A Mother in History Jean Stafford, 2021-05-04 Jean Stafford's unforgettable portrait of Marguerite Oswald the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald Curious about the influences and accidents and loves and antipathies and idiosyncrasies that shaped Lee Harvey Oswald the novelist and short story writer Jean Stafford spent nine hours interviewing Marguerite Oswald in May 1965 A Mother in History 1966 is the acerbic result an indelible portrait of a woman hungry for money fame and attention full of righteous self pity and relentless in professing her son's blamelessness Killing does not necessarily mean badness You find killing in some very fine homes for one reason or another Stafford's controversial profile elicited mixed reviews Newsweek praised it as a masterpiece of character study while Time called it the most abrasively unpleasant book in recent years and angry readers accused her of seeking to enthrone a wicked woman and demolish the sacred throne of motherhood It captures a moment in history when the trauma of Dallas was still raw Lee Harvey Oswald's guilt was widely accepted and Marguerite Oswald with her obsessive research into hidden truths and the machinations of an omnipresent they appeared to be a singular prisoner of maternal delusion and not a harbinger of the decades to come

Boston Adventure Jean Stafford, 2019-11-19 Twenty nine year old Jean Stafford made a bold entrance onto the American literary scene in 1944 when her first novel Boston Adventure became a surprise best seller its style inviting comparisons to James and Proust Sonia Marburg the protagonist of Boston Adventure grows up in the North Shore village of Chichester the daughter of an angry marriage between immigrant parents who remain outsiders in America Seeking to escape the material and spiritual impoverishment of her childhood Sonia looks across the bay at the State House dome in Boston for the promise of a richer life Her dreams seem to find fulfillment when she finds a position as secretary companion to Miss Lucy Pride a summer guest at the hotel where Sonia cleans rooms and moves into her Beacon Hill home Boston Adventure is a perceptive satire of upper class Boston society and a quicksilver portrait of a young woman trying to navigate a singular transit between very different worlds

The Interior Castle Ann Hulbert, 2013-10-09 An important moment in American literary history takes life in this stunning biography of Jean Stafford one of the most successful admired and troubled of the brilliant and influential midcentury circle of writers and critics that included Allen Tate Caroline Gordon Peter Taylor Delmore Schwartz Randall Jarrell and Robert Lowell Stafford's first husband Ann Hulbert shows us how Stafford raised in Colorado the daughter of a failed writer of Westerns came of literary age in the East yet fiercely maintained her connection with her provincial background forging the unique style that marked her highly acclaimed first novel Boston Adventure her Masterpiece The Mountain Lion her third novel The Catherine Wheel and the stories she published in The New Yorker and elsewhere which were honored in 1970 with a Pulitzer Prize We follow Stafford through the early experiences to which she returned again and again in her fiction and which helped shape her disenchanted vision her father's sudden loss of his fortune her shame as an adolescent living in a boardinghouse in Boulder run by her mother her aesthetic experimentation as a member of the intellectually maverick Barbarians at the University of Colorado her exciting but troubling Wanderjahr in Nazi Germany where she watched civilization crumbling We see her take her place as a forceful attractive witty yet also insecure woman among a group of spirited young writers who were learning from and challenging their older mentors the increasingly powerful Southern critics and the Partisan Review circle in New York With her marriage to Lowell at twenty four she embarked on a feverishly creative but ill fated course that held auguries of his and his fellow poets tragic paths she struggled with Catholicism confronted domestic violence battled with alcoholism and mental instability and throughout it all wrote formally impeccable fiction And we see her as she finds some happiness with her third husband the writer A J Liebling part of the New Yorker world that had become her home in the late 1940s Throughout we are made aware of Stafford's constant search for a bastion of order a safe place an escape from the unsettling sense of vulnerability that engulfed her an interior castle from which to approach her life and her art The Collected Stories of Jean Stafford

Jean Stafford, 2017-04-04 These Pulitzer Prize winning stories represent the major short works of fiction by one of the most distinctively American stylists of her day Jean Stafford communicates the small details of loneliness and connection the search for freedom and the desire to belong that not only illuminate whole lives but also convey with an elegant economy of words the sense of the place and time in which her protagonists find themselves The Collected Stories of Jean Stafford includes the acclaimed story An Influx of Poets which has never before appeared in book form Bad Characters Jean Stafford, 2024-05-01 This book displays at their height the wit sensibility and psychological penetration that distinguish Miss Stafford's work There are nine stories and a novella They range in mood from the title story a comic portrait of a resourceful child criminal named Lottie Jump to The End of a Career an elegiac and ironic tale of the declining years of a great beauty In A Reasonable Facsimile Dr Bohrmann a retired professor philosophy is unexpectedly rescued from an aggressively boring young house guest Cops and Robbers is a chilling story of childhood horror and lovelessness that revolves around a father's trip to the barber with his five year old daughter Several of the stories have as their common setting Miss Stafford's fiction town of Adams Colorado including an amusing saga of a girl's frustrated attempts to find a quiet spot to read A Reading Problem and two stories of failure In the Zoo and success The Liberation in the effort to escape from one's family Caveat Emptor is a satire on the academic life and sub life at the Alma Hettrick College for Girls and in The Captain's Gift the sheltered and lavender scented existence of old Mrs Ramsey is violated by the reality of war The major piece in Bad Characters is A Winter's Tale a haunting and evocative novella set in Heidelberg just before the outbreak of the war It is dominated by the diabolic character of Frau Professor Persis Galt This portrait of a former Bostonian who poses as an excessively devout convert is one of Miss Stafford's most brilliant fictional creations This collection by Jean Stafford will be warmly welcomed by the many and devoted admirers of her novels and stories To new readers the work of one of the best writers of our time will come as a joyful discovery      Twentieth Century American Literature Warren French,1980-11-01
