural Marxism the main issue is the critique of capitalism emphasizing experiences of injustice ideology and alienation and in particular exploring two fundamental subject matters within this horizon namely economy and dialectics Apart from in depth discussions of classical political economy and Hegelian dialectics the explorative and inclusive argument also takes issues with mile Durkheim s theory of value the general economy of Georges Bataille and the dialectics of Mao Zedong The volume is not lacking in solid demonstrations among else into how the evergrowing mathematization of political economy is covering up its deeply ideological violence which leaves out the problem of social and political justice Kristina Egumenovska Nordicum Mediterraneum Icelandic E Journal of Nordicum and Mediterranean Studies 15 1 2020 Please find a seminar on Asger S rensen s Capitalism Alienation and Critique here      Constitutionalism Justified Ester Herlin-Karnell,Matthias Klatt,Héctor A.
