A Standard History of Kansas and Kansans ,1919 The Making of the Conservative Party's Immigration Policy Rebecca Partos,2019-05-31 This book explains the development of the Conservative Party's immigration policy during the seven decades since 1945 up to today By bringing together existing theories from the fields of political science and migration studies this book offers a new model of party policy making which could be modified and tested in other contexts Grounded in rigorous scholarship but of interest to general readers as well as specialists and students this book provides a thoughtful and engaging account of the making of modern Britain The book draws on 30 interviews with figures who were at the heart of policy making from Kenneth Clarke and Douglas Hurd to Damian Green and Gavin Barwell to reveal that the national mood often has more impact on policy making than the empirics of the situation This book will be of key interest to scholars students and readers interested in British politics immigration and migration studies Conservative Party politics and more broadly public policy political parties and European and comparative politics Closet Queens Michael Bloch,2015-05-28

Closet Queens is a fascinating study of gay men in twentieth century British politics from Lord Rosebery and Lord Beauchamp in Edwardian times to Michael Portillo and Peter Mandelson in our own era As all homosexual activity was illegal until 1967 and exposure meant ruin and disgrace such men were obliged either to repress their sexual feelings or else lead double lives indulging their tastes secretly while respectably married with children The need to cover up their sexuality while causing problems and disappointments often sharpened their skills as politicians they were masters of secrecy and subterfuge and knew how to take calculated risks An entertaining and insightful account of some extraordinary personalities Closet Queens opens doors into a hidden world The Conservative Party and the Destruction of Selective Education in

Post-War Britain Piers Legh,2023-01-26 The book tells the untold story of the Conservative Party's involvement in terms of stance and policy in the destruction of selective state education from 1945 up to the present day Close consideration is paid to their attitudes and prejudices towards education both in power and in opposition Legh examines the Party's responses to the pressure for comprehensive schooling and egalitarianism from the Labour Party and the British left In doing so Legh defies current historiography to demonstrate that the Party were not passive actors in the advancement of comprehensive schooling The lively narrative is moved along by the author's critical examination of the Education Ministers throughout this period Florence Horsbrugh and David Eccles serving under Churchill and Eden and also Quintin Hogg and Geoffrey Lloyd under Macmillan as well as Edward Boyle and Margaret Thatcher under Edward Heath Legh's detailed research utilises a range of government documents personal papers parliamentary debates and newspapers to provide this crucial re assessment of the Conservative Party and selective education and in doing so questions over simplistic generalisations about wholesale support for selective education policy It reveals instead questioning compromises and disagreements within the Party and its political and ideological allies The result is a stimulating revival of existing scholarship which will be of interest to scholars of British education and politics History of Mendocino and Lake Counties, California Aurelius O.

Carpenter, Percy H. Millberry, 1914 Schooling and Social Change 1964-1990 Roy Lowe, 2002-01-04 This is the first book to offer an overview of the ways in which the sweeping social and economic changes of the modern period have impacted on the education system Roy Lowe draws on extensive research to paint a vivid picture of the ways in which schools and universities were moulded by external events and of the part they played in promoting modernisation of society The book explores some key themes the nature of the economic transformations taking place the growing awareness of gender issues the changing ethnic composition of modern Britain the bureaucratisation of society and the rise of a new politics Exploring the links between these issues and educational provision Lowe argues that the growing political significance of educational issues is largely explained by the critical part played by the education system in providing social and economic stability during these years of swift social change Roy Lowe is Professor of Education at the University of Wales Swansea Dod's Peerage, Baronetage and Knightage of Great Britain and Ireland, Including All the Titled Classes, 1904 Keith Joseph Andrew Denham, Mark Garnett, 2014-12-18 Hailed by Margaret Thatcher as the founder of modern conservatism Keith Joseph is commonly ranked among the most influential politicians of the late 20th century A complex and enigmatic figure Joseph was almost unique among Mrs Thatcher's senior ministers in refusing to write his own memoirs Challenging both the mad monk view held by his critics and his status of mythical hero to his admirers the authors present a picture of Joseph as a thinker and decision maker the authors tell of Joseph's formative years before he entered Parliament in 1956 the powerful Jewish dynasty into which Joseph was born his time at Harrow at Oxford his war years in the Royal Artillery and his Fellowship at All Souls This volume charts the political career of Keith Joseph The authors challenge Joseph's self-declared conversion to Conservatism in 1974 and the importance of his education of Margaret Thatcher His own ambition intellectual integrity and consistency are all examined and a different picture emerges of his role as the intellectual driving force behind Conservative Government policy in the 1980s A Digest of Law and Arbitration Cases Sidney Wright, 1903 The Estates Gazette Digest of Land and Property Cases, 1903 Contains cases reported in the issues of The Estate Gazette Margaret Thatcher: From Grantham to the Falklands Charles Moore, 2013-05-21 With unequalled authority and dramatic detail the first volume of Charles Moore's authorized biography of Margaret Thatcher reveals as never before the early life rise to power and initial period as prime minister of the woman who transformed Britain and the world in the late twentieth century Moore illuminates Thatcher's youth her relationship with her parents and early romantic attachments including her courtship and marriage to Denis Thatcher moving forward to the determination and boldness that marked even the very beginning of her political career His account of her political relationship with Ronald Reagan is riveting Throughout Moore explores in compelling detail the obstacles and indignities that Thatcher encountered as a woman in what was still overwhelmingly a man's world. A clear-eyed, fair account conveying Thatcher's remarkable talents and sometimes infuriating qualities. Moore's portrait enlivens the woman who was prime minister for more than a decade, 1979-1990, re-creating the circumstances and experiences that shaped one of the most significant world leaders of the postwar era.

Who made modern Britain. This book, drawn from the award-winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography, tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life. Following on from the Oxford DNB's first supplement volume, noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004, this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty-first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008. Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life, from politics, the arts, business, technology, and law to military service, sport, education, science, and medicine. Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain's recent history. From the 1950s, the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman, for example. From the Sixties, the footballer George Best, photographer Patrick Lichfield, and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett. It's hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan, who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade, or similarly Freddie Laker, pioneer of budget air travel, and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen, who entertained with their sketch shows and sit-coms. A decade later, you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records, established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson. In the 1990s, you may have hoped that things can only get better with a New Labour government, which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam. Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause: Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism; Ned Sherrin in broadcasting; or indeed Ted Heath, whose political career spanned more than 50 years. Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit: among them, the epidemiologist Richard Doll, who made the link between smoking and lung cancer; Cicely Saunders, creator of the hospice movement; and Chad Varah, founder of the Samaritans. With John Profumo, who gave his name to a scandal; policeman Malcolm Fewtrell, who investigated the Great Train Robbery; or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko, who was killed in London in 2006, we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past. Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades: Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson; the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham; John DeLorean's gull-wing car; or the new British Library, designed by Colin St John Wilson. Though as rounded and balanced accounts, Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story. Authoritative and accessible, the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors, many of them leading figures in their field. Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter; Michael Crick on George Best; Richard Davenport-Hines on Anita Roddick; Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbrunn; Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan; Simon Heffer on John Profumo; Douglas Hurd on

Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in an another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery
