Scholes, 1988-05-01 The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction Elements of Fiction Robert E. Scholes, 1973 Elements of Fiction Robert Scholes, Rosemary Sullivan, 1986 This abridgement contains forty three short stories and like the original includes concise essays that define the nature of fiction and the principles upon which it is based Beginning with Hawthorne Poe and Flaubert the collection continues through the present day with Malamud Gallant Updike and Munro The Cumulative Book Index , 1908 A world list of books in the English language Reader's Guide to the Short Story James H.
