God Tutu Olaf E. Kaper, 2003 Tutu Tithoes was a popular god in the Ptolemaic and Roman periods of Egyptian history with his origins in the earlier Egyptian religious tradition The god provided protection against demons and his appearance as a striding sphinx was often combined with symbols of his power and visual references to demons and other divinities The god Tutu demonstrates the continuing vitality of the pharaonic religion under the pressure of foreign cultures and ideas This monograph provides the first comprehensive study of the god Tutu It is based upon a collection of attestations largely unpublished which derive from monuments in various parts of Egypt and from museum collections all over the world

Moreover the results of recent archaeological field work in Shenhur and in the temple of Tutu in the Dakhla Oasis have been included in full The catalogue of monuments is accompanied by an analysis of the god Tutu his iconography and his place in the Egyptian religion

The Oxford Handbook of Roman Egypt Christina Riggs,2012-06-21 Roman Egypt is a critical area of interdisciplinary research which has steadily expanded since the 1970s and continues to grow Egypt played a pivotal role in the Roman empire not only in terms of political economic and military strategies but also as part of an intricate cultural discourse involving themes that resonate today east and west old world and new acculturation and shifting identities patterns of language use and religious belief and the management of agriculture and trade Roman Egypt was a literal and figurative crossroads shaped by the movement of people goods and ideas and framed by permeable boundaries of self and space This handbook is unique in drawing together many different strands of research on Roman Egypt in order to suggest both the state of knowledge in the field and the possibilities for collaborative synthetic and interpretive research Arranged in seven thematic sections each of which includes essays from a variety of disciplinary vantage points and multiple sources of information it offers new perspectives from both established and younger scholars featuring individual essay topics themes and intellectual juxtapositions

Trials of the Moon Ben Whitmore,2010 The creation myths of modern witchcraft and Paganism were decisively toppled at the turn of this century in Ronald Hutton s celebrated book Triumph of the Moon But did Hutton topple more than just myths Are some truths also hidden in the rubble Did paganism really die out centuries ago Was witchcraft really no more than a fantasy Were the Gods of Wicca really born out of the Romantic movement Did Gerald Gardner lie about his initiation into witchcraft Ben Whitmore has retraced many of Hutton s steps critically evaluating the evidence and he now suggests that the truth may be quite different and even more fascinating Drawing on a wealth of scholarly material Whitmore demonstrates that the field of Pagan history is anything but barren ground it is rich and fertile and we have barely begun to cultivate it

Ancient Egyptian Statues Simon Connor,2022-09-27 A fascinating richly illustrated study of the role and significance of ancient statues in Egyptian history and belief Why do ancient Egyptian statues so often have their noses hands or genitals broken Although the Late Antiquity period appears to have been one of the major moments of large scale

vandalism against pagan monuments various contexts bear witness to several phases of reuse modification or mutilation of statues throughout and after the pharaonic period Reasons for this range from a desire to erase the memory of specific rulers or individuals for ideological reasons to personal vengeance war tomb plundering and the avoidance of a curse or simply the reuse of material for construction or the need to ritually deactivate and bury old statues without the added motive of explicit hostility toward the subject in question Drawing on the latest scholarship and over 100 carefully selected illustrations Ancient Egyptian Statues proceeds from a general discussion of the production and meaning of sculptures and the mechanisms of their destruction to review the role of ancient statuary in Egyptian history and belief It then moves on to explore the various means of damage and their significance and the role of restoration and reuse Art historian Simon Connor offers an innovative and lucidly written reflection on beliefs and practices relating to statuary and images more broadly in ancient Egypt showing how statues were regarded as the active manifestations of the entities they represented and the ways in which they could endure many lives before being finally buried or forgotten

Egyptology: The Missing Millennium
Okasha El Daly, 2016-07-01 Egyptology The Missing Millennium brings together for the first time the disciplines of Egyptology and Islamic Studies seeking to overturn the conventional opinion of Western scholars that Moslems Arabs had no interest in pre Islamic cultures This book examines a neglected period of a thousand years in the history of Egyptology from the Moslem annexation of Egypt in the seventh century CE until the Ottoman conquest in the 16th century Concentrating on Moslem writers as it is usually Islam which incurs blame for cutting Egyptians off from their ancient heritage the author shows not only the existence of a large body of Arabic sources on Ancient Egypt but also their usefulness to Egyptology today Using sources as diverse as the accounts of travelers and treasure hunters to books on alchemy the author shows that the interest in ancient Egyptian scripts continued beyond classical writers and describes attempts by medieval Arab scholars mainly alchemists to decipher the hieroglyph script He further explores medieval Arab interest in Ancient Egypt discussing the interpretations of the intact temples as well as the Arab concept of Egyptian kingship and state administration including a case study of Queen Cleopatra that shows how the Arabic romance of this queen differs significantly from Western views This book will be of great interest to academics and students of archaeology Islamic studies and Egyptology as well as anyone with a general interest in Egyptian history

