Education in Northern Ireland Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Northern Ireland Affairs Committee,2006-02-09 Secondary education in Northern Ireland is currently based on a selective system according to academic ability with the use of an 11 plus style test However the DfES has announced that academic selection will be ended by autumn 2008 and a consultation document published in December 2005 set out proposals for new post primary arrangements Although it was felt to be inappropriate to undertake a full inquiry at this late stage in the decision making process the Committee s report contains oral and written evidence submitted by interested parties to the debate The Committee notes that education is a formerly devolved responsibility and states its hope that there will be scope for detailed supervision of any reforms by a restored Northern Ireland Assembly as well as by the House of Commons
