Schroeder, 2014-01-21 Schroeder offers a thorough introduction to the films of Tom's Gutierrez Alea Cuba's leading filmmaker covering all 12 of Alea's feature films and examining in depth his three best films within the context of revolutionary Cuba The Film Industry in Brazil Randal Johnson, 2010-11-23 Looking back through the prism of the severe economic crisis for filmmaking in the 1980s The Film Industry in Brazil explores the unusual relationship between the state supported industry which often produced politically radical films and the authoritarian regime that had held sway for twenty years To ground his analysis Johnson covers the early years of the film industry 1898 1930 attempts at industrialization during the 1930s and 1940s film industry congresses and government film boards 1950 1966 the National Film Institute 1966 1975 and the expansion of the state's role from 1969 through 1980 Well conceived carefully researched and documented Johnson's study fills a major gap in film studies by tracing the development of this industry in Brazil focusing specifically on its relationship to the state Directory of World Cinema: Brazil Louis Bayman, Natalia Pinazza, 2014-02-15 Best known to international audiences for its carnivalesque irreverence and recent gangster blockbusters Brazilian cinema is gaining prominence with critics at global film festivals and on DVD shelves This volume seeks to introduce newcomers to Brazilian cinema and to offer valuable insights to those already well versed in the topic It brings into sharp focus some of the most important movements genres and themes from across the eras of Brazilian cinema from cinema novo to musical chanchada the road movie to cinema de bordas avant garde to pornochanchada Delving deep beyond the surface of cinema the volume also addresses key themes such as gender indigenous and diasporic communities and Afro Brazilian identity Situating Brazilian cinema within the country's changing position in the global capitalist system the essays consider uneven modernization class division dictatorship liberation struggles and globalization alongside questions of entertainment and artistic innovation The Routledge Companion to Scenography Arnold

Aronson,2017-09-11 The Routledge Companion to Scenography is the largest and most comprehensive collection of original essays to survey the historical conceptual critical and theoretical aspects of this increasingly important aspect of theatre and performance studies Editor and leading scholar Arnold Aronson brings together a uniquely valuable anthology of texts especially commissioned from across the discipline of theatre and performance studies Establishing a stable terminology for a deeply contested term for the first time this volume looks at scenography as the totality of all the visual spatial and sensory aspects of performance Tracing a line from Aristotle s Poetics down to Brecht and Artaud and into contemporary immersive theatre and digital media The Routledge Companion to Scenography is a vital addition to every theatre library Work in Cinema E. Kerr,2013-12-18 Cinema frequently depicts various types of work but this representation is never straightforward It depends on and reflects many factors especially the place and time the film is made and the type of audience it addresses Here the contributors employ transnational and transhistorical perspectives to compare filmic depictions of work South American Cinema Timothy Barnard,Peter Rist,2010-06-28 Originally issued in hardcover in 1996 by Garland Publishing this important reference work is now available in paperback for a wider audience A distinguished team of contributors has compiled entries on 140 significant South American feature films from the silent era until 1994 The entries discuss each film s subject matter critical reception and social and political contexts as well as its production distribution and exhibition history including technical credits The entries are grouped by country and arranged chronologically Both fiction and documentary films some no longer in existence are included as well as extensive title name and subject indexes and glossaries of film and foreign terms A Century of Brazilian Documentary Film Darlene J. Sadlier,2022-08-16 Since the late nineteenth century Brazilians have turned to documentaries to explain their country to themselves and to the world In a magisterial history covering one hundred years of cinema Darlene J Sadlier identifies Brazilians unique contributions to a diverse genre while exploring how that genre has in turn contributed to the making and remaking of Brazil A Century of Brazilian Documentary Film is a comprehensive tour of feature and short films that have charted the social and political story of modern Brazil The Amazon appears repeatedly and vividly Sometimes as in a prize winning 1922 feature the rainforest is a galvanizing site of national pride at other times the Amazon has been a focus for land reform and Indigenous rights activists Other key documentary themes include Brazil s swings from democracy to dictatorship tensions between cosmopolitanism and rurality and shifting attitudes toward race and gender Sadlier also provides critical perspectives on aesthetics and media technology exploring how documentaries inspired dramatic depictions of poverty and migration in the country s Northeast and examining Brazilians participation in streaming platforms that have suddenly democratized filmmaking Cinema Novo x 5 Randal Johnson,2014-11-06 With such stunning films as Dona Flor and Her Two Husbands Bye Bye Brazil and Pixote Brazilian cinema achieved both critical acclaim and popular recognition in the 1970s and 1980s becoming the premier cinema of Latin America and one of the largest film producers in the western world But the success of Brazilian film at home and abroad came after many years of struggle by filmmakers determined to create a strong film industry in Brazil At the forefront of this struggle were the filmmakers of Cinema Novo the internationally acclaimed movement whose flowering in the 1960s marked the birth of modern Brazilian film Cinema Novo x 5 places the success of Brazilian cinema in perspective by examining the films of the five leaders of this groundbreaking movement Andrade Diegues Guerra Rocha and dos Santos By exploring the individuality of these masters of contemporary Brazilian film Randal Johnson reveals the astonishing stylistic and thematic diversity of Cinema Novo His emphasis is on the films themselves as well as their makers distinctive cinematic vision and views of what cinema should be and is At the same time he provides a wealth of valuable background information to enhance readers understanding of the historical cultural and economic context in which Cinema Novo was born and flourished