Breathing Flesh Rune Nyord, 2009 The ancient Egyptian Coffin Texts form a corpus of ritual spells written on the inside of coffins from the Middle Kingdom c 2000 1650 BCE Thus accompanying the deceased in a very concrete sense the spells are part of a long Egyptian tradition of equipping the dead with ritual texts ensuring the transition from the state of a living human being to that of a deceased ancestor The texts present a view of death as entailing threats to the function of the body often conceptualized as bodily fragmentation or dysfunction In the transformation of the deceased the defense against these bodily dysfunctions is of paramount importance and the texts provide detailed accounts of the ritual empowerment of the body to achieve this goal Seen from this perspective the Coffin

Texts provide a rich material for studying ancient Egyptian conceptions of the body by providing insights into the underlying structure of the body as a whole and the proper function of individual parts of the body as The Hypocephalus: An Ancient Egyptian Funerary Amulet Tamás Mekis,2020-02-29 The hypocephalus is an element of Late Period and Ptolemaic funerary equipment an amuletic disc placed under the head of mummies Its shape emulates the sun s disc and its form is planar although it is occasionally concave This volume analyses the written records and iconography of these objects Egypt at Its Origins Stan Hendrickx,2004 This volume published in memory of Barbara Adams presents 57 contributions by authors from 16 different countries and contains the results of the latest research on Predynastic and Early Dynastic Egypt In addition to papers originally presented at the 2002 conference in Krakow there are the invited contributions by the friends and colleagues of Barbara Adams including several on new discoveries from and thoughts about the site of Hierakonpolis

The Theology of Hathor of Dendera Barbara A. Richter,2016-04-15 The Ptolemaic period witnessed an enormous increase in the number of hieroglyphic signs and iconographic elements composite crowns scepters and cult objects The ancient scribes exploited this complexity when composing the reliefs used in temple decoration selecting particular words hieroglyphic signs and iconographic elements in order to create interconnected multiple layers of meaning forming a tapestry of sound and sight The Theology of Hathor of Dendera examines these techniques on both micro and macro levels from their smallest details to their broadest thematic connections foregrounding individual techniques to determine the words and phrases singled out for emphasis By synthesizing their use in the three dimensional space of the most important cult chamber in the Temple of Hathor at Dendera this new method of analysis not only reveals the most essential characteristics of the local theology but also shows how the ancient scribes envisioned the universe and the place of humankind within it Greek Religion and Cults in the Black Sea Region David Braund,2018-05-31 The Priestess at Bolshaya Bliznitsa Social and Political Order Bibliography Index Scribal Repertoires in Egypt from the New Kingdom to the Early Islamic Period Jennifer Cromwell,Eitan Grossman,2018 Scribal Repertoires in Egypt from the New Kingdom to the Early Islamic Period deals with the possibility of glimpsing pre modern and early modern Egyptian scribes the actual people who produced ancient documents through the ways in which they organized and wrote those documents While traditional research has focused on identifying a pure or original text behind the actual manuscripts that have come down to us from pre modern Egypt the volume looks instead at variation different ways of saying the same thing as a rich source for understanding the complex social and cultural environments in which scribes lived and worked breaking with the traditional conception of variation in scribal texts as free or indicative of corruption As such it presents a novel reconceptualization of scribal variation in pre modern Egypt from the point of view of contemporary historical sociolinguistics seeing scribes as agents embedded in particular geographical temporal and socio cultural environments Introducing to Egyptology concepts such as scribal communities networks and repertoires among others the authors then apply them to a variety of phenomena including features of lexicon grammar orthography palaeography layout and format After first presenting this conceptual framework they demonstrate how it has been applied to better studied pre modern societies by drawing upon the well established domain of scribal variation in pre modern English before proceeding to a series of case studies applying these concepts to scribal variation spanning thousands of years from the languages and writing systems of Pharaonic times to those of Late Antique and Islamic Egypt
