Notes and Queries, 1881 Double Lyric Merle E. Brown, 2025-07-01

Originally published posthumously in 1980 this book centres on 5 British poets Geoffrey Hill Philip Larkin Jon Silkin Thom Gunn and Charles Tomlinson and on the emergence in postwar British poetry of double lyrics poems which have according to the author become two persons two ways of expressing and attending critically in dramatic divisive conflict The nature and significance of the double lyric is first demonstrated by close readings of Silkin s Defence Tomlinson s Prometheus and Hill s In Piam Memoriam Further chapters focus on the impressive poems which have arisen out of the stress between ideological commitment and imaginative realization in Silkin s work the conflict between intuition and perception in the poetry of Tomlinson and the split between the texture of Gunn s language and the non verbal experience evoked in his poems Finally Merle Brown presents the last phase of F R Leavis collaborative literary and cultural criticism as strikingly close to the poetic achievements of Hill Silkin Tomlinson and Gunn

Beyond Discontent Eckart Goebel, 2012-04-26 According to Freud's later works we do not really feel well or free within civilization. Our discontent never disappears and we shall never become completely reliable members of society. Alcohol already suffices. Freud tells us to ruin the fragile architecture of sublimations. Since Beyond the Pleasure Principle, sublimation seems to be nothing more than a euphemism for suppressing the drives. We sublimate because we did not get or were not allowed to have what we actually wanted. Is sublimation a mere surrogate or perhaps even the name psychoanalysis found for theoria in the twentieth century? With Freud as its pivot, Goebel provides an intellectual history of sublimation which also serves as an introduction to other key ideas associated with the authors discussed, such as Schopenhauer's philosophy of music, the will to power in Nietzsche, the structure of Freudian psychoanalysis, Adorno's concept of modern art, or Lacanian ethics. In examining both its prehistory and reception, Goebel argues that sublimation can be reconsidered as the road toward an individual and social life beyond discontent.

John Donne John Donne, 2015 The John Donne volume in the 21st Century Oxford Authors series offers a wholly new edition of Donne's verse and prose. It consists of a selection of the compositions that circulated in manuscript or in print form during Donne's lifetime. In keeping with the approach of the series, the texts are presented in chronological order and the text chosen is wherever possible the text of the first published version. Each text is paired with a generous complement of historical and textual annotation which enables the present-day reader to access the excitement with which Donne's contemporaries, his first readers, discovered his famous and incomparable originality, audacity, ingenuity, and wit. The edition incorporates new directions and emphases in scholarly editing that are foregrounded in the 21st Century Oxford Authors series, such as the history of readership and the history of texts as material objects.
