The Kabbalistic Culture of Eighteenth-Century Prague

Sharon Flatto, 2015-09-03 Sharon Flatto's comprehensive study offers the first systematic overview of the eighteenth century Jewish community of Prague and the first critical account of the life and thought of its pre-eminent rabbinic authority Ezekiel Landau. Her detailed analysis, firmly rooted in the historical and cultural context of the period, challenges the conventional portrayal of Landau as a staunch opponent of esoteric practices and reveals the centrality of kabbalistic thought in this key central European city. Eighteenth-century Europe, Tradition and Progress, 1715-1789 Isser Woloch, 1982 Studies the cultural, economic, political and religious changes in 18th century European society that resulted from population growth, agricultural and industrial revolutions and the Enlightenment. Languages of Reform in the Eighteenth Century Susan Richter, Thomas Maissen, Manuela Albertone, 2019-10-18 Societies perceive Reform or Reforms as substantial changes and significant breaks which must be well justified. The Enlightenment brought forth the idea that the future was uncertain and could be shaped by human beings. This gave the concept of reform a new character and new fields of application. Those who sought support for their plans and actions needed to reflect, develop new arguments and offer new reasons to address an anonymous public. This book aims to compile these changes under the heuristic term of languages of reform. It analyzes the structures of communication regarding reforms in the 18th century through a wide variety of topics.
