Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Free Will and the Human Sciences in Britain, 1870-1910
Roger Smith,2015-07-28 From the late nineteenth century onwards religion gave way to science as the dominant force in society This led to a questioning of the principle of free will if the workings of the human mind could be reduced to purely physiological explanations then what place was there for human agency and self improvement Smith takes an in depth look at the problem of free will through the prism of different disciplines Physiology psychology philosophy evolutionary theory ethics history and sociology all played a part in the debates that took place His subtly nuanced navigation through these arguments has much to contribute to our understanding of Victorian and Edwardian science and culture as well as having relevance to current debates on the role of genes in determining behaviour The Transformation of the Psyche in British Primary Care, 1870-1970 Rhodri Hayward,2014-02-25 Conflicting models of selfhood have become central to debates over modern medicine Yet we still lack a clear historical account of how this psychological sensibility came to be established The Transformation of the Psyche in British Primary Care 1880 1970 will remedy this situation by demonstrating that there is nothing inevitable about the current connection between health identity and personal history It traces the changing conception of the psyche in Britain over the last two centuries and it demonstrates how these changes were rooted in transformed patterns of medical care The shifts from private medicine through to National Insurance and the National Health Service fostered different kinds of relationship between doctor and patient and different understandings of psychological distress The Transformation of the Psyche in British Primary Care 1880 1970 examines these transformations and in so doing provides new critical insights into our modern sense of identity and changing notions of health that will be of great value to anyone interested in the modern history of British medicine The New Reformation. A Narrative of the Old Catholic Movement from 1870 to the Present Time with a Historical Introduction Theodorus (pseud.),1875 The New Reformation. A Narrative of the Old Catholic Movement from 1870 to the Present Time, with a Historical Introduction Theodorus,James Bass Mullinger,2025-07-12 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Making of Global Enterprise Geoffrey Jones,1994 This volume provides new insights to the history of international business The international group of authors drawn from the United States Canada Britain and Japan address two main themes How has global business developed over the last century And what has been its impact on host economies These original and wide ranging essays prefaced by an extensive editorial introduction are required reading in courses on international business The
