From One Medium To Another Communicating The Bible Through Multimedia:

From One Medium to Another Paul A. Soukup, Robert Hodgson, 1997 Eighteen experts from a wide variety of academic and professional fields engage key questions in a series of thought provoking essays that define the emerging field of new media Bible translating and how the biblical message will be communicated in the culture and media of the 21st century

From One Medium to Another Paul A. Soukup, 1997 Through a Catholic Lens Peter Malone, 2007-04-16 Movies are often examined for subtext and dramatizations of social and psychological issues as well as current movements Studies of well known Catholic directors such as Alfred Hitchcock and John Ford have made the search for Catholic themes a reputable field of examination Through a Catholic Lens continues the search for these themes and examines the Catholic undercurrents by studying nineteen film directors from around the world Although these directors may or may not be practicing Catholics their Catholic background can be found in their writing and directing Each chapter written by a different contributor analyzes one film of each director for its Catholic motifs With the recent increase of cinema studies this collection will be of interest to students and academics as well as cinema buffs Communication, Media, and Identity Robert S. Fortner, 2007 Communication Media and Identity A Christian Theory of Communication is the first comprehensive theoretical look at the nature of communication from a biblical Christian perspective This groundbreaking new work discusses the implications of such a theory for interpersonal relations use of media and the development of digital culture in the wake of the computer It also draws widely from the literature of the secular world critiquing perspectives where necessary and adopting perspectives that are in line with Christian anthropology epistemology and ontology Through this unique lens the reader is able to understand communication as an art as a tool for evangelism and as a unique human activity that allows people to have a stake in the creation It covers both mediated and non mediated forms of communication is sensitive to theological differences within the Christian faith and examines closely the problem of technology and especially digital technology for the practice of communication As the newest book in the Communication Culture and Religion Series Robert Fortner s work illuminates the theological aspects of communication Mark as Story Kelly R. Iverson, Christopher W. Skinner, 2011 This volumes celebrates Mark as Story and offers critique engagement and exploration of the new hermeneutical vistas that emerged in the wake of this pioneering study Job in the Modern World Stephen J. Vicchio, 2006-10-01 In this third of a three volume work the author traces the interpretation of the book of Job from the Authorized Version of the Bible King James Version through philosophers of the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries He also covers Job in the literature of the Romantics Blake Melville and Dostoyevsky As appendices he treats Job in Geography Uz Job and Zoology Behemoth and Leviathan and Job in Film Volume 1 Job in the Ancient World Volume 2 Job in the Medieval World Volume 3 Job in the Modern World Fidelity and Translation Paul A. nature of the narrative as well as contemporary communication philosophy God Speaks My Language Aloo Osotsi Mojola,2020-03-31 This is the fascinating and important story of how God's Word came to East Africa Beginning with the pioneering efforts of Krapf and Rebmann Aloo Osotsi Mojola traces the history of Bible translation in the region from 1844 to the present He incorporates four decades of personal conversations and interviews along with extensive research to provide the first comprehensive account of the translations undertaken in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda Burundi and eastern Democratic Republic of Congo The maps and tables included assist the reader as does a history of the Swahili language its standardization role as lingua franca and impact on the work of translation Mojola's writing is a tribute to those who sacrificed much in their quest to see the word of God accessible to all people in all places and the many who continue to sacrifice for the peoples of East Africa This book is a key contribution to the important and ongoing narrative of how God has met us and continues to meet us in our own contexts and our own languages Engaging Technology in Theological Education Mary E. Hess,2005-04-19 We live in a media culture surrounded by ever evolving digital technologies While state schools and secular organizations have embraced the new teaching tools and models for learning that technology affords religious institutions have struggled with how and why to do the same All that we can't leave behind Engaging technology in theological education is a breakthrough book that invites religious educators to both engage and adapt their pedagogy to incorporate new media and technology Drawing from her expertise as a seminary professor and consultant to religious institutions on the use of technology in teaching Mary Hess invites professors pastors seminarians and anyone interested in religious education into critical reflection on ways of engaging technology to enhance learning and serve as critical interpreters within communities of faith A New Song Stephen D. Campbell, Richard G. Rohlifing Jr., Richard S. Briggs,2023-12-13 The fresh riches of biblical poetry for communities of faith A New Song includes nine essays on the hidden intricacies of poetry in the Hebrew Bible ten poems in dialogue with biblical poetry and three reflective responses On Reading Genesis 49 How Hebrew Poetry Communicates Then and Now John Goldingay Shirat Ha Yam the Song of the Sea in Jewish and Christian Liturgical Tradition C T R Hayward Hannah's Prayer 1 Samuel 2 1 10 On the Interface of Poetics and Ethics in an Embedded Poem David G Firth Bending the Silence Reading Psalms through the Arts Ellen F Davis Psalms Translated for Life in the 21st Century A South African perspective June F Dickie Prosody and Preaching Poetic Form and Religious Function in Biblical Verse Benjamin D Sommer With Fists Flailing at the Gates of Heaven Wrestling with Psalm 88 A Psalm for Chronic Illness Shai Held Truth and Hidden Things Reading Isaiah 45 9 25 as Scripture Katie M Heffelfinger The Dynamic Relationship between God and Man in the Book of Hosea A Dynamic Synchronic Reading Yisca Zimran Poems by Maria Apichella Kilby Austin Edward Clarke Jacqueline Osherow Micheal O Siadhail Richard G Rohlifing Jr and Jock Stein Edited by Stephen D Campbell Richard G Rohlifing Jr and Richard S Briggs A New Song brings together a diverse roster of Jewish and Christian scholars to explore biblical Hebrew poetic texts within the context and for the benefit of communities of faith These thoughtful essays and poems encourage readers to join in the singing of the old songs anew Translation Beyond Translation Studies Kobus Marais,2022-10-06 What is translation Even as the scholarly viewpoint of translation studies has expanded over recent years the notion of translation has remained fixedly defined by its interlinguistic element However there are many different contexts and disciplines in which translation takes place for which this definition is entirely unsuitable Exploring translational aspects in contexts in which scholars do not think about translation this book considers the alternative uses of the term beyond the interlinguistic dimension Taking our understanding of translation back to its basic semiotic principles leading experts outline the wide variety of alternative fields of study practices applications and contexts in which the term translation is used Chapters examine 11 different fields of study exploring what the term translation means how it is used and what it could contribute to an enlarged understanding of translation as a concept In this way the volume argues for a reimagining of what we mean by translation providing an essential reference for anyone interested in how translation is understood and practiced beyond the narrow perspectives of the field of translation studies itself

The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter,2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture
