Ein Hauch Von Habsburg:

The Habsburg Monarchy's Many-Languaged Soul Michaela Wolf, 2015-05-28 In the years between 1848 and 1918 the Habsburg Empire was an intensely pluricultural space that brought together numerous nationalities under constantly changing and contested linguistic regimes The multifaceted forms of translation and interpreting marked by national struggles and extensive multilingualism played a crucial role in constructing cultures within the Habsburg space This book traces translation and interpreting practices in the Empire's administration courts and diplomatic service and takes account of the habitualized translation carried out in everyday life It then details the flows of translation among the Habsburg crownlands and between these and other European languages with a special focus on Italian German exchange Applying a broad concept of cultural translation and working with sociological tools the book addresses the mechanisms by which translation and interpreting constructs cultures and delineates a model of the Habsburg Monarchy's pluricultural space of communication that is also applicable to other multilingual settings Published with the support of the Austrian Science Fund FWF  width 300
