Loving Immigrants in America Daniel Campos, 2017-08-30 At once narrative and reflective Loving Immigrants in America An Experiential Philosophy of Personal Interaction is a philosophical account of Daniel Campos's experience as a Latin American immigrant to the United States of America A series of interrelated personal essays together convey this experience of walking or sauntering going on road trips reading American literature in the southern United States playing association football soccer or football churchgoing and Latin dancing in the U S This book's central motif is the caring saunterer who is understood to be a person who makes him or herself at home anywhere even as a Latino immigrant in the U S The narrative essays convey one immigrant's experience seeking an affective social and intellectual home in a new land The intertwined philosophical reflections lead to the recommendation of an ethic of love resilient love for the day to day interactions and long term relations between immigrants and hosts in this country The author's aim is to establish an open and earnest philosophical dialogue with critical readers interested in the problems surrounding immigration in the U S today He writes as an American philosopher in the continental sense of North Central and South America whose reflections provide an accessible and provocative angle for the development of insight into the experiences of immigrants in the United States Thus he brings philosophical reflection drawn from experience in the broad American tradition to bear on current issues on the problems of people and not of philosophers as John Dewey might put it

The House That Love Built Sarah Jackson, 2020-07-14 2021 Christian Book Award Finalist Jackson's visionary account is a beautiful model of sacrificial love Publishers Weekly Starred Review The House That Love Built is the quintessential story of one woman's questioning what it means to be an American and a Christian in light of a broken immigration system Through tender stories of opening her heart and home to immigrants Sarah Jackson shines a holy light on loving our neighbor Sarah Jackson once thought immigration justice was administered through higher walls and longer fences Then she met an immigrant a deported young father separated from his US citizen family and everything changed As Sarah began to know fractured families ravaged by threats in their homeland and further traumatized in US detention biblical justice took on a new meaning As Sarah opened her heart and her home to immigrants she experienced a surprising transformation and the gift of extraordinary community The work she began through the ministry of Casa de Paz joined the centuries old Christian tradition of hospitality shining a holy light on what it means to love our neighbor The dilemma of undocumented people continues to hover over America and it raises urgent questions for every Christian What is our responsibility to the stranger in our midst What does God's kingdom look like in the global political reality of immigration What difference can one person make Sarah engages these questions through profound and tender stories placing readers in the shoes of individuals on every side of the issue asylum seekers torn from their families the guards who oversee them ordinary people with lapsed visas the families left to survive on their own the unheralded advocates for immigrants rights and the government officials who decide the fates of others

Ultimately Sarah's journey illuminates how hope can be restored through simple yet radical acts of love The Sunday School Journal, 1886 The Church School Journal, 1886 The Christian Advocate, 1912 The Annual Report of the Commission of Immigration and Housing of California .. California. Commission of Immigration and Housing, 1913-1927, 1923 The Annual Report of the Commissioner of Immigration and Housing of California, [1913/14-1926] ... California. Commission of Immigration and Housing, 1915 Social Service Review, 1915 Love in the Time of Ethnography Lucinda Carspecken, 2017-11-15 Love in the Time of Ethnography explores love variously defined as an important facet of human life and a worthy focus of study The authors look at love in association with an Alevi and Sunni couple in Turkey organizers of Mexican American and immigrant youth movements Christian missionaries in China an elderly man with dementia two women coming home to queer identity a White researcher working with Black women in the US the common ground between Dogen's Zen teachings and Habermas's critical theory an Albanian Sufi community in Michigan and interactions between humans and the natural world It also includes theoretical writing on the place of love in social analysis whether this involves relationships between researchers and participants or the nature of human connection itself The authors argue that social research is an affective process as well as a cognitive one and that fellow feeling is an essential component of making sense of the world Along with more traditional scholarly forms the contributors to this book use auto ethnography life stories archival research and poetry noting that style itself conveys information and emotion Writing is always to some extent partisan While anthropologists and other social researchers have explored this idea over the last few decades they have more often explored it with an eye to critique than to the ideals underlying that critique This is a collection of essays about what ethnographers are aiming for as well as the problems they address and the authors discuss ethical principles like agape hizmet and cari o as rationales for ethnography and rationales for social change Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald, 1912 The Delineator R. S. O'Loughlin, H. F. Montgomery, Charles Dwyer, 1918 Historical Aspects of the Immigration Problem Edith Abbott, 1926 For God So Loved the World Walter R. Strickland, Dayton Hartman, 2020-06-15 Scripture captivates us by describing a people from every nation tribe people and language In pursuit of this kingdom vision Christians have not always navigated America's turbulent racial history in ways that honor others and glorify God In For God So Loved the World Dayton Hartman and Walter Strickland provide a blueprint for a better way an invitation to Christ centered diversity that is both descriptive and constructive Chapters in the book examine the historical context of the American church and its efforts to cultivate racial justice and unity then present a unifying public theology and practical guidance for the journey Convicting and hopeful alike For God So Loved the World motivates readers to seek reconciliation in light of biblical warrant personal sanctification and the church's corporate witness The Power of Love for Reaching Out to "the Other" Johnny Ramirez-Johnson, 2023-08-24 Race is a result of God's design and not of sin God loves diversity and sought it Race biases are normal and come as a result of likes and dislikes love of the other is to be learned In this book Bible stories and principles are combined with four intercultural communication skills to help develop love of the other This book builds on what Sherwood Lingenfelter and Marvin K Mayers developed for understanding cultural values and diversity of likes and dislikes Those differences are normal The problem comes from excluding the other This book explores a step wise approach to developing the love of the other How the person the leader and the church see diversity defines the church s outreach mission and gospel fulfillment Author s Own Words Book Description The Power of Love book explains how emotions and feelings were part of God s creation design from before sin entered this world While departing from cognitive neuropsychology and the latest learning from science this seminar furthers the idea that race relations are not to be understood by sociology and science but by Bible and Christian beliefs If you want to learn a non CRT critical race theory approach to race relations while risking being again convicted of the need to reach out to the other in gospel love enter into dialogue with the author by reading his book and let us pray together If you want to keep it safe and your intercultural relationships as they are in a tongue in cheek way the author advises to stay away from this book By the Way Derek Vreeland,2019-06-18 an inspiring read from beginning to end Midwest Book Review Includes discussion questions at the end of each chapter Foreword by Derwin Gray founding pastor of Transformation Church and former NFL player What if asking Jesus into our hearts is not the heart of the gospel In By the Way pastor and author Derek Vreeland reframes everything we ve been told about Christianity and what it means to follow Jesus Discipleship isn t an add on Jesus didn t say Go into all the world and get people saved or Get people to ask me into their hearts Jesus said Go therefore and make disciples Reclaiming discipleship as the heart of the Christian faith means seeing anew the gospel the cross the resurrection transformation and the community of faith We learn the ways of Jesus by practicing them Vreeland says and in By the Way he introduces us to the ways of Jesus Discipleship means joining God s joyful mission of reconciliation on earth not just saving souls for the afterlife Following Jesus is more like taking a long walk in the woods than sitting in a classroom Living by the Way takes practice and that s the point The Imagined Immigrant Ilaria Serra,2009 Using original sources such as newspaper articles silent movies letters autobiographies and interviews Ilaria Serra depicts a large tapestry of images that accompanied mass Italian migration to the U S at the turn of the twentieth century She chooses to translate the Italian concept of immaginario with the Latin imago that felicitously blends the double English translation of the word as imagery and imaginary Imago is a complex knot of collective representations of the immigrant subject a mental production that finds concrete expression impalpable yet real The imagined immigrant walks alongside the real one in flesh and rags
